PREFACE.

IN response to many requests we have prepared this book to supply a need long felt in our churches. We hope our principal motive in the work has been a desire for the benefit of the Lord's people, and for his own declarative glory.

We have endeavored to select such hymns and tunes as are most commonly used in churches of our faith and order in all the different sections of the country.

In the selection of hymns our first care has been that every sentiment expressed should be in harmony with the truth of God, believing that "Christians should never sing what they do not believe to be true." We have also chosen those that express the common experience of the saints, and which breathe a spirit of praise and holy devotion to God, rather than such as appeal to the natural sympathies, regarding them as more suitable to the purpose for which this book is designed, which is, to be used in the meetings of the saints, whose only object in singing should be the worship of the true and living God in spirit and in truth.

In the association of hymns and tunes we have in some instances had respect to long use; in others we have determined the arrangement according to our own judgment, and the character of melody preferred in different localities.

Should any fail to find in this book some favorite hymn or tune, as may sometimes be the case, we hope they will find others equally desirable, and will remember the impossibility of an arrangement of so small a number that would contain the favorites of all.

We hope for the favorable consideration of our brethren, and humbly ask and hope that our own imperfect labors may be blessed of the Lord to his dear people.

SILAS H. DURAND.

Perfections of God.

UXBRIDGE. L. M.

Dr. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

1. E - ter - nal Pow'r ! whose high a - bode Be - comes the grandeur of a God;

In - fi - nite lengths, be - yond the bounds Where stars revolve their lit - tle rounds.

1 Eternal Power ! whose high abode
Becomes the grandeur of a God ;
Infinite lengths, beyond the bounds
Where stars revolve their little rounds.

2 The lowest step around thy seat,
Rises too high for Gabriel's feet ;
In vain the favored angel tries
To reach thine height with wond'ring eyes.

3 Lord, what shall earth and ashes do !
We would adore our Maker, too ;

From sin and dust to thee we cry,
The Great, the Holy, and the High !

4 Earth from afar has heard thy fame,
And worms have learned to lisp thy name ;
But, O ! the glories of thy mind
Leave all our soaring thoughts behind.

5 God is in heaven, but man below ;
Be short our tunes ; our words be few ;
A sacred reverence checks our songs,
And praise sits silent on our tongues.

(1) Watts.

LOVING KINDNESS. L. M.

WM. CALDWELL. 1830.

1. A - wake, my soul, in joy - ful lays, And sing thy great Re - deemer's praise;
He just - ly claims a song from me! His lov - ing kind - ness, O how free!
His lov - ing kind - ness, lov - ing kindness, His lov - ing kind - ness, O how free!

2 (20)

2 He saw me ruin'd in the fall,
Yet lov'd me notwithstanding all;
He sav'd me from my lost estate;
His loving kindness, O how great!

3 Though num'rous hosts of mighty foes,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along;
His loving kindness, O how strong!

4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gather'd thick and thunder'd loud,
He near my soul has always stood;
His loving kindness, O how good!

5 Often I feel my sinful heart
Prone from my Jesus to depart;
But though I have him oft forgot,
His loving kindness changes not.

6 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale,
Soon all my mortal powers must fail;
O! may my last expiring breath
His loving kindness sing in death.

7 Then let me mount and soar away
To the bright world of endless day,
And sing, with rapture and surprise,
His loving kindness in the skies.

Medley.

L. M.

1 THE Lord, how wondrous are his ways!
How firm his truth! how large his grace!
He takes his mercy for his throne,
And thence he makes his glories known.

2 Not half so high his power hath spread
The starry heavens above our head,
As his rich love exceeds our praise,
Exceeds the highest hopes we raise.

3 Not half so far hath nature placed
The rising morning from the west,
As his forgiving grace removes
The daily guilt of those he loves.

Watts.

SESSIONS. L. M.

L. O. EMERSON.

By per. O. DITSON &amp; CO.

4 (17)

1 WAIT, O my soul, thy Maker's will;
Tumultuous passions, all be still!
Nor let a murmuring thought arise;
His ways are just, his counsels wise.

2 He in the thickest darkness dwells,
Performs his work, the cause conceals;
But, though his methods are unknown,
Judgment and truth support his throne.

3 In heaven, and earth, and air, and seas
He executes his firm decrees;
And by his saints it stands confest,
That what he does is ever best.

4 Wait then, my soul, submissive wait,
Prostrate before his awful seat;
And, 'midst the terrors of his rod,
Trust in a wise and gracious God.

Beddome

5 (23)

L. M.

1 LORD, we are blind, we mortals, blind,
We can't behold thy bright abode;
O 'tis beyond a creature's mind
To glance a thought half way to God.

2 Infinite leagues beyond the sky
The Great Eternal reigns alone,
Where neither wings nor souls can fly,
Nor angels climb the topless throne.

3 The Lord of Glory builds his seat
Of gems incomparably bright,
And lays beneath his sacred feet
Substantial beams of gloomy night.

4 Yet, glorious Lord, thy gracious eyes
Look through, and cheer us from above;
Beyond our praise thy grandeur flies,
Yet we adore, and yet we love.

Watts.

6 (11)

L. M.

1 GREAT Former of this various frame,
Our souls adore thine awful name;
And bow and tremble while they praise
The Ancient of eternal days.

2 Thou, Lord, with unsurprised survey,
Saw'st nature rising yesterday;
And, as to-morrow, shall thine eye
See earth and stars in ruin lie.

3 Beyond an angel's vision bright,
Thou dwell'st in self-existent light;
Which shines, with undiminished ray,
While suns and worlds in smoke decay.

4 Our days a transient period run,
And change with every circling sun;
And, in the firmest state we boast,
A moth can crush us into dust.

5 But let the creatures fall around;
Let death consign us to the ground;
Let the last general flame arise,
And melt the arches of the skies:

6 Calm as the summer's ocean, we
Can all the wreck of nature see,
While grace secures us an abode,
Unshaken as the throne of God.

Doddridge.

MELODY. C. M.

A. CHAPIN. 1813.

1. Ho - ly and rev - 'rend is the name Of our e - ter - nal King:

Thrice ho - ly, Lord, the an - gels cry; Thrice ho - ly, let us sing.

7 (7)

1 HOLY and reverend is the name
Of our eternal King:
Thrice holy, Lord, the angels cry;
Thrice holy, let us sing.

2 Heaven's brightest lamps with him com-
How mean they look and dim! [pared,
The fairest angels have their spots,
When once compared with him.

3 Holy is he in all his works,
And truth is his delight;
But sinners and their wicked ways
Shall perish from his sight.

4 The deepest reverence of the mind,
Pay, O my soul, to God;
Lift with thy hands a holy heart
To his sublime abode.

5 With sacred awe pronounce his name,
Whom words nor thoughts can reach;
A broken heart shall please him more
Than the best forms of speech.

6 Thou holy God! preserve my soul
From all pollution free;
The pure in heart are thy delight,
And they thy face shall see.

Needham.

8 (15)

C. M.

1 KEEP silence, all created things,
And wait your Maker's nod!
My soul stands trembling while she sings
The honors of her God.

2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds un-
Hang on his firm decree; [known
He sits on no precarious throne,
Nor borrows leave to be.

3 Chained to his throne, a volume lies,
With all the fates of men,
With every angel's form and size,
Drawn by th' Eternal pen.

4 His providence unfolds the book,
And makes his counsels shine;
Each opening leaf, and every stroke
Fulfills some deep design.

5 Here he exalts neglected worms
To sceptres and a crown;
And there the following page he turns,
And treads the monarch down.

6 Not Gabriel asks the reason why,
Nor God the reason gives;
Nor dares the favorite angel pry
Between the folded leaves.

7 My God, I would not long to see
My fate with curious eyes,
What gloomy lines are writ for me,
Or what bright scenes may rise;

8 In thy fair book of life and grace,
O may I find my name
Recorded in some humble place,
Beneath my Lord the Lamb!

Watts

ARLINGTON. C. M.

DR. THOS. ARNE. 1710-1778.

9 (18)

1 YE humble souls, approach your God
With songs of sacred praise,
For he is good, immensely good,
And kind are all his ways.

2 All nature owns his guardian care,
In him we live and move;
But nobler benefits declare
The wonders of his love.

3 He gave his Son, his only Son,
To ransom rebel worms;
'Tis here he makes his goodness known
In its diviner forms.

4 To this dear refuge, Lord, we come;
'Tis here our hope relies;
A safe defense, a peaceful home,
When storms of trouble rise.

5 Thine eye beholds, with kind regard,
The souls who trust in thee;
Their humble hope thou wilt reward
With bliss divinely free.

Steele.

10 (19) C. M. John 4: 8.

1 AMID the splendors of thy state,
My God, thy love appears
With the soft radiance of the moon
Among a thousand stars.

2 Nature through all her amp'le round
Thy boundless power proclaims,
And, in melodious accent, speaks
The goodness of thy names.

3 Thy justice, holiness, and truth,
Our solemn awe excite;
But the sweet charms of sovereign grace
O'erwhelm us with delight.

4 Sinai, in clouds, and smoke, and fire,
Thunders thy dreadful name;
But Sion sings, in melting notes,
The honors of the Lamb.

5 In all thy doctrine and commands,
Thy counsels and designs,—
In every work thy hands have framed,
Thy love supremely shines.

6 Angels and men the news proclaim,
Through earth and heaven above,
The joyful and transporting news,
That God the Lord is Love!

Steele.

11 (12) C. M.

1 THY names, how infinite they be!
Great Everlasting One!
Boundless thy might and majesty,
And unconfined thy throne.

2 Thy glories shine of wondrous size,
And wondrous large thy grace;
Immortal day breaks from thine eyes,
And Gabriel veils his face.

3 Thine essence is a vast abyss
Which angels cannot sound,
An ocean of infinities
Where all our thoughts are drowned.

Watts.

My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness
In songs of glory sing.
- 2 God reigns on high, but ne'er confines
His goodness to the skies; [shines
Through the whole earth his bounty
And every want supplies.
- 3 With longing eyes thy creatures wait
On thee for daily food,
Thy liberal hand provides their meat,
And fills their mouths with good.

How slow thine anger moves!
But soon he sends his pardoning word
To cheer the souls he loves.

- 1 GREAT is the Lord; his works of might Demand our noblest songs;
Let his assembled saints unite
Their harmony of tongues.
- 2 Great is the mercy of the Lord,
He gives his children food;
And ever mindful of his word,
He makes his promise good.

- 1 GREAT God, how infinite art thou!
What worthless worms are we!
Let the whole race of creatures bow
And pay their praise to thee.
- 2 Thy throne eternally has stood,
Ere seas or stars were made;
Thou art the ever-living God,
Were all the nations dead.
- 3 Nature and time quite naked lie
To thine immense survey,
From the formation of the sky
To the great burning day.
- 4 Eternity, with all its years,
Stands present in thy view;
To thee there's nothing old appears,
Great God, there's nothing new.
- 5 Our lives thro' various scenes are drawn,
And vexed with trifling cares;
While thine eternal thoughts move on
Thine undisturbed affairs.

G. F. HANDEL. 1685-1759.

1. O bless the Lord, my soul; Let all with-in me join,
And aid my tongue to bless his name, Whose fa-vors are di-vine.

18 (39)

- 1 O BLESS the Lord, my soul;
Let all within me join,
And aid my tongue to bless his name,
Whose favors are divine.
- 2 O bless the Lord, my soul;
Nor let his mercies lie
Forgotten in unthankfulness,
And without praises die.
- 3 'Tis he forgives thy sins,
'Tis he relieves thy pain,
'Tis he that heals thy sicknesses,
And makes thee young again.
- 4 He crowns thy life with love,
When ransomed from the grave;
He that redeemed my soul from hell,
Hath sovereign power to save.
- 5 He fills the poor with good;
He gives the sufferers rest;
The Lord hath judgments for the proud,
And justice for th'oppressed.
- 6 His wondrous works and ways
He made by Moses known;
But sent the world his truth and grace,
By his beloved Son.

Watts.

- 2 God will not always chide;
And when his strokes are felt,
His strokes are fewer than our crimes,
And lighter than our guilt.
- 3 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.
- 4 His power subdues our sins;
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.
- 5 The pity of the Lord
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our humble frame.
- 6 He knows we are but dust,
Scattered with every breath;
His anger, like a rising wind,
Can send us swift to death.
- 7 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

19 (43)

S. M.

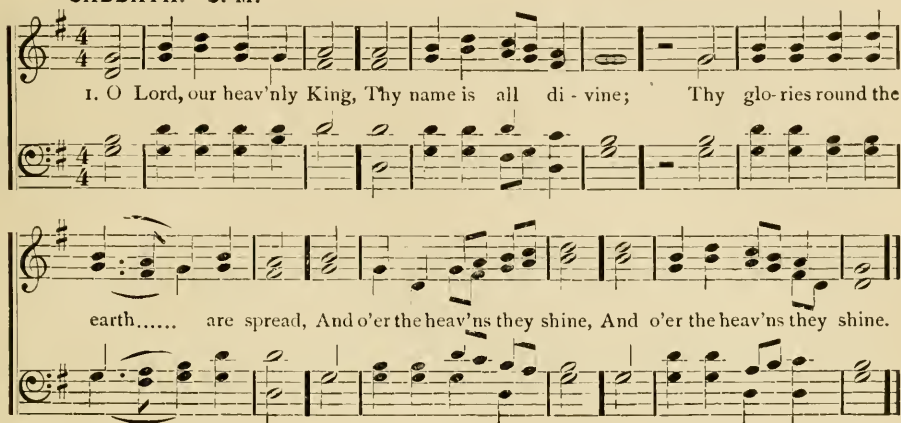

- 1 My soul, repeat his praise
Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.

- 8 But thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

Watts.

Thy name is all divine;
Thy glories round the earth are spread,
And o'er the heavens they shine.
- 2 When to thy works on high
I raise my wondering eyes,
And see the moon complete in light
Adorn the darksome skies:
- 3 When I survey the stars,
And all their shining forms,
Lord, what is man, that worthless thing,
Akin to dust and worms!
- 4 How rich thy bounties are!
And wondrous are thy ways:
Of dust and worms thy power can frame
A monument of praise.

Watts.

- 1 THE Lord, the sovereign King,
Hath fixed his throne on high;
O'er all the heavenly world he rules,
And all beneath the sky.

And swift to do his will,
Bless ye the Lord, whose voice ye hear,
Whose pleasure ye fulfil.
- 3 Let the bright hosts who wait
The orders of their King,
Attend his churches when they pray,
Join in the praise they sing.

- 4 While all his wondrous works,
Through his vast kingdom show
Their Maker's glory, thou, my soul,
Shall sing his graces, too.

Watts.

