The musical score is arranged in two systems. The first system consists of five staves. The first four staves are in treble clef, and the fifth staff is in bass clef. The second system consists of eight staves, all in treble clef. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and beams. Dynamic markings are present throughout, including Pia Allegro, Moderato, and Larghetto. The notation is complex, with many beamed notes and rests, suggesting a fast and intricate piece.

The image shows a page from a musical score for 'The Merry Widow' (No. 2) by Franz Lehár. The score is for a full orchestra and includes vocal parts. It features a variety of musical notations, including staves with notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'ff' and 'f'. The tempo is marked 'Allegretto'. The score is written in a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The first system of the score is for the orchestra, and the second system is for the vocal parts. The score is written in a clear, legible font, and the musical notation is well-organized and easy to read.
