

IMPERIAL METHOD

FOR THE VIOLONCELLO

BY
E. Mollenhauer.

THE JOHN CHURCH COMPANY
THEODORE PRESSER CO., SELLING AGENTS
1712 CHESTNUT STREET
+ PHILADELPHIA +

Real Aids to Orchestra and Band Success

A Series of Remarkable Instructors for String and Wind Instruments

IMPERIAL METHODS

- VIOLIN—By E. Mollenhauer.
VIOLA—By E. Mollenhauer.
'CELLO—By E. Mollenhauer.
DOUBLE BASS—By E. Mollenhauer.
FLUTE—By G. B. Van Santvoord.
CLARINET—By C. L. Staats.
SAXOPHONE—By Herman Bellstedt.
CORNET—By I. H. Odell.
ALTO—By I. H. Odell.
BARITONE—By I. H. Odell.
SLIDE TROMBONE, BASS CLEF—
By R. N. Davis.
SLIDE TROMBONE, TREBLE CLEF
—By R. N. Davis.
VALVE TROMBONE, BASS CLEF
—By I. H. Odell.
E FLAT BASS (TUBA)—By O. H.
W. Lorenz.
DRUMS, TYMPANI, BELLS, Etc.—
By Harry A. Bower.

Each of the Imperial Methods listed above is a thoroughly practical and immensely successful work for use by teachers with beginners on the respective instrument it covers as well as by those who must gain mastery of an instrument through self-study. Each method leads the student from the beginning to quite a fair understanding of the instrument.

Price, $1.25 Each

FUNDAMENTAL STUDIES IN VIOLONCELLO TECHNIC

By G. F. Schwarz Price, $1.00
A most satisfactory guide to 'cello playing

Experts Agree That This is an Exceptionally Good Method

BEGINNER'S METHOD FOR THE TRUMPET (or Cornet)

By Harold W. Rehrig

The author of this book, who is one of the artist members of the famous Philadelphia Orchestra, is well fitted to write such a work and from beginning to end it is so clear and concise as to carry the pupil along almost as a self-instructor. Teachers value this feature since it saves time, aids progress and gives opportunity for careful observation of those details necessary to developing musicianship with playing ability.

Price, $1.25

One of the Best of All Saxophone Methods

BEGINNER'S METHOD FOR THE SAXOPHONE

By H. Benne Henton

An original and distinctive method. Admirable for studio use. Unsurpassable for the self-help student. A helpful and comprehensive chart is included. A clear explanation of the secrets of a beautiful tone is given. With melodious material musicianly playing is developed.

Price, $1.25

PRESSER'S POPULAR ORCHESTRA BOOK

This collection is rightly entitled because there is no doubt about the popularity of these catchy selections with young players who find them easy to play and audiences who hear in them attractive qualities and a satisfying tonal fullness. The contents includes 14 splendid numbers of varied appeal. The orchestration is complete with 21 parts and piano accompaniment.

Piano Acc.—Price, 60c

Other Parts, 30c Each

THE VICTORY BAND BOOK

*A Collection of Superb Marches
by Various Composers*

Sixteen marches of all types, the stirring, the novel, the patriotic, and the lively, make up the contents of this fine band book. Some of these are "Fellowship March" by Klohr, "Circus-dome March" by Jewell, "American Guard March" by Conterno, "Silver Trumpets March" by Losey and "Freedom of the Seas" by Esberger. This book will not be found difficult by the average young band.

Price, 30 cents Each Part

1712-1714 Chestnut St.

THEODORE PRESSER CO.
Music Publishers and Dealers

Philadelphia, Pa.