- 1 My soul, with joy attend,
While Jesus silence breaks;
No angel's harp such music yields
As what my Shepherd speaks.
- 2 "I know my sheep," he cries;
"My soul approves them well;
Vain is the treacherous world's disguise,
And vain the rage of hell.
- 3 "I freely feed them now
With tokens of my love;
But richer pastures I prepare,
And sweeter streams above.
- 4 "Unnumbered years of bliss
I to my sheep will give:
And while my throne unshaken stands,
Shall all my chosen live.
- 5 "This tried Almighty hand
Is raised for their defense:
Where is the power shall reach them there,
Or what shall force them thence?"
- 6 "Enough, my gracious Lord!"
Let Faith triumphant cry;
"My heart can on this promise live—
Can on this promise die."

By per. O. DITSON & CO.

23 (65)

1 THY ways, O Lord! with wise design,
Are framed upon thy throne above;
And every dark and bending line
Meets in the center of thy love.

2 With feeble light, and half obscure,
Poor mortals thy arrangements view;
Not knowing that the least are sure,
And the mysterious just and true.

3 Thy flock, thy own peculiar care,
Though now they seem to roam uneyed,
Are led or driven only where
They best and safest may abide.

4 They neither know nor trace the way;
But, trusting to thy piercing eye,
None of their feet to ruin stray,
Nor shall the weakest fail or die.

1 THROUGH all the various shifting scene
Of life's mistaken ill or good,
Thy hand, O God! conducts unseen
The beautiful vicissitude.

2 Thou givest with paternal care,
How'er unjustly we complain,
To each their necessary share
Of joy and sorrow, health and pain.

3 When lowest sunk with grief and shame,
Filled with affliction's bitter cup,
Lost to relations, friends, and fame,
Thy powerful hand can raise us up.

4 Thy powerful consolations cheer,
Thy smiles suppress the deep-fetched
Thy hand can dry the trickling tear [sigh,
That secret wets the widow's eye.

L. M. Ps. 57.

1 My God, in whom are all the springs
Of boundless love, and grace unknown,
Hide me beneath thy spreading wings
Till the dark cloud is overblown.

2 Up to the heavens I send my cry,
The Lord will my desire perform;
He sends his angel from the sky, [storm.
And saves me from the threatening

3 My heart is fixed; my song shall raise
Immortal honors to thy name;
Awake, my tongue, to sound his praise,
My tongue, the glory of his fame.

4 High o'er the earth his mercy reigns,
And reaches to the utmost sky;
His truth to endless years remains,
When lower worlds dissolve and die.

5 Be thou exalted, O my God,
Above the heavens where angels dwell;
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.

Watts.

1 LORD, we adore thy vast designs,
The obscure abyss of providence,
Too deep to sound with mortal lines,
Too deep to view with feeble sense.

2 Now thou arrayest thine awful face
In angry frowns, without a smile;
We through the cloud believe thy grace,
Secure of thy compassion still.

3 Through seas and storms of deep distress
We sail by faith, and not by sight;
Faith guides us in the wilderness
Through all the terrors of the night.

4 Dear Father, if thy lifted rod
Resolve to scourge us here below,
Still let us lean upon our God,
Thine arm shall bear us safely through.

He plants his foot-steps in the sea, And rides up-on* the storm.

28 (68)

- 1 GOD moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
He rides upon the storm.
- 2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.
- 3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take,
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.
- 4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.
- 5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.
- 6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

- 1 GREAT God of providence! thy ways
Are hid from mortal sight;
Wrapt in impenetrable shades,
Or clothed with dazzling light.

- 2 The wondrous methods of thy grace
Evadé the human eye;
The nearer we attempt t' approach,
The farther off they fly.
- 3 But in the world of bliss above
Where thou dost ever reign,
The mysteries shall be all unveiled,
And not a doubt remain.
- 4 The Sun of righteousness shall there
His brightest beams display,
And not a hovering cloud obscure
That never-ending day.

- 1 LET others boast how strong they be,
Nor death nor danger fear;
But we'll confess, O Lord, to thee,
What feeble things we are.
- 2 Fresh as the grass our bodies stand,
And flourish bright and gay,
A blasting wind sweeps o'er the land,
And fades the grass away.
- 3 Our life contains a thousand springs,
And dies if one be gone;
Strange! that a harp of thousand strings,
Should keep in tune so long.
- 4 But 'tis our God supports our frame,
The God who built us first;
Salvation to th' Almighty Name
That reared us from the dust.

Watts.

34 (135) Psa. 89: 15.

1 LOUD let the tuneful trumpet sound,
And spread the joyful tidings round;
Let every soul with transport hear,
And hail the Lord's accepted year.

2 Ye debtors, whom he gives to know
That you ten thousand talents owe,
When humble at his feet you fall,
Your gracious God forgives them all.

3 Slaves, that have borne the heavy chain
Of sin and hell's tyrannic reign,
To liberty assert your claim,
And urge the great Redeemer's name.

4 The rich inheritance of heaven,
Your joy, your boast, is freely given;
Fair Salem your arrival waits,
With golden streets and pearly gates.

5 Her blest inhabitants no more
Bondage and poverty deplore;
No debt, but love immensely great;
Their joy still rises with the debt.

6 O happy souls that know the sound,
Celestial light their steps surround,
And show that jubilee begun,
Which through eternal years shall run.

From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and reverence filled the place.

2 From heaven he came, of heaven he

To heaven he led his followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.

3 Come, children, to your Father's home;

1 GREAT was the day, the joy was great,
When the divine disciples met;
Whilst on their heads the Spirit came,
And sat like tongues of cloven flame.

2 What gifts, what miracles he gave!
And power to kill, and power to save!
Furnished their tongues with wondrous words,

Instead of shields, and spears, and swords.

3 Thus armed, he sent the champions forth
From east to west, from south to north;
Go, and assert your Saviour's cause,
'Go spread the mystery of his cross.'

4 These weapons of the holy war,
Of what almighty force they are
To make our stubborn passions bow,
And lay the proudest rebel low!

5 Great King of grace, my heart subdue,
I would be led in triumph, too,
A willing captive to my Lord,
And sing the victories of his word.

- 2 How charming is their voice!
How sweet the tidings are!
"Zion, behold thy Saviour King,
He reigns and triumphs here."
- 3 How happy are our ears
That hear this joyful sound
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found!
- 4 How blessed are our eyes
That see this heavenly light;
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.
- 5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
- 6 The Lord makes bare his arm
Through all the earth abroad;
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

- 3 Then to his new commands
Be strict obedience paid;
O'er all his Father's house he stands
The Sovereign and the Head.
- 4 The man that durst despise
The law that Moses brought,
Behold! how terribly he dies
For his presumptuous fault.
- 5 But sorer vengeance falls
On that rebellious race,
Who hate to hear when Jesus calls,
And dare resist his grace.

Watts.

From their abyss of woes.

Watts.

- 1 THE law by Moses came,
But peace, and truth, and love,
Were brought by Christ, a nobler name,
Descending from above.
- 2 Amidst the house of God
Their different works were done;
Moses a faithful servant stood,
But Christ a faithful Son.
- 3 His hand no thunder bears,
No terror clothes his brow,
No bolts to drive our guilty souls
To fiercer flames below.
- 4 'Twas mercy filled the throne,
And wrath stood silent by,
When Christ was sent with mercy down
To rebels doomed to die.

The year of Jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

4 The gospel trumpet hear,
The news of pardoning grace;

Behold your Saviour's face:
The year of Jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

1 AWAKE, awake, arise,
And hail the glorious morn;
Hark, how the angels sing,
"To you a Saviour's born!"
Now let our hearts in concert move,
And every tongue be tuned to love.

2 He mortals came to save
From sin's tyrannic power;
Come, with the angels sing
At this auspicious hour;
Let every heart and tongue combine,
To praise the love, the grace divine.

3 The prophecies and types
Are all this day fulfilled;
With eastern sages join
To praise this wondrous child:
God's only Son is come to bless
The earth with peace and righteousness.

4 Glory to God on high,
For our Emmanuel's birth;
To mortal men good will,
And peace and joy on earth:
With angels now we will repeat
Their songs, still new and ever sweet.

To-day he makes his entrance here,
But not as monarchs do.

3 "No gold nor purple swaddling bands,
Nor royal shining things;
A manger for his cradle stands,
And holds the King of kings.

4 "Go, shepherds, where the infant lies,
And see his humble throne;
With tears of joy in all your eyes,
Go, shepherds, kiss the Son.

5 "Thus Gabriel sang, and straight a-
The heavenly armies throng, [round
They tune their harps to lofty sound,
And thus conclude the song:

6 "Glory to God that reigns above,
Let peace surround the earth;

At their Redeemer's birth."

7 Lord, and shall angels have their songs,
And men no tunes to raise!
O may we lose our useless tongues
When they forget to praise.

8 Glory to God that reigns above,
That pitied us forlorn,
We join to sing our Maker's love,
For there's a Saviour born.

1 AWAKE, awake the sacred song
To our incarnate Lord;
Let every heart, and every tongue,
Adore th' eternal Word.

2 That awful Word, that sovereign Power
By whom the worlds were made,
(O happy morn, illustrious hour!)
Was once in flesh arrayed!

3 Then shone almighty power and love
In all their glorious forms,
When Jesus left his throne above,
To dwell with sinful worms.

4 To dwell with misery below,
The Saviour left the skies;
And sunk to wretchedness and wo,
That worthless men might rise.

5 Adoring angels tuned their songs
To hail the joyful day;
With rapture then let mortal tongues
Their grateful worship pay.

6 What glory, Lord, to thee is due!
With wonder we adore;
But could we sing as angels do,
Our highest praise were poor.

Ye mountains sink, ye valleys rise,
Prepare the Lord his way.

The nations, as their God;
To show the world his righteousness,
And send his truth abroad.

And bid the world draw near,
How will the guilty nations dread
To see their Judge appear!

The Saviour promised long! [comes,
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.

2 He comes, the prisoners to release,
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.

3 He comes from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray;
And, on the eyes oppressed with right,
To pour celestial day.

4 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure;
And, with the treasures of his grace,
To enrich the humble poor.

5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim;
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy beloved name.

3 The God of glory down to men
Removes his blest abode;
His saints the objects of his grace,

And then he shows his opened veins,
And pleads his wounded side.

1 'Twixt Jesus and the chosen race,
Subsists a bond of sovereign grace,
That hell, with its infernal train,
Shall ne'er dissolve, or rend in twain.

2 This sacred bond shall never break,
Though earth should to her centre shake;
Rest, doubting saint, assured of this,
For God has pledged his holiness.

3 He swore but once, the deed was done;
'Twas settled by the great Three One;
Christ was appointed to redeem
All that the Father loved in him.

4 Hail sacred union, firm and strong!
How great the grace, how sweet the song!
That worms of earth should ever be
One with incarnate deity!

5 One in the tomb, one when he rose,
One when he triumph'd o'er his foes,
One when in heaven he took his seat,
While seraph's sung all hell's defeat.

Their life, their surety, and their all.

 But when we see our Saviour here
 We shall be like our Head.

4 A hope so much divine,
 May trials well endure;
 For we, as sons in Christ, are made
 As pure as he is pure.

2 Every fallen soul, by sinning,
Merits everlasting pain;
But thy love, without beginning,
Has restored thy sons again:
Countless millions
Shall in life through Jesus reign.

3 Pause, my soul, adore and wonder!
Ask, "O why such love to me?"
Grace hath put me in the number
Of the Saviour's family:
Hallelujah!
Thanks, eternal thanks to thee!

4 Since that love had no beginning,
And shall never, never cease;
Keep, O keep me, Lord, from sinning!
Guide me in the way of peace!
Make me walk in
All the paths of holiness.

5 When I quit this feeble mansion,
And my soul returns to thee;
Let the power of thy ascension
Manifest itself in me:
Through thy Spirit
Give the final victory.

83 (239) Psalm 31: 15; 34: 1.

1 SOVEREIGN Ruler of the skies!
Ever gracious, ever wise!
All my times are in thy hand,—
All events at thy command.

2 His decree, who formed the earth,
Fixed my first and second birth:
Parents, native place, and time,—
All appointed were by him.

3 He that formed me in the womb,
He shall guide me to the tomb;
All my times shall ever be Ordered by his wise decree.

4 Times of sickness, times of health,
Times of penury and wealth;
Times of trial and of grief,
Times of triumph and relief:

5 Times the tempter's power to prove;
Times to taste a Saviour's love:
All must come, and last, and end,
As shall please my heavenly friend.

6 Plagues and deaths around me fly;
Till he bids, I cannot die:
Not a single shaft can hit
Till the God of love sees fit.

7 O thou Gracious, Wise, and Just,
In thy hands my life I trust:
Have I somewhat dearer still?—
I resign it to thy will.

8 Thee, at all times, will I bless:
Having thee, I all possess:
How can I bereaved be,
Since I cannot part with thee

Ryland.

84 (329) 7s. Matt. 1: 23.

1 God with us! O glorious name!
Let it shine in endless fame:
God and man in Christ unite:
Oh, mysterious depth and height!

2 God with us! Amazing love
Brought him from his courts above;
Now, ye saints, his grace admire,
Swell the song with holy fire.

3 God with us! but tainted not
With the first transgressor's blot;
Yet, did he our sins sustain,
Bear the guilt, the curse, the pain.

4 God with us! Oh, wondrous grace!
Let us see him face to face,
That we may Emmanuel sing,
As we ought, our God and King.

GRATITUDE. L. M.

P. A. D. BOST, 1790-1874.

1. From deep dis-tress and troubled thoughts, To thee, my God, I raised my cries;
If thou se-vere-ly mark our faults, No flesh can stand be-fore thine eyes.

85 (250)

1 FROM deep distress and troubled tho'ts
To thee, my God, I raised my cries;
If thou severely mark our faults,
No flesh can stand before thine eyes.

2 But thou has built thy throne of grace,
Free to dispense thy pardons there,
That sinners may approach thy face,
And hope and love, as well as fear.

3 As the benighted pilgrims wait,
And long, and wish for breaking day,
So waits my soul before thy gate;
When will my God his face display?

4 My trust is fixed upon the Word,
Nor shall I trust thy Word in vain;
Let mourning souls address the Lord,
And find relief from all their pain.

5 Great is his love, and large his grace,
Through the redemption of his Son;
He turns our feet from sinful ways,
And pardons what our hands have done.

Watts.

1 GREAT source of all eternal grace,
That saints shall know, or seraphs trace;
Thee we'll attempt in songs to praise,
For acts of grace in ancient days.

2 Long ere the day that Adam fell,
The covenant stood in all things well;
Grace had secured in Jesus then,
Millions untold of chosen men.

3 By grace their names were all enrolled,
As chosen sheep within its fold;
'Tis grace secures their standing there
In lines of love divinely fair.

1 WHEN in the cloud, with colors fair,
I see the ancient bow appear,
Its beauteous form and lovely rays,
Awake my soul to love and praise.

2 It tells me now how firm the base,
The oath, the promise, and the grace,
Which God of old, ere time begun,
To Zion swear, in Christ his Son.

