EDITED BY
Prof. Dr. ALFRED SCHÖNE and FERDINAND HILLER.

A. D. COLERIDGE.

"The selection of the letters of Moritz Hauptmann, which Messrs. Novello have recently published in an English dress, constitutes a really valuable addition to the belles lettres of music."—Daily Graphic.

"It is a popular supposition that books of this sort are for the expert alone; but, as a matter of fact, these two thin, closely-printed volumes bristle with things of interest to the ordinary reader, provided he be a person of cultivated intelligence."—Globe.

"Their intrinsic value as expressions of the matured thoughts of one of the most eminent theorists of the century is perhaps unrivalled in the whole range of the epistolatory literature of musicians."—Manchester Guardian.
