Handwritten musical score for a piece titled "G O M B E R T H A M M F I L V M E N A". The score is written on seven staves, each containing a single melodic line. The notation is in a historical style, using diamond-shaped notes and a C-clef. The lyrics are written below the staves, with double bar lines (//) indicating the end of a phrase or section. The piece is divided into two main parts: "Osanna" and "Benedictus".

The first staff begins with the word "Osanna". The second staff continues with "osanna in excelsis,". The third staff also contains "osanna in excelsis,". The fourth staff continues with "osanna in excelsis,". The fifth staff begins with "Benedictus". The sixth staff continues with "qui venit". The seventh staff continues with "qui venit". The final line of the score is "in nomine domini. qui venit in nomine domini.".