3 Dejected saint, dismiss thy fears,
Still round the throne the bow appears,
Portending peace and mercy free,
And full salvation now to thee.

4 It points thy soul to Jesus now;
Vindictive wrath once smote his brow,
That on thy guilty soul and mine,
No storms should beat of wrath divine.

5 Sweet sign, that God remembers now
To guilty man his ancient vow;
But sweeter far by faith to see
A covenant God, all love to thee.

6 Here when thy fears begin to rise,
And hope in disappointment dies,
This covenant bow thy fears shall quell,
'Twas made for thee, in all things well.

Isa. 61: 10.

1 JESUS, thy blood and righteousness
My beauty are, my glorious dress;
'Midst flaming worlds, in these arrayed,
With joy shall I lift up my head.

2 When from the dust of death I rise,
To take my mansion in the skies,
E'en this shall then be all my plea,
"Jesus hath lived and died for me."

3 Bold shall I stand in that great day,
For who, aught to my charge shall lay,
While through thy blood absolved I am,
From sin's tremendous curse and shame?

4 Thus Abraham, the friend of God,
Thus all the armies bought with blood,
Saviour of sinners, thee proclaim—
Sinners of whom the chief I am.

5 This spotless robe the same appears,
When ruined nature sinks in years;
No age can change its glorious hue;
The robe of Christ is ever new.

6 O let the dead now hear thy voice;
Bid, Lord, thy banished ones rejoice;
Their beauty this, their glorious dress,
Jesus, the Lord, our righteousness.

L. M. Heb. 12: 2.

1 By various maxims, forms, and rules,
That pass for wisdom in the schools,
I strove my passion to restrain.
But all my efforts proved in vain.

2 But since the Saviour I have known,
My rules are all reduced to one,
To keep my Lord, by faith, in view;
This strength supplies, and motives, too.

3 I see him lead a suffering life,
Patient amidst reproach and strife;
And from his pattern courage take,
To bear and suffer for his sake.

4 Upon the cross I see him bleed,
And by the sight from guilt am freed;
This sight destroys the life of sin,
And quickens heavenly life within.

5 To look to Jesus as he rose,
Confirms my faith, disarms my foes;
Satan I shame and overcome,
By pointing to my Saviour's tomb.

6 Exalted on his glorious throne,
I see him make my cause his own;
Then all my anxious cares subside,
For Jesus lives, and will provide.

7 I see him look with pity down,
And hold in view the conqueror's crown;
If pressed with griefs and cares before,
My soul revives, nor asks for more.

8 By faith I see the hour at hand,
When in his presence I shall stand;
Then it will be my endless bliss,
To see him where, and as he is.

95 (277) 2 Sam. 16: 17.

2 He ransomed me from hell with blood,
And by his power my foes controlled;
He found me, wandering far from God,
And brought me to his chosen fold.

3 He cheers my heart, my want supplies,
And says that I shall shortly be
Enthroned with him above the skies,
Oh! what a Friend is Christ to me.

4 But, ah! my inmost spirit mourns,
And well my eyes with tears may swim,
To think of my perverse returns;
I've been a faithless friend to him.

5 Often my gracious Friend I grieve,
Neglect, distrust, and disobey,
And often Satan's lies believe,
Sooner than all my Friend can say.

6 He bids me always freely come,
And promises whate'er I ask;
But I am straitened, cold and dumb,
And count my privilege a task.

7 Before the world, that hates his cause,
My treacherous heart has throbb'd with shame;

Loth to forego the world's applause,
I hardly dare avow his name.

8 Sure, were not I most vile and base,
I could not thus my Friend requite!

And were not he the God of grace,
He'd frown and spurn me from his sight.

1 How wondrous are the works of God,
Displayed through all the world abroad!
Immensely great! immensely small!
Yet one strange work exceeds them all.

2 He formed the sun, fair fount of light;
The moon and stars to rule the night:
But night, and stars, and moon, and sun,
Are little works compared with one.

3 He rolled the seas, and spread the skies,
Made valleys sink, and mountains rise;
The meadows clothed with native green,
And bade the rivers glide between.

4 But what are seas, or skies, or hills,
Or verdant vales, or gliding rills,
To wonders man was born to prove:
The wonders of redeeming love!

5 'Tis far beyond what words express,
What saints can feel or angels guess:
Angels, that hymn the great I AM,
Fall down, and veil before the Lamb.

6 The highest heavens are short of this;
'Tis deeper than the vast abyss;
'Tis more than thought can e'er conceive,
Or hope expect, or faith believe.

1 ENSLAVED by sin, and bound in chains
Beneath its dreadful tyrant sway,
And doomed to everlasting pains,
We wretched guilty captives lay.

2 Jesus the sacrifice became
To rescue guilty souls from hell:
The spotless, bleeding, dying Lamb,

1 'Tis finished! so the Saviour cried,
And meekly bowed his head and died;
'Tis finished—yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.

2 'Tis finished—all that Heaven decreed,
And all the ancient prophets said,
Is now fulfilled, as was designed,
In me, the Saviour of mankind.

3 'Tis finished—Aaron now no more
Must stain his robes with purple gore;
The sacred veil is rent in twain,
And Jewish rites no more remain.

4 'Tis finished—this my dying groan,
Shall sins of every kind atone:
Millions shall be redeemed from death
By this, my last expiring breath.

5 'Tis finished—Heaven is reconciled,
And all the powers of darkness spoiled;
Peace, love, and happiness again
Return, and dwell with sinful men.

6 'Tis finished—let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round:
'Tis finished—let the echo fly
'Thro' heaven and hell, thro' earth and sky.

 Come! and, thy dear self revealing,
 Dissipate the clouds beneath;
 The new heaven's and earth's Creator,
 In our deepest darkness rise!
 Scattering all the night of nature,
 Pouring day upon our eyes.
 2 Still we wait for thine appearing,
 Life and joy thy beams impart,
 Chasing all our fears, and cheering
 Every poor benighted heart;
 Come, and manifest the favor
 'Thou hast for the ransomed race:
 Come, thou dear exalted Saviour!
 Come, and bring thy gospel grace.
 3 Save us in thy great compassion,
 O thou mild pacific Prince!
 Give the knowledge of salvation,
 Give the pardon of our sins:

- By thine all-sufficient merit,
 Every burdened soul release;
 By the influence of thy Spirit,
 Guide us into perfect peace.

- 1 JESUS heals the broken-hearted,
 Oh! how sweet that sound to me!
 Once beneath my sin he smarted,
 Groaned, and bled, to set me free.
 By his sufferings, death and merits,
 By his Godhead, blood and pain,
 Broken hearts or wounded spirits,
 Are at once made whole again.
 2 Broken by the law's loud thunder,
 To the cross for refuge flee;
 O'er his pungent sorrows ponder,
 'Tis his stripes that healeth thee.
 Oil and wine, to heal and cherish,
 Jesus still to Israel gives;
 Nor shall e'er a sinner perish,
 Who in his dear name I believe.
 3 In his righteousness confiding,
 Sheltered safe beneath his wing,
 Here they find a sure abiding,
 And of covenant mercy sing;
 Seek, my soul, no other healing,
 But in Jesus' precious blood;
 He, beneath the Spirit's sealing,
 Stands the great High Priest with God.

1. Awake, my heart, arise, my tongue, Prepare a tuneful voice; In God, the life of all my joys, A-loud will I rejoice..... A-loud will I rejoice.

109 (311) Isa. 61: 10.

- 1 AWAKE, my heart, arise, my tongue,
Prepare a tuneful voice;
In God, the life of all my joys,
Aloud will I rejoice.
- 2 'Tis he adorned my naked soul,
And made salvation mine;
Upon a poor, polluted worm
He makes his graces shine.
- 3 And, lest the shadow of a spot
Should on my soul be found,
He took the robe the Saviour wrought,
And cast it all around.
- 4 How far the heavenly robe exceeds
What earthly princes wear;
These ornaments, how bright they shine;
How white the garments are.
- 5 The Spirit wrought my faith, and love,
And hope, and every grace;
But Jesus spent his life to work
The robe of righteousness.
- 6 Strangely, my soul, art thou arrayed
By the great sacred Three;
In sweetest harmony of praise
Let all thy powers agree.

- 1 Now, dearest Lord, to praise thy name,
Let all our powers agree;
Worthy art thou of endless fame;
Our springs are all in thee.
- 2 Here in thy love will we rejoice,
All sovereign, rich, and free;
Singing, we hope with heart and voice,
Our springs are all in thee.
- 3 To whom, dear Jesus, O, to whom Shall needy sinners flee,
But to thyself, who bidst us come?
Our springs are all in thee.
- 4 Some tempted, weak, and trembling
Before thee now may be; [saint
Let not his hopes or wishes faint;
His springs are all in thee.
- 5 The poor supply, the wounded heal;
Let sinners, such as we,
Salvation's blessings taste and feel;
Our springs are all in thee.
- 6 When we arrive at Zion's hill,
And all thy glory see,
Our joyful songs shall echo still,
Our springs are all in thee.

Cant. 3: 11.

1 ALL hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

2 Crown him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from his altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown him Lord of all.

3 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant weak and small!
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

4 Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go—spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

5 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

6 Oh that, with yonder sacred throng,
We at his feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

Perronet.

2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul!
My transport and my trust:
Jewels to thee are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.

3 All my capacious powers can wish,
In thee doth richly meet;
Nor to my eyes is light so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.

4 Thy grace shall dwell upon my heart,
And shed its fragrance there;
The noblest balm for all its wounds,
The cordial for its care.

5 I'll speak the honors of thy name
With my last laboring breath;
And, dying, clasp thee in my arms—

As makes a world of darkness shine

In brighter worlds above.

136 (397) C. M.

- 1 THE moon has but a borrowed light,
A faint and feeble ray;
She owes her beauty to the night,
And hides herself by day.
- 2 No cheering warmth her beam conveys,
Though pleasing to behold;
We might upon her brightness gaze
Till we were starved with cold.
- 3 Just such is all the light to man
Which reason can impart;
It cannot show one object plain,
Nor warm the frozen heart.
- 4 The gospel, like the sun at noon,
Affords a glorious light;
Then fallen reason's boasted moon
Appears no longer bright.
- 5 And grace not light alone bestows,
But adds a quickening power;
The desert blossoms like the rose,
And sin prevails no more.

1 REJOICE, the Lord is King;
Your God and King adore;
Mortals, give thanks and sing,
And triumph ever more!
Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,
Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice.

2 Rejoice, the Saviour reigns,
The God of truth and love;
When he had purged our stains,
He took his seat above:
Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,
Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice.

3 His kingdom cannot fail;
He rules o'er earth and heaven;
The keys of death and hell
Are, to our Jesus given:

Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,
Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice.

4 He all his foes shall quell;
Shall all our sins destroy;
And every bosom swell
With pure seraphic joy:
Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,
Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice.

5 Rejoice in glorious hope,
Jesus the Judge shall come,
And take his servants up
To their eternal home:
We soon shall hear the Archangel's voice;
The trump of God shall sound; Rejoice.

- 2 The cause of righteousness,
And truth and holy peace,
Designed our world to bless,
Shall spread and never cease :
Gentile or Jew, their souls shall bow,
Allegiance due with rapture vow.
- 3 The baffled prince of hell
In vain new projects tries,
Truth's empire to repel
By cruelty and lies :
Th' infernal gates shall rage in vain ;
Conquest awaits the Lamb once slain.
- 4 He died, but soon arose,
Triumphant o'er the grave ;
And now himself he shows
Omnipotent to save :
Let rebels kiss the victor's feet ;
Eternal bliss his subjects meet.
- 5 All power is in his hand,
His people to defend ;
To his most high command
Shall millions more attend :
All heaven with smiles approves his cause,
And distant isles receive his laws.
- 6 This little seed from heaven
Shall soon become a tree ;
This ever-blessed leaven
Diffused abroad must be :

Till God the Son shall come again,
It must go on. Amen ! Amen !

H. M. Psal. 84.

- 1 How amiable, how fair,
O Lord of Hosts to me,
Thy tabernacles are !
My flesh cries out for thee ;
My heart and soul, with heavenward fire,
To thee, the living God aspire.
- 2 Lord God of Hosts, give ear,
A gracious answer yield ;
O God of Jacob, hear ;
Behold, O God, our shield ;
Look on thine own Anointed One,
And save through thy beloved Son.
- 3 Lord, I would rather stand
A keeper at thy gate,
Than on the king's right hand
In tents of worldly state ;
One day within thy courts, one day,
Is worth a thousand cast away.
- 4 God is a sun of light,
Glory and grace to shed ;
God is a shield of might,
To guard the faithful head ;
O Lord of Hosts, how happy he,
The man who puts his trust in thee.

- 1 O COME, let us sing to the Lord,
In God our salvation rejoice;
In psalms of thanksgiving record
His praise, with one spirit, one voice!
- 2 For Jehovah is King, and he reigns,
The God of all gods, on his throne;
The strength of the hills he maintains,
The ends of the earth are his own.
- 3 The sea is Jehovah's; he made
The tide its dominion to know;
The land is Jehovah's;—he laid
Its solid foundations below:
- 4 Oh come, let us worship, and kneel
Before the Creator, our God!
The people who serve him with zeal,
The flock whom he guides with his rod.
- 5 As Moses, the fathers of old
Through the sea and the wilderness led,
His wonderful works we behold,
With manna from heaven are fed:
- 6 To-day, let us hearken, to-day,
To the voice that yet speaks from above,
And all his commandments obey,
For all his commandments are love.
- 7 His wrath let us fear to provoke,
To dwell in his favor unite;
His service is freedom, his yoke
Is easy, his burden is light:

- 8 But, oh! of rebellion beware,
Rebellion, that hardens the breast,
Lest God in his anger should swear
That we shall not enter his rest.

The glories of my Saviour-King,
Jesus the Lord; how heavenly fair
His form! how bright his beauties are!

2 O'er all the sons of human race
He shines with a superior grace;
Love from his lips divinely flows,
And blessings all his state compose.

3 Dress thee in arms, most mighty Lord,
Gird on the terror of thy sword;
In majesty and glory ride,
With truth and meekness at thy side.

4 Thine anger, like a pointed dart,
Shall pierce thy foes of stubborn heart;
Or words of mercy, kind and sweet,
Shall melt the rebels at thy feet.

5 Thy throne, O God, for ever stands;
Grace is the sceptre in thy hands:
Thy laws and works are just and right;
Justice and grace are thy delight.

6 God, thine own God, has richly shed
His oil of gladness on thy head,
And with his sacred Spirit blest
His first-born Son above the rest.

163 (475) L. M. Micah 6: 6-8.

1 WHEREWITH, O Lord, shall I draw near,
Or bow myself before thy face?
How, in thy purer eyes appear?
What shall I bring to gain thy grace?

