| " 3. " "MR. JOKER and Miss JESTER" Quadrilles. | " 6. The "SPRING and YOUTH," (Polka Quadrilles.) |

Philadelphia: Published by G. Andre & Co., 229 Chestnut Street, between 7th & 8th.
BALTIMORE, F. Assum, 53 Baltimore St.—PITTSBURG, H. Kleber, 101 Third St.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the Year 1862, by G. ANDRE, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court, of the Eastern District of Penn'a.

NOTE:— These Quadrilles distinguish themselves from others by the following

NEW FEATURES.

1. Every figure and each strain contains a pleasing melody, (and not a mere compilation of notes, like in many others,) thus securing a greater variety, and avoiding tediousness.
2. Every figure can be used as a separate performance, for any private entertainment, with or without dancing.
3. Every figure having more strains (with lively music,) then usually, these Quadrilles can be used as "Cotillions," with any number of figures.

PRICE:— For One VIOLIN, 12 1-2 Cents.— For VIOLIN and PIANO, 37 1-2 Cents.
