SONG OF THE ORPHAN BOY.

Words by G.L.O.

GEORGE L. OSGOOD.

Adagio ma non troppo.

VOICE .

* Oh!

PIANO .

I'm a-lone in the world And no-bo-dy cares for me

All is so dark here be-low, So dark to poor lit-tle me For 2581.

* The entire song must be clearly and expressively declaimed and in a speaking tempo.

Entered according to act of Congress A.D.1872 by G.D. Russell & Co. in the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

fa ther and mother are gone brother and sis-ter I've none, Oh
poco piu presto.

woe is me, woe is me mother and father are gone sister and brother I've none, Oh woe is me poor orphan

boy Oh

I am so hungry and wet With nothing to eat, and no bed, No

fire to warm my cold feet, No place for my poor little head, For a tempo.

father and mother are gone Brother and sister I've none, Oh

mf cresc.

woe is me woe is me Mother and father are

dim. mf

gone Sis-ter and brother I've none, Oh woe is me poor orphan boy.

Oh I have no mother at home, No brother or sis-ter to see Oh Father in heaven look down, Look down on poor lit-tle

dim. mf

riten. p ad lib.

me, For father and mother are gone Brother and sister I've none Oh

woe is me woe is me. Mother and father are gone Sister and brother I've none, Oh woe is me poor orphan boy.