2 Will gifts delight the Lord Most High?
Will multiplied oblations please?
Thousands of rams his favor buy?
Or slaughtered millions e'er appease?

3 Can these assuage the wrath of God?
Can these wash out my guilty stain?
Rivers of oil, or seas of blood?
Alas! they all must flow in vain.

4 I plead the merits of thy Son,
Who died for sinners on the tree;
I plead his righteousness alone,
O put the spotless robe on me.

164 (478) L. M. Ps. 46: 4.

1 INDULGENT God! to thee I raise
My spirit fraught with joy and praise:
Grateful I bow before thy throne,
My debt of mercy there to own.

2 Rivers descending, Lord, from thee,
Perpetual glide to solace me:
Their varied virtues to rehearse,
Demands an everlasting verse.

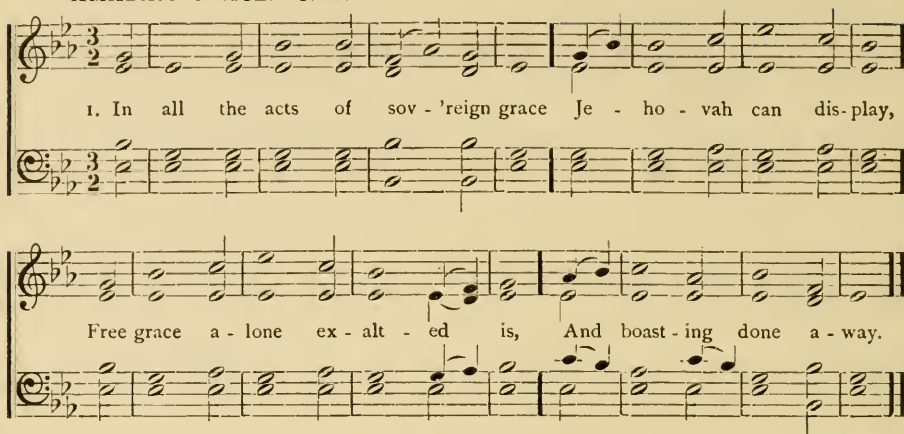

3 And yet there is, beyond the rest,
One stream, the widest and the best;
Salvation! Lo, the purple flood
Rolls rich with my Redeemer's blood.

4 I taste—delight succeeds to wo;
I bathe—no waters cleanse me so:
Such joy and purity to share,
I would remain enraptured there,

5 'Till death shall give this soul to know
The fullness sought in vain below;
The fullness of that boundless sea
Whence flowed the river down to me.

AMAZING GRACE. C. M.

1. In all the acts of sov-'reign grace Je - ho - vah can dis-play,
Free grace a - lone ex - alt - ed is, And boast - ing done a - way.

165 (469)

- 2 From sin to God could sinners turn,
And make their natures clean,
Then incense to their shrine should burn,
And Christ had died in vain.
- 3 But where the sovereign grace of God
Shall set the guilty free,
His only hope is Jesus' blood;
The worst of sinners he.
- 4 Thus grace triumphant keeps the
Without a rival there; [throne,
While mercy shines in Christ alone
In rays divinely clear.

166 (477) C. M. Psa. 35: 3.

- 1 SALVATION!—Oh, melodious sound
To wretched dying men!
Salvation that from God proceeds,
And leads to God again.
- 2 Rescued from hell's eternal gloom,
From fiends, and fires, and chains;
Raised to a paradise of bliss,
Where love triumphant reigns!
- 3 But may a poor bewildered soul,
Sinful and weak as mine,
Presume to raise a trembling eye
To blessings so divine?
- 4 The lustre of so bright a bliss
My feeble heart o'erbears;
But unbelief almost perverts
The promise into tears.

- 5 My Saviour-God, no voice but thine
These dying hopes can raise:
Speak thy salvation to my soul,
And turn my prayer to praise.

Doddridge.

167 (480) C. M.

- 1 SALVATION! what a glorious plan;
How suited to our need!
The grace that raises fallen man
Is wonderful indeed.
- 2 'Twas wisdom formed the vast design.
To ransom us when lost;
And love's unfathomable mine
Provided all the cost.
- 3 Strict Justice, with approving look,
The holy covenant sealed;
And Truth and Power undertook
The whole should be fulfilled.
- 4 Truth, Wisdom, Justice, Power, and
In all their glory shone, [Love,
When Jesus left the courts above,
And died to save his own.
- 5 Truth, Wisdom, Justice, Power, and
Are equally displayed; [Love,
Now Jesus reigns enthroned above,
Our Advocate and Head.
- 6 Now sin appears deserving death,
Most hateful and abhorred;
And yet the sinner lives by faith,
And dares approach the Lord.

1. { Now, may the Lord re-veal his face, And teach our stamm'ring tongues }
 D.C.—Or more dis-play the glo-rious right Of our ex-alt-ed King.

No sweet-er sub-ject can in-vite A sin-ner's heart to sing,

1 Now, may the Lord reveal his face,
 And teach our stammering tongues
 To make his sovereign, reigning grace,
 The subject of our songs.
 No sweeter subject can invite
 A sinner's heart to sing,
 Or more display the glorious right
 Of our exalted King.

2 This subject fills the starry plains
 With wonder, joy, and love;
 And furnishes the noblest strains
 For all the harps above:
 While the redeemed in praise combine
 To grace upon the throne,
 Angels in solemn chorus join,
 And make the theme their own.

3 Grace reigns to pardon crimson sins,
 To melt the hardest hearts;
 And from the work it once begins,
 It never more departs.
 The world and Satan strive in vain
 Against the chosen few;
 Secured by grace's conquering reign,
 They all shall conquer, too.

4 'Twas grace that called our souls at first;
 By grace thus far we're come;
 And grace will help us through the worst,
 And lead us safely home.
 Lord, when this changing life is past,
 If we may see thy face,

How should we praise and love at last,
 And sing the reign of grace!

Newton.

169 (488) C. M. Eph. 2: 8.

1 AMAZING grace (how sweet the sound!)
 That saved a wretch like me;
 I once was lost but now am found,
 Was blind, but now I see.

2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
 And grace my fears relieved:
 How precious did that grace appear,
 The hour I first believed.

3 Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
 I have already come;
 'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
 And grace will lead me home.

4 The Lord has promised good to me,
 His word my hope secures;
 He will my shield and portion be
 As long as life endures.

5 Yes, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
 And mortal life shall cease,
 I shall possess, within the vale,
 A life of joy and peace.

6 The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,
 The sun forbear to shine;
 But God, who called me here below,
 Will be forever mine.

- 1 HAIL, mighty Jesus! how divine
Is thy victorious sword;
The stoutest rebel must resign
At thy commanding word.
- 2 Deep are the wounds thy arrows give;
They pierce the hardest heart;
Thy smiles of grace the slain revive,
And joy succeeds to smart.
- 3 Still gird thy sword upon thy thigh,
Ride with majestic sway;
Go forth, sweet Prince, triumphantly,
And make thy foes obey.
- 4 And when thy victories are complete,
When all the chosen race
Shall round the throne of glory meet,
To sing thy conquering grace;
- 5 O, may my blood-washed soul be found
Among that favored band;
And I, with them, thy praise will sound
Throughout Immanuel's land.

- 1 FREE grace to every heaven-born soul
Will be their constant theme;
Long as eternal ages roll
They'll still adore the Lamb.
- 2 Free grace alone can wipe the tears
From our lamenting eyes;
Can raise our souls from guilty fears
To joy that never dies.

- 3 Free grace can death itself outbrave,
And take its sting away;
Can souls unto the utmost save,
And them to heaven convey.

- 1 BENEATH the sacred throne of God
I saw a river rise; [blood
The streams were peace and pardoning
Descending from the skies.
- 2 Angelic minds cannot explore
This deep, unfathomed sea;
'Tis void of bottom, brim, or shore,
And lost in Deity.
- 3 I stood amazed, and wondered when,
Or why this ocean rose,
That wafts salvation down to men,
His traitors and his foes.
- 4 That sacred flood, from Jesus' veins,
Was free to take away
A Mary's or Manasseh's stains,
Or sins more vile than they.
- 5 Free to the sinner, dead to God,
Who sought the road to hell;
That trampled on a Saviour's blood,
And on his buckler fell.
- 6 Triumphant grace, and man's free will,
Shall not divide the throne;
For man's a fallen sinner still,
And Christ shall reign alone.

- 1 If I must sing, I'll sing of grace
Which raised me from the fall,
And led me to a hiding-place,
Jesus, my Lord, my all.
- 2 'Twas grace that brought my roving feet
From sin's destructive road,
And pointed out a sure retreat,
Jesus my blest abode.
- 3 Grace also first my soul inclined
At wisdom's door to wait,
And then assured me I should find
A Saviour good and great.
- 4 Grace likewise urged my soul to cry,
With fervency and zeal,
To God, who would not pass me by,
But would my pardon seal.
- 5 And when I've sank exceeding low,
Just ready to give up,
Th'is grace hath raised my soul unto
A comfortable hope.

Nor will I fear the dreadful sting,
That arms the monster, Death.

Hail, matchless, free, e - ter - nal grace, That gave my soul a hid - ing-place!

176 (485) Isaiah 32: 2.

1 HAIL, sovereign Grace, that first began
The scheme to rescue fallen man!
Hail, matchless, free, eternal grace,
That gave my soul a hiding-place!

2 Against the God who rules the sky
I fought with hands uplifted high;
Despised the mansions of his grace,
Too proud to seek a hiding-place!

3 But thus the Eternal Counsel ran,
"Almighty Love, arrest the man!"
I felt the arrows of distress,
And found I had no hiding-place!

4 Indignant Justice stood in view;
To Sinai's fiery mount I flew;
But Justice cried, with frowning face,
This mountain is no hiding-place!

5 Ere long a heavenly voice I heard,
And Mercy's angel-form appeared:
She led me on, with placid pace,
To Jesus, as my hiding-place!

6 Should storms of seven-fold thunder roll,
And shake the globe from pole to pole,
No thunder-bolt shall daunt my face
For Jesus is my hiding-place.

7 On him almighty vengeance fell,
That must have sunk a world to hell:

He bore it for his chosen race,
And thus became their hiding-place.

8 A few more rolling suns at most,
Will land me on the heavenly coast,
Where I shall sing the song of grace,
And see my glorious hiding-place.

2 Thy providence supplies my food,
And 'tis thy blessing makes it good;
My soul is nourished by thy word,
Let soul and body praise the Lord.

3 My streams of outward comfort came
From him, who built this earthly frame;
Whate'er I want his bounty gives,
By whom my soul for ever lives.

4 Either his hand preserves from pain,
Or, if I feel it, heals again;
From Satan's malice shields my breast,
Or over-rules it for the best.

5 Forgive the song that falls so low
Beneath the gratitude I owe;
It means thy praise, however poor;
An angel's song can do no more.

Ye pilgrims for Zion who press,
 Break forth, and extol the great Ancient of Days,
 His rich and distinguishing grace.

2 His love, from éternity fixed upon you,
 Broke forth and discovered its flame,
 When each with the cords of his kindness
 he drew,
 And brought you to love his great name.

3 O had he not pitied the state you were in,
 Your bosoms his love had ne'er felt;
 You all would have lived, would have died too in sin,
 And sunk with the load of your guilt.

4 What was there in you that could merit esteem,
 Or give the Creator delight?
 'Twas "even so, Father!" you ever must sing,
 "Because it seemed good in thy sight."

5 'Twas all of thy grace we were brought to obey,
 While others were suffered to go
 The road which by nature we chose as our way,
 Which leads to the regions of wo.

6 Then give all the glory to his holy name;
 To him all the glory belongs;
 Be yours the high joy still to sound forth
 his fame,
 And crown him in each of your songs.

 But give honor and glory to him.

2 In him, as the Father's eternal delight,
 Jehovah the Great and Supreme,
 The saints without blemish appear in his

 The perfection of beauty in him.

3 He saw them in Adam all sunk in disgrace,
 Exposed unto vengeance extreme;
 Yet wonder, O heavens, so great was his

In such a wretched heart as mine?
Unworthy dwelling! glorious guest!
Favor astonishing, divine!

2 When sin prevails, and gloomy fear,
And hope almost expires in night,
Lord, can thy Spirit then be here,
Great Spring of comfort, life and light?

3 Sure the blest Comforter is nigh!
'Tis he sustains my fainting heart;
Else would my hopes for ever die,
And every cheering ray depart.

4 When some kind promise glads my soul,
Do I not find his healing voice
The tempest of my fears control,
And bid my drooping powers rejoice!

5 Whene'er to call the Saviour mine,
With ardent wish my heart aspires;
Can it be less than power divine
Which animates these strong desires?

6 And, when my cheerful hope can say,
"I love my God, and taste his grace,"
Lord, is it not thy blissful ray
Which brings this dawn of sacred peace?

2 Shed down, O Lord, a heavenly ray,
To guide me in the doubtful way;
And o'er me hold thy shield of power,
To guard me in the dangerous hour.

3 Teach me the flattering path to shun,
In which the thoughtless many run,
Who for a shade the substance miss,
And grasp their ruin in their bliss.

4 Each sacred principle impart;
The faith that sanctifies the heart;
Hope, that to heaven's high vault aspires;
And love that warms with holy fires.

5 Whate'er is noble, pure, refined,
Just, generous, amiable, and kind,
That may my constant thought pursue;
That may I love and practice, too.

6 Let neither pleasure, wealth, nor pride,
Allure my wandering soul aside;
But, through this maze of mortal ill,

By God's almighty word:
Abra'm, to unknown countries led,
By faith obeyed the Lord.
- 4 He sought a city fair and high,
Built by th' eternal hands;
And faith assures us, though we die,
That heavenly building stands.

- 1 THE saints should never be dismayed,
Nor sink in hopeless fear:
For when they least expect his aid,
The Saviour will appear.
- 2 This Abra'm found; he raised the knife,
God saw, and said, "Forbear:
Yon ram shall yield his meaner life;
Behold the victim there!"

He thought to rise no more;
But God prepared a fish to save,
And bear him to the shore.

What misery we endure;
Yet fly that hand, from which alone
We could expect a cure.

That makes him precious, too.

1 'Tis by the faith of joys to come
We walk through deserts dark as night;
Till we arrive at heaven our home,
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

2 The want of sight she well supplies;
She makes the pearly gates appear;
Far into distant worlds she pries,
And brings eternal glories near.

3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
While faith inspires a heavenly ray,
Though lions roar, and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.

Left his own house to walk with God;
His faith beheld the promised land,

L. M. Mark 9: 24.

1 JESUS, our souls' delightful choice,
In thee, believing, we rejoice;
Yet still our joy is mixed with grief,
While faith contends with unbelief.

2 Thy promises our hearts revive,
And keep our fainting hopes alive:
But guilt, and fears, and sorrows rise,
And hide the promise from our eyes.

3 O let not sin and Satan boast,
While saints lie mourning in the dust;
Nor see that faith to ruin brought,
Which thy own gracious hand hath wrought.

4 Do thou the dying spark inflame;
Reveal the glories of thy name;
And put all anxious doubts to flight,
As shades dispersed by opening light.

1 By faith in Christ I walk with God,
With heaven, my journey's end, in view,
Supported by his staff and rod,
My road is safe and pleasant, too.

2 I travel through a desert wide,
Where many round me blindly stray;
But he vouchsafes to be my guide,
And will not let me miss my way.

3 Though snares and dangers throng my path,
And earth and hell my course withstand,
I triumph over all by faith,
Guarded by his almighty hand.

4 The wilderness affords no food,
But God for my support prepares;
Provides me every needful good,
And frees my soul from want and cares.

5 With him sweet converse I maintain,
Great as he is, I dare be free;
Tell him of all my grief and pain,
And he reveals his love to me.

6 Some cordial from his word he brings,
Whene'er my feeble spirit faints;
At once my soul revives and sings,
And yields no more to sad complaints.

- I THE sinner that truly believes,
 And trusts in his crucified Lord,

 Redemption in full through his blood;
 Though thousands and thousands of foes
 Against him in malice unite,
 Their rage he through Christ can oppose,

 For hell against both must prevail,
 Since Jesus and he are but one.
- 3 The faith that lays hold on the Lamb
 And brings such salvation as this,
 Is more than mere notion or name;
 The work of God's Spirit it is:
 A principle, active and young,
 That lives under pressure and load;
 That makes out of weakness more strong,
 And draws the soul upward to God.
- 4 It says to the mountains, "Depart,"

- 1 SIN enslaved me many years,
 And led me bound and blind;
 Till at length a thousand fears

 Feared, almost, to speak or move,—
 A stranger still to God.

 By a simple word he spoke,
 "Thy sins are done away."

2 Amazed I stood, but could not tell
Which way to shun the gates of hell,
For death and hell drew near;

The sinner must be born again,
Still sounded in my ear.

3 The saints I heard with rapture tell
How Jesus conquered death and hell,
And broke the fowler's snare;
Yet when I found this truth remain,
The sinner must be born again,
I sunk in deep despair.

4 But while I thus in anguish lay,
Jesus of Nazareth passed that way;
It was the time of love:
He then relieved me from my pain,
And showed me I was born again,
To dwell with him above.

5 To heaven my joyful praises flew,
Singing that song for ever new.
To Christ my voice did raise:
All hail the Lamb that once was slain,

Unnumbered millions born again
Shall shout thine endless praise.

Throughout the sacred word.

3 True hope looks out for blessings great;
And, though they're long delayed,
Yet hope's determined still to wait,

Pardon and grace my soul receives
From mine exalted Head.

3 All that I am, and all I have,
Shall be for ever thine:
Whate'er my duty bids me give,
My cheerful hands resign.

4 Yet if I might make some reserve,
And duty did not call,
I love my God with zeal so great
That I should give him all.

1 Give me the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

2 Once they were mourning here below,
And wet their couch with tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3 I ask them whence their victory came?
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.

4 Our glorious Leader claims our praise
For his own pattern given,
While the long cloud of witnesses
Shows the same path to heaven.

1 YE trembling souls! dismiss your fears;
Be mercy all your theme:
Mercy, which, like a river, flows
In one continued stream.

2 Fear not the powers of earth and hell;
God will these powers restrain;
His mighty arm their rage repel,
And make their efforts vain.

3 Fear not the want of outward good:
He will for his provide;
Grant them supplies of daily food,
And all they need beside.

4 Fear not that he will e'er forsake,
Or leave his work undone;
He's faithful to his promises,
And faithful to his Son.

5 Fear not the terrors of the grave,
Or death's tremendous sting:
He will from endless wrath preserve,
To endless glory bring.

6 You, in his wisdom, power, and grace
May confidently trust;
His wisdom guides, his power protects,
His grace rewards the just.

221 (575) Heb. 6: 19.

1 We travel through a barren land,
With dangers thick on every hand;
But Jesus guides us through the vale;
The Christian's hope can never fail.

2 Huge sorrows meet us as we go,
And devils aim our overthrow;
But vile infernals can't prevail:
The Christian's hope shall never fail.

3 Sometimes we're tempted to despair,
But Jesus makes us then his care:
Though numerous foes our souls assail,
The Christian's hope shall never fail.

4 We trust upon the sacred word,
The oath and promise of our Lord;
And safely through each tempest sail:
The Christian's hope shall never fail.

How dark, how mournful are my days,
If thy enlivening beams depart.

2 Scarce through the shades a glimpse of

But shall my drooping spirit say,
The cheerful morn will never rise?

3 Oh, let me not despairing mourn!

1 WHY sinks my weak desponding mind?
Why heaves my heart the anxious sigh?
Can sovereign goodness be unkind?
Am I not safe if God is nigh?

2 He holds all nature in his hand:
That gracious hand on which I live
Doth life, and time, and death command,
And has immortal joys to give.

3 'Tis he supports this fainting frame;
On him alone my hopes recline:
The wondrous glories of his name,
How wide they spread! how bright
they shine!

4 Infinite wisdom! boundless power!
Unchanging faithfulness and love!
Here let me trust, while I adore,
Nor from my refuge ere remove.

5 My God, if thou art mine indeed,
Then I have all my heart can crave;
A present help in times of need;
Still kind to hear, and strong to save.

6 Forgive my doubts, O gracious Lord!
And ease the sorrows of my breast;
Speak to my heart the healing word,
That thou art mine, and I am blest.

224 (539)

1 On the mountain's top appearing,
Lo! the sacred herald stands,
Welcome news to Zion bearing,
Zion long in hostile lands;
Mourning captive,
God himself will loose thy bands.

2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
Cease thy mourning;
Zion still is well-beloved.

3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
He himself appears thy friend;
All thy foes shall flee before thee;
Here their boasts and triumphs end;
Great deliverance
Zion's King will surely send.

4 Peace and joy shall now attend thee;
All thy warfare now is past;
God thy Saviour will defend thee;
Victory is thine at last:
All thy conflicts
End in everlasting rest.

1 O my soul! what means this sadness?
Wherefore art thou thus cast down?
Let thy griefs be turned to gladness;

Bid thy restless fears be gone;
Look to Jesus,
And rejoice in his dear name.

2 What though Satan's strong tempta-
Vex and tease thee, day by day, [tions
And thy sinful inclinations
Often fill thee with dismay;
Thou shalt conquer,
Through the Lamb's redeeming blood.

3 Though ten thousand ills beset thee,
From without and from within,
Jesus saith, he'll ne'er forget thee,
But will save from hell and sin:
He is faithful,
To perform his gracious word.

4 Though distresses shall attend thee,
And thou treadst the thorny road,
His right hand shall still defend thee;
Soon he'll bring thee home to God:
Therefore praise him;
Praise the great Redeemer's name.

5 O that I could now adore him,
Like the heavenly host above,
Who for ever bow before him,
And unceasing sing his love!
Happy songsters!
When shall I your chorus join?

1 O LORD, I would delight in thee,
And on thy care depend;
To thee in all my troubles flee,
My best, my only Friend.

2 When all created streams are dried,
Thy fulness is the same;
May I with this be satisfied,
And glory in thy name.

3 No good in creatures can be found,
But may be found in thee;
I must have all things, and abound,
While God is good to me.

4 He that has made my heaven secure
Will here all good provide;
While Christ is rich, I can't be poor;
What can I want beside?

5 O Lord, I cast my care on thee;
I triumph and adore;
Henceforth my great concern shall be
To love and praise thee more.

227 (599) C. M. Gen. 17: 38.

1 WHEN Jesus, with his matchless love,
Visits my troubled breast,
My doubts subside, my fears remove,
And I'm completely blest.

2 I love the Lord with mind and heart,
His people and his ways;
Envy, and pride, and lust depart,
And all his works I praise.

3 But ah! when these short visits end,
Though not quite left alone,
I miss the presence of my Friend,
Like one whose comfort's gone.

4 I to my own sad place return,
My wretched state to feel;
I tire, and faint, and droop, and mourn,
And am but barren still.

5 More frequent let thy visits be,
Or let them longer last:
I can do nothing without thee;
Make haste, my God, make haste.

1 HAPPY the heart where graces reign,
Where love inspires the breast:
Love is the brightest of the train,
And strengthens all the rest.

2 'Tis love that makes our cheerful feet
In sweet obedience move;
The devils know and tremble, too,
But Satan cannot love.

3 This is the grace that lives and sings
When faith and hope shall cease;
'Tis this shall strike our joyful strings
In the sweet realms of bliss.

4 Before we quite forsake our clay,
Or leave this dark abode,
The wings of love bear us away
To see our smiling God.

229 (603) Psal. 73: 25.

1 How tedious and tasteless the hours,
When Jesus no longer I see;
Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers

Have lost all their sweetness to me :
The mid-summer sun shines but dim ;
The fields strive in vain to look gay ;
But when I am happy in him,
December's as pleasant as May.

2 His name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice ;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice :
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear ;
No mortal so happy as I,
My summer would last all the year.

3 Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resigned,
No changes of season or place,
Would make any change in my mind ;
While blessed with a sense of his love,
A palace a toy would appear ;
And prisons would palaces prove,
If Jesus would dwell with me there.

4 Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my sun and my song,
Say, why do I languish and pine,
And why are my winters so long ?

O drive these dark clouds from my sky ;
Thy soul-cheering presence restore ;
Or take me unto thee on high,
Where winter and clouds are no more.

230 (594) 8s. D. John 21: 17.

1 My gracious Redeemer I love ;
His praises aloud I'll proclaim,
And join with the armies above,
To shout his adorable name :
To gaze on his glories divine
Shall be my eternal employ ;
And feel them incessantly shine,
My boundless, ineffable joy.

2 He freely redeemed with his blood,
My soul from the confines of hell,
To live on the smiles of my God,
And in his sweet presence to dwell :
To shine with the angels of light,
With saints and with seraphs to sing ;
To view with eternal delight,
My Jesus, my Saviour, my King.

3 In Meshech, as yet, I reside,—
A darksome and restless abode ;
Molested with foes on each side,
And longing to dwell with my God.
O, when shall my spirit exchange
This cell of corruptible clay
For mansions celestial, and range
Through realms of ineffable day.

Behold my heart and see;
And turn each cursed idol out

- 2 Do not I love thee from my soul?
Then let me nothing love;
Dead be my heart to every joy,
When Jesus cannot move.

To mine attentive ear?

1 LAMB of God, we fall before thee,
 Humbly trusting in thy cross;
 That alone be all our glory;
 All things else are dung and dross.
 Thee we own a perfect Saviour,
 Only source of all that's good;
 Every grace, and every favor
 Comes to us through Jesus' blood.

2 Jesus gives us true repentance:
 By his spirit sent from heaven
 Jesus whispers this sweet sentence:
 "Son, thy sins are all forgiven:"
 Faith he gives us to believe it;
 Grateful hearts his love to prize:
 Want we wisdom? he must give it;
 Hearing ears, and seeing eyes.

3 Jesus gives us pure affections;
 Wills to do what he requires;
 Makes us follow his directions,

 All our prayers, and all our praises,
 Rightly offered in his name,
 He that dictates them is Jesus;
 He that answers is the same.

4 When we live on Jesus' 'merit,
 Then we worship God aright;
 Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
 Then we savingly unite.

 Jesus Christ is All in all!

 May we now thy nature know:
 Then, more bowels of compassion
 We to thy dear saints shall show.
 May the grace thou hast imparted,
 In relieving our complaints,
 Make us kind and tender-hearted
 To the feeblest of thy saints.

2 When they are severely tempted,
 We their sorrows would assuage,
 Knowing we are not exempted
 From the tempter's furious rage.
 If by sin they're overtaken,
 We'll their faults to them declare;
 But in strains of much compassion,
 Lest we drive them to despair.

3 Keep us from a proud appearance,
 In whate'er we do or say;
 Fill us with divine forbearance;
 Then how happy we shall be!
 Hand in hand we would be walking,
 Eyeing Jesus' new command;
 Of his love we'd e'er be talking,
 Till we reach the heavenly land.

1 LOVE is the fountain, whence
All true obedience flows;
The Christian serves the God he loves,
And loves the God he knows.

2 He treads the heavenly road,
And neither faints nor tires;
That generous love which warms his breast
With fortitude inspires.

3 No burden seems so great,
No task so hard appears,
But this he cheerfully performs,
And that he meekly bears.

4 May love—that shining grace—
O'er all my powers preside;
Direct my thoughts, suggest my words,
And every action guide.

UNION. 8s.

BILLINGS.

1. From whence doth this un-ion a-rise, That ha-tred is con-quer'd by love?

It fast-ens our souls in such ties, As dis-tance and time can't re-move.

248 (619)

1 FROM whence doth this union arise,
That hatred is conquered by love?
It fastens our souls in such ties,
As distance and time can't remove.

2 It cannot in Eden be found,
Nor yet in a Paradise lost;
It grows on Immanuel's ground,
And Jesus' rich blood it did cost.

3 My friends now so dear unto me,
Our hearts so united in love;
Where Jesus is gone we shall be,
In yonder blest mansions above.

4 Why then so reluctant to part?
Since there we shall all meet again?
Engraved on Immanuel's heart,
At distance we cannot remain.

5 And soon we shall see that bright day,
And join with the armies above;
Set free from these prisons of clay;
United in mansions of love.

6 With Jesus we ever shall reign;
His glory eternally see;
We'll sing hallelujah, Amen;
Amen! even so let it be.

Baldwin

2 Like trees of myrrh and spice we stand,
Planted by God the Father's hand;
And all his springs in Zion flow
To make the young plantation grow.

3 Awake, O heavenly wind, and come,
Blow on this garden of perfume;
Spirit divine, descend and breathe
A gracious gale on plants beneath.

4 Our Lord into his garden comes,
Well pleased to smell our poor perfumes,
And calls us to a feast divine,
Sweeter than honey, milk, or wine.

Watts.

1 JESUS, thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
O knit my thankful heart to thee,
And reign without a rival there.

2 Thy love, how cheering is its ray;
All pain before its presence flies:
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
Where'er its healing beams arise.

3 O let thy love my soul inflame,
And to thy service sweetly bind;
Transfuse it through my inmost frame,
And mould me wholly to thy mind.

4 Thy love in sufferings be my peace;
Thy love in weakness make me strong;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
Thy love shall be my heaven and song.

251 (627) Isa. 8: 24.

1 JESUS, before thy face I fall,
My Lord, my life, my hope, my all;
For I have no where else to flee;
No sanctuary, Lord, but thee.

2 In thee I every glory view,
Of safety, strength, and beauty, too:
Beloved Saviour, ever be
A sanctuary unto me.

3 Whatever woes and fears betide,
In thy dear bosom let me hide;
And, while I pour my soul to thee,
Do thou my sanctuary be.

4 Through life and all its changing scenes,
And all the grief that intervenes,
'Tis this supports my fainting heart,
That thou my sanctuary art.

5 Apace the solemn hour draws nigh,
When I must bow my head and die;
But O, what joy this witness gives,—
Jesus, my sanctuary, lives.

6 He from the grave my dust will raise;
I in the heavens will sing his praise;
And when in glory I appear,
He'll be my sanctuary there.

252 (628) L. M. 1 Pet. 2: 7.

1 JESUS is precious, saith the Word;
What comfort does this truth afford!
And those who in his name believe,
With joy this precious truth receive.

2 To them he is more precious far
Than life and all its comforts are;
More precious than their daily food;
More precious than their vital blood.

3 He's precious in his precious blood,
That pardoning and soul-cleansing flood;
He's precious in his righteousness,
That everlasting, heavenly dress.

4 In every office he sustains,
In every victory he gains,
In every counsel of his will,
He's precious to his people still.

5 As they draw near their journey's end,
How precious is their heavenly Friend!
And, when in death they bow their head,
He's precious on a dying bed.

6 In glory, Lord, may I be found,
And, with thy precious mercy crowned,
Join the glad song, and there adore
A precious Christ for evermore.

1. Ye humble souls, complain no more; Let faith sur-vey your fut-ure store;

How hap-py, how di-vine-ly blest, The sa-cred words of truth at-test.

253 (630) Matt. 5: 3.

1 YE humble souls, complain no more;
Let faith survey your future store:
How happy, how divinely blest,
The sacred words of truth attest.

2 In vain the sons of wealth and pride
Despise your lot, your hope deride;
In vain they boast their little stores:
Trifles are theirs, a kingdom yours.

3 A kingdom of immense delight,
Where health, and peace, and joy unite:
Where undeclining pleasures rise,
And every wish hath full supplies.

4 A kingdom which can ne'er decay,
While time sweeps earthly thrones away;
The state which power and truth sustain,
Unmoved for ever must remain.

5 There shall your eyes with rapture view
The glorious Friend that died for you;
That died to ransom, died to raise
To crowns of joy and songs of praise.

6 Jesus, to thee I breathe my prayer;
Reveal, confirm my interest there:
Whate'er my humble lot below,
This, this my soul desires to know.

Mrs. Steele

2 Ah, bring a wretched wanderer home,
And to thy footstool let me come,
And tell thee all my grief and pain,
And wait, and look, and look again.

3 Take courage, then, my trembling soul;
One look from Christ will make thee
Trust thou in him, 'tis not in vain, [whole;
But wait, and look, and look again.

4 Look to the Lord, his word, his throne;
Look to his strength, and not thy own;
There wait, and look, and look again;
Thou shalt not wait, nor look in vain.

1 OH, could I find some peaceful bower,
Where sin has neither place nor power;
This traitor vile I fain would shun,
But cannot from his presence run.

2 When to the throne of grace I flee,
He stands between my God and me:
Where'er I rove, where'er I rest,
I feel him working in my breast.

3 When I attempt to soar above,
To view the heights of Jesus' love,
This monster seems to mount the skies,
And veils his glory from my eyes.

4 Lord, free me from this deadly foe,
Which keeps my faith and hope so low;
I long to dwell in heaven my home,
Where not one sinful thought can come.

256 (629) Job 40: 4; Rom. 7: 24.

- 1 O LORD! how vile am I;
Unholy and unclean!
How can I dare to venture nigh,
With such a load of sin!
- 2 Is this polluted heart
A dwelling fit for thee?
Swarming, alas! in every part,
What evils do I see!
- 3 If I attempt to pray,
And lisp thy holy name,
My thoughts are hurried soon away;
I know not where I am.
- 4 If in thy word I look,
Such darkness fills my mind,
I only read a sealed book,
And no relief can find.
- 5 Myself can hardly bear
This wretched heart of mine;
How hateful then, must it appear
To those pure eyes of thine;
- 6 And must I then indeed
Sink in despair and die?
Fain would I hope that thou didst bleed
For such a wretch as I.
- 7 That blood which thou hast spilt,
That grace which is thine own,

Can cleanse the vilest sinner's guilt
And soften hearts of stone.

8 Low at thy feet I bow;
O, pity and forgive!
Here will I lie, and wait till thou
Shalt bid me rise and live.

How beauteous shall you all appear,
Thus sumptuously arrayed!

Used by per. O. Ditson & Co.

258 (631)

- 1 Jesus the great, the mighty God,
A man of grief became;
In paths of meekness here he trod,
And bore the sinner's shame.
- 2 Humility, how bright it shined
In every act he wrought;
What lowliness of heart and mind,
Appeared in all he taught.
- 3 His love to men of sinful race,
Glowed in his tender breast;
For man he yielded to disgrace,
Forsaken and distressed.
- 4 Led as a lamb to meet the sword,
He bowed beneath the stroke;
Not one revengeful angry word,
The dear Redeemer spoke.
- 5 O may his meekness be my guide,
The pattern I pursue;
How can I bear revenge or pride,
With Jesus in my view?

259 (633) C. M.

- 1 Is there ambition in my heart?
Search, gracious God, and see;
Or do I act a haughty part?
Lord, I appeal to thee.
- 2 I charge my thoughts, be humble still,
And all my carriage mild;
Content, my Father, with thy will,
And quiet as a child.

- 3 The patient soul, the lowly mind
Shall have a large reward;
Let saints in sorrow lie resigned,
And trust a faithful Lord.

Watts.

260 (646) C. M. Psalm 42.

- 1 WITH earnest longings of the mind,
My God, to thee I look;
So pants the hunted hart to find
And taste the cooling brook.
- 2 When shall I see the courts of grace,
And meet my God again?
So long an absence from thy face
My heart endures with pain.
- 3 Temptations vex my weary soul,
And tears are my repast;
The foe insults without control:
"And where's your God at last?"
- 4 'Tis with a mournful pleasure now
I think on ancient days;
Then to thy house did numbers go,
And all our work was praise.
- 5 But why, my soul, sunk down so far
Beneath this heavy load?
Why do my thoughts indulge despair,
And sin against my God?
- 6 Hope in the Lord, whose mighty hand
Can all thy woes remove;
For I shall yet before him stand,
And sing restoring love.

Watts.

- 2 Why should I shrink at thy command,
Whose love forbids my fears?
Or tremble at the gracious hand
That wipes away my tears?
- 3 No! let me rather freely yield
What most I prize to thee,
Who never hast a good withheld,
Nor wilt withhold, from me.
- 4 Thy favor all my journey through
Thou art engaged to grant;
What else I want, or think I do,
'Tis better still to want.
- 5 But, ah! my inmost spirit cries,
Still bind me to thy sway;
Else the next cloud, that veils my skies,
Drives all these thoughts away.

- 2 I would submit to all thy will,
For thou art good and wise,

- 3 Thy love can cheer the darksome gloom,
And bid me wait serene,
Till hopes and joys immortal bloom,

Yet would I not repine;
Before they were possessed by me,
They were entirely thine.
- 3 Nor would I drop a murmuring word,
Though the whole world were gone;
But seek enduring happiness
In thee, and thee alone.
- 4 What is the world, with all its store?
'Tis but a bitter sweet;
When I attempt to pluck the rose,
A prickly thorn I meet.
- 5 Here perfect bliss can ne'er be found,
The honey's mixed with gall:

And let our joys be known;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.

2 The sorrows of the mind
Be banished from the place!
Religion never was designed
To make our pleasures less.

3 Let those refuse to sing
That never knew our God;
But children of the heavenly King
Should speak their joys abroad.

4 The God that rules on high,
And thunders when he please,
That rides upon the stormy sky,
And manages the seas;

5 This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our love;
He will send down his heavenly powers
To carry us above.

6 There we shall see his face,
And never, never sin;
There from the rivers of his grace
Drink endless pleasures in.

7 Yes, and before we rise
To that immortal state,
The thoughts of such amazing bliss
Should constant joys create.

8 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below;
Celestial fruits in them abound,
For God ordained it so.

9 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

The Christian while he sings
It is the Lord who rises
With healing in his wings;
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.

2 In holy contemplation;
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
E'en let the unknown morrow
Bring with it what it may.

3 It can bring with it nothing,
But he will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing,
Will clothe his people, too;
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And he who feeds the ravens,
Will give his children bread.

4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither
Their wonted fruit shall bear,
Though all the field should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice;

For while in him confiding
I cannot but rejoice.

7s.

1 Fix my heart and eyes on thine!
What are other objects worth?
But to see thy glory shine
Is a heaven begun on earth:

2 Trifles can no longer move;
Oh! I tread on all beside,
When I feel my Saviour's love,
And remember how he died!

3 Take my heart, 'tis all thine own,
To thy will my spirit frame;
Thou shalt reign, and thou alone.
Over all I have or am:

4 Thus whatever may betide,
I shall safe and happy be,
Still content and satisfied,
Having all in having thee.

278 (679)

1 O how happy are they
Who their Saviour obey,
And whose treasures are laid up above!
Tongue cannot express
The sweet comfort and peace
Of a soul in its earliest love.

2 That sweet comfort was mine
When the favor divine
I first found in the blood of the Lamb:
When my heart first believed,
O what joy I received!
What a heaven in Jesus' name!

3 'Twas a heaven below
The Redeemer to know,
And the angels could do nothing more
Than to fall at his feet,
And the story repeat,
And the Saviour of sinners adore!

4 Jesus, all the day long,
Was my joy and my song;
O that more his salvation might see;
He hath loved me, I cried;
He hath suffered and died
To redeem such a rebel as me.

5 On the wings of his love
I was carried above,
All sin and temptation and pain;

And I could not believe
That I ever should grieve,
That I ever should suffer again.

6 I then rode on the sky,
Freely justified I,
Nor envied Elijah his seat;
My glad soul mounted higher
In a chariot of fire,
And the world was put under my feet.

7 O! the rapturous height
Of that holy delight
Which I felt in the life-giving blood!
Of my Saviour possessed,
I was perfectly blessed,
Overwhelmed with the fulness of God.

8 What a mercy is this,
What a heaven of bliss!
How unspeakably favored am I!
Gathered into the fold,
With believers enrolled,
With believers to live and to die!

9 Now, my remnant of days
Would I spend to his praise,
Who hath died my poor soul to redeem;
Whether many or few,
All my years are his due,
May they all be devoted to him.

279 (682) 2 Tim. 1: 12.

1 I'M not ashamed to own my Lord,
Or to defend his cause,
Maintain the honor of his word,
The glory of his cross.

2 Jesus, my God! I know his name,
His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.

3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands,
Till the decisive hour.

4 Then will he own my worthless name
Before his Father's face,
And, in the New Jerusalem,
Appoint my soul a place.

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure, I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

Watts.

280 (684) C. M. 1 Cor. 16: 13.

1 AM I a soldier of the cross,

And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?

1. No more, my God, I boast no more Of all the du - ties I have done;
I quit the hopes I held be - fore, To trust the mer - its of thy Son.

281 (685) Phil. 3: 7-9.

1 No more, my God, I boast no more
Of all the duties I have done;
I quit the hopes I held before,
To trust the merits of thy Son.

2 Now for the love I bore his name,
What was my gain I count my loss;
My former pride I call my shame,
And nail my glory to his cross.

3 Yes, and I must and will esteem
All things but loss for Jesus' sake:
O may my soul be found in him,
And of his righteousness partake.

4 The best obedience of my hands
Dares not appear before thy throne;
But faith can answer thy demands,
By pleading what my Lord has done.

Watts.

282 (686) L. M. 2 Cor 12: 7-9, 10.

1 LET me but hear my Saviour say,
"Strength shall be equal to thy day,"
Then I'll rejoice in deep distress,
Leaning on all-sufficient Grace.

2 I glory in infirmity,
That Christ's own power may rest on me;
When I am weak, then am I strong;
Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.

3 I can do all things, or can bear
All sufferings, if my Lord be there;
Sweet pleasures mingle with the pains,
While his strong hand my head sustains.

4 But if the Lord be once withdrawn,
And we attempt the work alone,
When new temptations spring and rise
We find how great our weakness is.

Watts

283 (1129) L. M.

1 JESUS! and shall it ever be,
A mortal man ashamed of thee!
Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise;
Whose glories shine through endless days!

2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
Let evening blush to own a star;
He sheds the beams of light divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.

3 Ashamed of Jesus! just as soon
Let midnight be ashamed of noon:
'Tis midnight with my soul, till he,
Bright Morning Star! bids darkness flee.

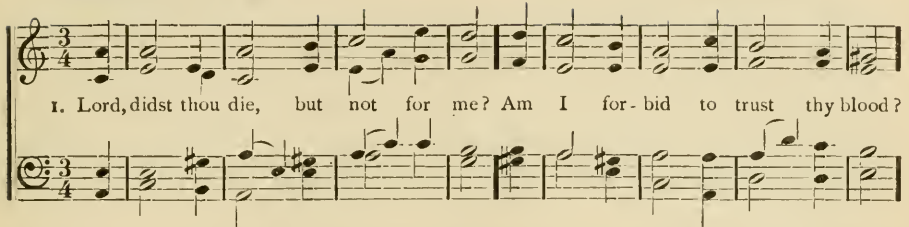

4 Ashamed of Jesus! that dear friend
On whom my hopes of heaven depend!
No; when I blush—be this my shame,
That I no more revere his name.

5 Ashamed of Jesus! who can say,
Who that has sins to wash away,
Or tears to wipe, or good to crave,
Or fears to quell, or soul to save?

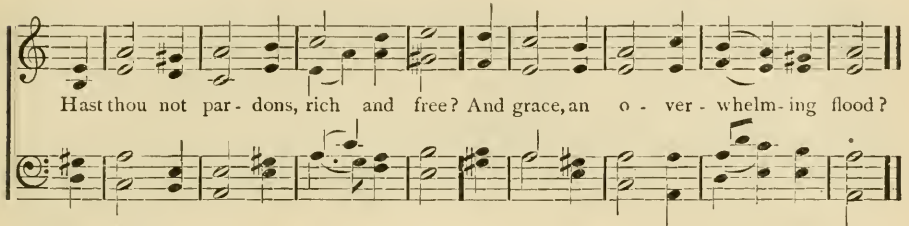

6 O then, nor is my boasting vain,
O then, I boast a Saviour slain;
And O, may this my glory be,
That Christ is not ashamed of me. Gregg.

WAVERLY. L. M.

From "The Psalmist."

1. Lord, didst thou die, but not for me? Am I for-bid to trust thy blood?

Hast thou not par-dons, rich and free? And grace, an o-ver-whelm-ing flood?

284 (696)

1 LORD, didst thou die, but not for me?
Am I forbid to trust thy blood?
Hast thou not pardons, rich and free
And grace, an overwhelming flood?

2 Who, then shall drive my trembling soul
From thee to regions of despair?
Who has surveyed the sacred scroll,
And found my name not written there?

3 Presumptuous thought! to fix the bound,
To limit mercy's sovereign reign:
What other happy souls have found,
I'll seek, nor shall I seek in vain.

4 I own my guilt; my sins confess;
Can men or devils make them more?
Of crimes, already numberless,
Vain the attempt to swell the score

5 Were the black list before my sight
While I remember thou hast died,
'Twould only urge my speedier flight
To seek salvation at thy side.

6 Low at thy feet I'll cast me down,
To thee reveal my guilt and fear;
And, if thou spurn me from thy throne,
I'll be the first that perished there.

Cruttenden.

2 Trust him, ye saints, in all your ways,
Pour out your hearts before his face:
When helpers fail, and foes invade,
God is our all-sufficient aid.

Watts.

286 (704) L. M.

1 As when the weary traveler gains
The height of some o'erlooking hill,
His eye revives, if 'cross the plains
He sees his home, though distant still;

2 While he surveys the much-loved spot,
He sights the space that lies between;
His past fatigues are now forgot,
Because his journey's end is seen;

3 Thus when the Christian pilgrim views,
By faith, his mansion in the skies,
The sight his fainting strength renews,
And wings his speed to reach the prize.

4 The thought of home his spirit cheers;
No more he grieves for troubles past;
Nor any future trial fears,
So he may safe arrive at last.

5 'Tis there, he says, I am to dwell
With Jesus, in the realms of day;
Then I shall bid my cares farewell,
And he will wipe my tears away.

6 Jesus, on thee our hope depends
To lead us on to thine abode;
Assured our home will make amends
For all our toil while on the road.

287 (694)

- 1 KIND are the words that Jesus speaks
To cheer the drooping saint;
"My grace sufficient is for you,
Though nature's powers may faint.
- 2 "My grace its glories shall display,
And make your griefs remove:
Your weakness shall the triumphs tell
Of boundless power and love."
- 3 What though my griefs are not removed,
Yet why should I despair?
While my kind Saviour's arms support,
I can the burden bear.
- 4 Jesus, my Saviour, and my Lord,
'Tis good to trust thy name:
Thy power, thy faithfulness, and love,
Will ever be the same.
- 5 Weak as I am, yet through thy grace
I all things can perform;
And, smiling, triumph in thy name
Amid the raging storm.

288 (697) C. M.

- 1 If God is mine, then present things,
And things to come are mine;
Yea, Christ, his word, and spirit, too,
And glory all divine.
- 2 If he is mine, then from his love,
He every trouble sends;
All things are working for my good,
And bliss his rod attends.

- 3 If he is mine, let friends forsake,
Let wealth and honors flee:
Sure, he who giveth me himself,
Is more than these to me.
- 4 If he is mine, I'll boldly pass
Through death's tremendous vale:
He is a solid comfort, when
All other comforts fail.
- 5 Oh, tell me, Lord! that thou art mine;
What can I wish beside?
My soul shall at the fountain live,
When all the streams are dried.

Beddoine.

289 (698) C. M.

- 1 DEAR Lord, why should I doubt thy
Or disbelieve thy grace? [love,
Sure thy compassions ne'er remove,
Although thou hide thy face.
- 2 Thy smiles have freed my heart from
My drooping spirits cheered; [pain,
And wilt thou not appear again
Where thou hast once appeared?
- 3 Dost thou repent? wilt thou deny
The gifts thou hast bestowed?
Or, are those streams of mercy dry,
Which once so freely flowed?
- 4 Lord, let not groundless fears destroy
The mercies now possessed;
I'll praise for blessings I enjoy,
And trust for all the rest.

290 (689) Psalm 4: 6.

- 1 BEGONE, ye gilded vanities,
I seek substantial good:
To real bliss my wishes rise—
The favor of my God.
- 2 Thy smiles immortal joys impart;
Heaven dawns in every ray;
One glimpse of thee will cheer my heart,
And turn my night to day.
- 3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine,
My life and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.
- 4 Grant, O my Father and my God,
This sweet, this one request;
Be thou my guide to thine abode,
And mine eternal rest.

- 1 With joy let each afflicted saint
This cheering truth behold,
That when he's tried he shall not faint,
But shall come forth as gold.
- 2 This privilege, dear Lord, I plead,
Nor am I here too bold,
That from the fire as thou hast said,
I may come forth as gold.
- 3 What though the furnace burns on high,
Still to this truth I'll hold;
'Tis but designed my soul to try—
I shall come forth as gold.

- 4 Herein his wisdom and his love
Will God to me unfold;
And from the furnace I shall prove,
He'll bring me forth as gold.
- 5 Thus will I sing his praises here,
Whose mercies are of old;
And when in glory I appear,
I shall appear as gold.

- 2 If doubts about a future state
Extort the serious cry,
"What shall I do? my sins how great!"
Be not afraid—'tis I.
- 3 While Satan aims a fiery dart,
Temptations make thee sigh;
Believe in me; I'll keep thy heart;
Be not afraid—'tis I.
- 4 Should health and wealth, and friends
And death itself draw nigh; [forsake,
Tho' heart should break, and nature shake,
Be not afraid—'tis I.

Matt. 5: 4.

1 Jesus, the glorious Head of grace,
Knows every saint's peculiar case;
What sorrows by their souls are borne,
And how for sin they daily mourn.

2 He knows how deep their groanings are
And what their secret sighs declare;
And, for their comfort, has expressed
That all such mourning souls are blessed.

3 They're blessed on earth; for 'tis by grace

They see and know their mournful case;
Blessed mourners! they shall shortly rise
To endless comfort in the skies.

4 There all their mourning day's will cease,

And they be filled with joy and peace:
Comforts eternal they shall prove,
And dwell for ever in his love.

Medley.

294 (716)

L. M. Psa. 46: 10.

1 Let me, thou sovereign Lord of all,
Low at thy footstool humbly fall;
And while I feel affliction's rod,
Be still and know that thou art God.

2 Let me not murmur nor repine,
Under these trying strokes of thine!
But while I walk the mournful road,
Be still and know that thou art God.

3 When and wherever thou shalt smite,
Teach me to own thy sovereign right:
And underneath the heaviest load,
Be still and know that thou art God.

4 Still let this truth support my mind,
Thou canst not err nor be unkind;
And thus approve thy chastening rod,
And know thou art my Father-God!

5 When this afflicted soul shall rise
To ceaseless joys above the skies,
I shall, as ransomed by thy blood,
For ever sing, "Thou art my God!"

L. M. Lam. 1: 16.

1 O FOR a heart to seek my God,
Encouraged by his gracious word;
To view my Saviour all complete,
And lie submissive at his feet.

2 To thee, Almighty God, to thee,
My Rock and Refuge, would I flee;
Now tides of sorrow, rolling high,
Appear to mingle earth and sky.

3 To see thy saints in mourning clad,
And foes by their distress made glad,
O'erwhelms my soul with poignant grief:
Lord, send thy servant sweet relief.

4 Arise, O God, the cause defend;
Deliverance unto Zion send:
Arise, arise, O God of might,
And put thy threatening foes to flight.

5 Pity thy poor dejected few;
Our souls revive, our strength renew;
Collect thy scattered flock once more,
And open wide the gospel-door.

296 (719)

1 BEHOLD the spouse oppressed with fears,
Seeking her absent Lord in tears;
In great distress she seems to be,
And pants his sacred face to see.

2 Like her, my soul has often been,
When clouds and darkness intervene;
I've sought in vain that face to see,
Disfigured once with blood for me.

3 I sought him in his temple, where
His saints, to worship, oft repair;
Yet even here, so hard my lot,
I sought him, but I found him not.

4 I sought to find him, on my knees;
I sought him in his promises;
But his dear face I ne'er could see,
'Twas like the barren heath to me.

5 The sacred page no hope revealed;
This book divine to me was sealed;
Nor hope nor comfort could afford,
For I had lost my only Lord.

6 At length his lovely face he showed,
And joys divine my heart o'erflowed;
My sorrows fled when Jesus smiled,
And called me still his undefiled.

L. M. Gen. 22: 6.

1 SAINTS, at your heavenly Father's word
Give up your comforts to the Lord;
He shall restore what you resign,
Or grant you blessing more divine.

2 So Abraham with obedient hand
Led forth his son at God's command;
The wood, the fire, the knife he took,
His arm prepared the dreadful stroke.

3 "Abraham, forbear," (the angel cried,)
"Thy faith is known, thy love is tried;
Thy son shall live, and in thy seed
Shall the whole earth be blessed indeed."

4 Just in the last distressing hour
The Lord displays delivering power;
The mount of danger is the place
Where we shall see surprising grace.

L. M. Mark 4: 39.

1 THE billows swell, the winds are high,
Clouds overcast my wintry sky;
Out of the depth to thee I call;
My fears are great, my strength is small.

2 O Lord, the pilot's part perform,
And guide and guard me thro' the storm;
Defend me from the threatening ill;
Control the waves, say, "Peace, be still."

3 Amidst the roaring of the sea
My soul still hangs its hopes on thee;
Thy constant love, thy faithful care,
Is all that saves me from despair.

4 Dangers of every shape and name
Attend the followers of the Lamb,
Who leave the world's deceitful shore
And leave it to return no more.

7s. Isa. 56: 5-11.

1 PENSIVE, doubting, fearful heart,
Hear what Christ the Saviour says;
Every word should joy impart—
Change thy mourning into praise.

2 Yes, he speaks, and speaks to thee;
May he help thee to believe;
Then thou presently wilt see,
Thou hast little cause to grieve:

3 "Fear thou not, nor be ashamed;
All thy sorrows soon shall end;
I, who heaven and earth have framed,
Am thy Husband and thy Friend:

4 I, the High and Holy One,
Israel's God, by all adored,
As thy Saviour will be known,
Thy Redeemer and thy Lord.

5 "For a moment I withdrew,
And thy heart was filled with pain,
But my mercies I'll renew;
Thou shalt soon rejoice again:

6 Though I seem to hide my face,
Very soon my wrath shall cease;
'Tis but for a moment's space,
Ending in eternal peace!

7 "Though afflicted, tempest-tossed,
Comfortless a while thou art,
Do not think thou canst be lost;
Thou art graven on my heart;

8 All thy wastes I will repair;
Thou shalt be rebuilt anew;
And in thee it shall appear
What the God of love can do."

1 WHEN darkness long has veiled my mind,
And smiling day once more appears,
Then, my Redeemer, then I find
The folly of my doubts and fears.

2 I chide my unbelieving heart;
And blush that I should ever be
Thus prone to act so base a part,
Or harbor one hard thought of thee.

3 O let me then at length be taught
(What I am still so slow to learn,)
 That God is love, and changes not,
Nor knows the shadow of a turn.

4 Sweet truth, and easy to repeat!
But when my faith is sharply tried,
I find myself a learner yet,
Unskillful, weak, and apt to slide.

5 But O, my Lord, one look from thee
Subdues the disobedient will;
Drives doubts and discontent away,
And thy rebellious worm is still.

6 Thou art as ready to forgive,
As I am ready to repine;
Thou, therefore, all the praise receive;
Be shame, and self-aborrence mine.

Cowper.

302 (750) L. M. Deut. 33: 25.

1 AFFLICTED saint, to Christ draw near;
Thy Saviour's gracious promise hear;
His faithful word declares to thee
That, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

2 Let not thy heart despond, and say,
How shall I stand the trying day?
He has engaged, by firm decree,
That, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

3 Thy faith is weak, thy foes are strong;
And, if the conflict should be long,
Thy Lord will make the tempter flee;
For, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

4 Should persecution rage and flame,
Still trust in thy Redeemer's name;
In fiery trials thou shalt see
That, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

5 When called to bear the weighty cross,
Or sore affliction, pain, and loss,
Or deep distress, or poverty,
Still, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

6 When ghastly death appears in view,
Christ's presence shall thy fears subdue,
He comes to set thy spirit free;
And, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

- 1 His master taken from his head,
Elisha saw him go,
And in desponding accents said,
"Ah! what must Israel do?"
- 2 But he forgot the Lord who lifts
The beggar to the throne;
Nor knew that all Elijah's gifts
Would soon be made his own.

- 3 What! when a Paul has run his course,
Or when Apollos dies,
Is Israel left without resource?
And have we no supplies?

We have a boundless store,
And shall be fed with what he gives,
Who lives for evermore.

- 1 COURAGE, my soul, behold the prize
The Saviour's love provides:
Eternal life beyond the skies
For all whom here he guides.
- 2 The wicked cease from troubling there,
The weary are at rest;
Sorrow, and sin, and pain, and care,
No more approach the blest.
- 3 A wicked world, and wicked heart,
With Satan now are joined;
Each acts a too successful part
In harassing my mind.
- 4 But fighting in my Saviour's strength,
Though mighty are my foes,
I shall a conqueror be at length
O'er all that can oppose.
- 5 Then why, my soul, complain or fear?
The crown of glory see!
The more I toil and suffer here,
The sweeter rest will be.

1 Kings 17: 16.

- 1 By the poor widow's oil and meal
Elijah was sustained;
Though small the stock, it lasted well,
For God the store maintained.
- 2 It seemed as if from day to day,
They were to eat and die;
But still, though in a secret way,
He sent a fresh supply.
- 3 Thus to his poor he still will give
Just for the present hour;
But for to-morrow they must live
Upon his word and power.
- 4 No barn or store-house they possess,
On which they can depend;
Yet have no cause to fear distress,
For Jesus is their Friend.
- 5 Then let no doubt your mind assail;
Remember God has said,
"The cruise and barrel shall not fail;
My people shall be fed."
- 6 And thus, though faint, it often seems,
He keeps their grace alive;
Supplied by his refreshing streams,
Their dying hopes revive.

- 1 A FRIEND there is—your voices join,
Ye saints, to praise his name;
Whose truth and kindness are divine,
Whose love's a constant flame.

- 2 When most we need his helping hand,
This Friend is always near;
With heaven and earth at his command,
He waits to answer prayer.
- 3 His love no end nor measure knows;
No change can turn its course;
Immutably the same it flows
From one eternal source.
- 4 When frowns appear to veil his face,
And clouds surround his throne,
He hides the purpose of his grace,
To make it better known.
- 5 And if our dearest comforts fall
Before his sovereign will,
He never takes away our all;
Himself he gives us still!

- 1 OUR God, how firm his promise stands,
E'en when he hides his face!
He trusts in our Redeemer's hands
His glory and his grace.
- 2 Then why, my soul, these sad complaints,
Since Christ and we are one?
Thy God is faithful to his saints,
Is faithful to his Son.
- 3 Beneath his smiles my heart has lived,
And part of heaven possessed;
I praise his name for grace received,
And trust him for the rest.

FOUNDATION. 11s.

CARROL. 1871.

1. How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, Is laid for your

310 (751)

2 Pet. 1: 4.

1 How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,

Is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say than to you he hath said,—

You, who unto Jesus for refuge have fled?

2 In every condition, in sickness, in health,

In poverty's vale, or abounding in wealth,
At home, and abroad, on the land, on the sea,

As thy days may demand, shall thy strength ever be.

3 "Fear not, I am with thee; O, be not dismayed!

I, I am thy God, and will still give thee aid,
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause
thee to stand,

Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

4 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,

The rivers of wo shall not thee overflow;

For I will be with thee thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

5 "When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply;

The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.

6 "E'en down to old age, all my people shall prove

My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love;
And when hoary hairs shall their temples
adorn,

Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

7 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,

I will not, I will not desert to his foes;
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,

I'll never, no never, no never forsake."

1. Cheer up, ye trembling souls; On Je-sus' aid re-ly: He sees us when we see not him, And al-ways hears our cry, And al-ways hears our cry.

313 (760)

1 CHEER up, ye trembling souls
On Jesus' aid rely:
He sees us when we see not him,
And always hears our cry.

2 Without cessation pray;
Your prayers will not prove vain:
Our Joseph turns aside to weep,
But cannot long refrain.

3 Sudden he stands confessed;
We look, and all is light;
The foe, confounded, swift as thought,
Is vanquished from our sight.

4 Christ's presence clears the soul
And smooths the rugged way;
He often makes the crooked straight,
And turns the night to day.

5 We then move cheerful on;
The ground feels firm and good;
And, lest we should mistake the way,
He lines it out with blood.

6 Again we cannot see
His helping hand; but feel:
And, though we neither feel nor see,
His hand sustains us still.

7 He gently leads us on;
Protects from fatal harms;
And, when we faint, and cannot walk,
He bears us in his arms.

8 He guides and moves our steps,
For, though we seem to move,
His Spirit all the motion gives,
By springs of fear and love.

Hart.

1 YOUR harps, ye trembling saints,
Down from the willows take;
Loud to the praise of Christ, our Lord,
Bid every string awake.

2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.

3 His grace shall to the end
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark divine.

4 The time of love will come,
When we shall clearly see,
Not only that he shed his blood,
But each shall say, "For me."

5 Tarry his leisure, then;
Wait the appointed hour;
Wait till the Bridegroom of your souls
Reveals his love with power.

6 Blest is the man, O God!
That stays himself on thee!
Who waits for thy salvation, Lord!
Shall thy salvation see.

Je - sus speaks, and speaks to thee, "Say, poor sin - ner, lov'st thou me?"

315 (764) John 21: 16.

1 HARK, my soul! it is the Lord;
'Tis the Saviour, hear his word;
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee,
"Say, poor sinner, lovest thou me?"

2 "I delivered thee when bound,
And, when wounded, healed thy wound;
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.

3 "Can a woman's tender care
Cease toward the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
Yet will I remember thee.

4 "Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above;
Deeper than the depths beneath;
Free and faithful, strong as death.

5 "Thou shalt see my glory soon,
When the work of grace is done;
Partner of my throne shalt be!
Say, poor sinner, lovest thou me?"

6 Lord, it is my chief complaint,
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love thee and adore:
O, for grace to love thee more!

Cowper.

2 Thou my fortress art and tower;
Having thee I want no more:
Strong in thy full strength I stand;
None can pluck me from thy hand.

3 Nothing in myself I am;
All I have is in the Lamb:
While his face on me doth shine,
All in heaven and earth is mine.

4 In my Jesus' arms secure,
To the end I shall endure;
Join with me, ye angels, join!
Praise his name in hymns divine.

- His blood and his merits we sing,
For Christ is the end of the law.
- 2 'Tis here, when with sorrows oppressed,
Believers in Jesus should flee;
For those that are weary, here's rest,—
For sin-burdened sinners like me:
If justice pursues thee for blood,
His righteousness stands without flaw;
And he that redeemed thee to God,
Is Jesus, the end of the law.
- 3 The types and the shadows are fled,
With all that prediction foretold;
Since Jesus on Calvary bled,
His sheep shall return to the fold:

And nothing the building shall shock,
For Christ is the end of the law.

- 4 How sweet and delightful the strain,
Salvation by grace to repeat;
Shall sinners redeemed e'er refrain,

His saints their existence shall draw,
And live, though encompassed with strife;
For Christ is the end of the law.

1 WITH Christ in God your life is hid:
'These words at once thy fears forbid;
For he must God himself dethrone,
Who takes that life, with Jesus one.

2 Though but a spark, 'tis heavenly fire,
May dwindle oft, but ne'er expire,
Till brighter than the solar rays,
It shines through everlasting days.

3 Earth, hell, and sin, that hateful name,
Together strive to quench the same;
Yet still it burns, his power to show,
In spite of all that hell can do.

4 God is its shield; he guards it well,
When tempests rise, and billows swell;
'Tis hid by God, where none but he
By his omniscient eye can see.

5 'Tis that blest hope that never dies;
Beyond the reach of hell it lies;

Let every power devoted be.

O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound:
- 3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless his works, and bless his word;
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
How deep thy counsels! how divine!
- 4 Sin (my worst enemy before)
Shall vex my eyes and ears no more;
My inward foes shall all be slain,
Nor Satan break my peace again.
- 5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know
All I desired or wished below;
And every power find sweet enjoy
In that eternal world of joy.

Watts.

EVAN. C. M.

Arr. by W. H. HAVERGAL.

1. Where must a wea-ry sin-ner go, But to the sin-ner's friend?
He on-ly can re-lieve my wo, And bid my sor-rows end.

332 (809) C. M. Ps. 62: 1.

1 WHERE must a weary sinner go,
But to the sinner's friend?
He only can relieve my wo,
And bid my sorrows end.

2 Thou art, O Lord, my resting-place;
The promised land I see,
And long to live upon thy grace,
And lose myself in thee.

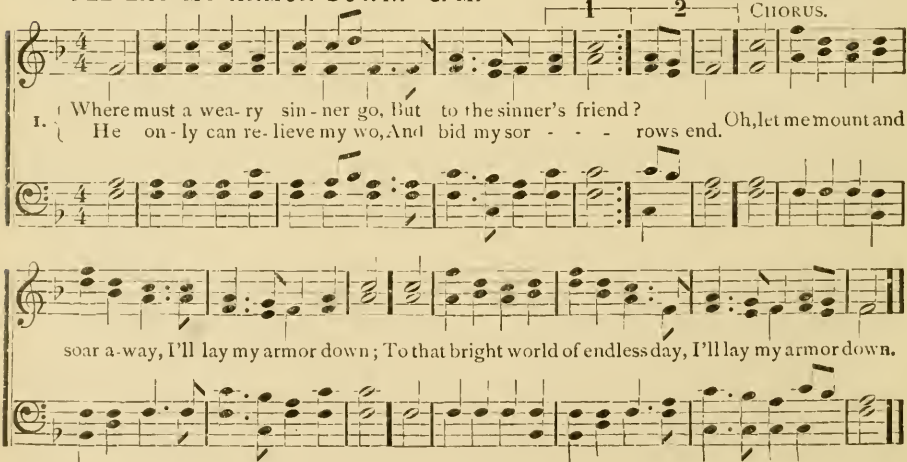

3 A glimpse of thee, and thy sweet store,
Thou dost to me impart;
But kindly shew me more and more,
Till thou dost fill my heart.

4 The wilderness I cannot bear,
So far from thee to stand;
Nor yet from Pisgah's top to stare,
Upon the promised land.

5 I want to eat and drink my fill
Of Canaan's milk and wine;
Let Moses die upon the hill,
And I be wholly thine.

6 'Tis self, that legal thing and base,
Which keeps me from my rest;
Me from myself let Christ release,
And soon I shall be blest.

I'LL LAY MY ARMOR DOWN. C. M.

JOSEPH B. MOON. 1883
CHORUS.

1. Where must a wea-ry sin-ner go, But to the sinner's friend? Oh, let me mount and
He on-ly can re-lieve my wo, And bid my sor-rows end. soar a-way, I'll lay my armor down; To that bright world of endless day, I'll lay my armor down.

O LAND OF REST. C. M.

Caldwell.

333 (807)

- 1 O LAND of rest, for thee I sigh;
 When will the moment come,
 When I shall lay my armor by,
 And dwell with Christ at home?
 No tranquil joys on earth I know,
 No peaceful sheltering dome;
 This world's a wilderness of wo;
 This world is not my home.
- 2 To Jesus Christ I sought for rest;
 He bade me cease to roam,
 And fly for succor to his breast,
 And he'd conduct me home.
 I should at once have quit the field,
 Where foes and fury roam;
 But, ah! my passport was not sealed;
 I could not yet go home.
- 3 When by affliction sharply tried,
 I view the gaping tomb,
 Although I dread death's chilling tide,
 Yet still I sigh for home.
 Weary of wandering round and round,

NORX.—To sing double omit slur in third strain.

This vale of sin and gloom,
 I long to leave th' unhallowed ground,
 And dwell with Christ at home.

MRS. F. MILLS.

334 (816)

C. M.

- 1 FROM east to west let others roam,
 And search in vain for bliss;
 My soul is satisfied at home;
 The Lord my portion is.
 Jesus, who on his glorious throne
 Rules heaven, and earth, and sea,
 Is pleased to claim me for his own,
 And give himself to me.
- 2 His person fixes all my love,
 His blood removes my fear;
 And while he fills his throne above,
 His arm preserves me here.
 His word of promise is my food,
 The Spirit is my guide;
 Thus daily is my strength renewed,
 And all my wants supplied.
- 3 For him I count as gain each loss,
 Disgrace for him renownd;
 Well may I glory in his cross,
 While he prepares my crown!
 Let worldlings then indulge their boast,
 How much they gain or spend;
 Their joys must soon give up the ghost,
 But mine shall know no end.

1 My dearest friends, in bonds of love,
Whose hearts in sweetest union prove,
Your friendship's like a drawing band,
Yet we must take the parting hand.

2 Your company's sweet, your union dear,
Your words delightful to mine ear;
Yet when I see that we must part,
You draw like cords around my heart.

3 How sweet the hours have passed away
Since we have met to sing and pray!
How loath we are to leave the place
Where Jesus shows his smiling face!

4 O could I stay with friends so kind,
How would it cheer my drooping mind!
But duty makes me understand
That we must take the parting hand.

5 And since it is God's holy will
We must be parted for awhile,
In sweet submission, all as one,
We'll say, our Father's will be done.

6 How oft I've seen your flowing tears,
And heard you tell your hopes and fears!
Your hearts with love were seen to flame,
Which makes me hope we'll meet again.

7 I hope you'll all remember me
If you on earth no more I see;
An interest in your prayers I crave,
That we may meet beyond the grave.

8 O glorious day! O blessed hope!
My soul leaps forward at the thought,

When in that happy, happy land,
We'll no more take the parting hand.

John Blair.

336 (825) L. M.

1 O HAPPY day, when saints shall meet,
To part no more! the thought is sweet!
No more to feel the rending smart,
Oft felt below when Christians part.

2 O happy place! I still must say,
Where all but love is done away;
All cause of parting there is past,
Their social feast will ever last.

3 On earth when friends together meet,
And find the passing moments sweet,
Time's rapid motions soon compel
With grief to say, dear friends, farewell.

4 The happy season soon will come,
When saints shall meet in heaven, their
Eternally with Christ to dwell, [home;
Nor ever hear the sound, farewell.

1 COME, Christian brethren, ere we part,
Join every voice and every heart;
One solemn hymn to God we raise,
One final song of grateful praise.

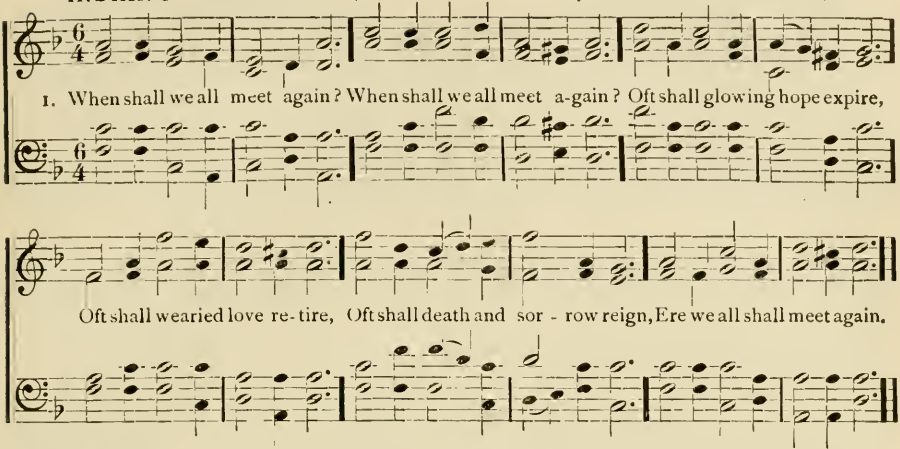

2 Christians, we here may meet no more,
But there is yet a happier shore;
And there, released from toil and pain,
Dear brethren, we shall meet again.

INDIAN'S FAREWELL. 7s. 6l.

Arr. by WM. WALKER and WM. HAUSEL, M. D.

1. When shall we all meet again? When shall we all meet a-gain? Oft shall glowing hope expire,
Oft shall wearied love re-tire, Oft shall death and sor-row reign, Ere we all shall meet again.

338 (824)

1 WHEN shall we all meet again?
When shall we all meet again?
Oft shall glowing hope expire,
Oft shall wearied love retire,
Oft shall death and sorrow reign,
Ere we all shall meet again.

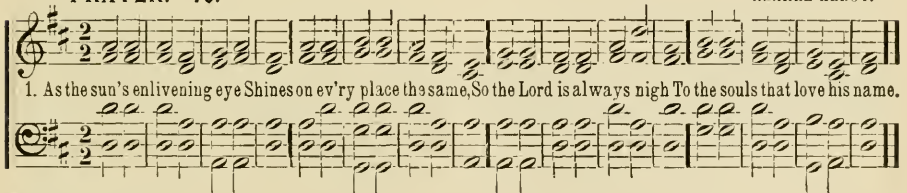

2 Though in distant lands we sigh,
Parched beneath a burning sky,
Though the deep between us rolls,
Friendship shall unite our souls;
And in fancy's wide domain,
Oft shall we all meet again.

3 When the dreams of life are fled
When its wasted lamps are dead,
When in cold oblivion's shade,
Beauty, fame, and wealth are laid,
Where immortal spirits reign,
There may we all meet again!

4 There shall we all be at rest,
Leaning on our Saviour's breast,
There shall we for ever be
Gazing on the Deity;
There shall we the Lamb adore,
Then shall we all part no more.

PRAYER. 7s.

ASAHEL ABBOT.

1. As the sun's enlivening eye Shines on ev'ry place the same, So the Lord is always nigh To the souls that love his name.

339 (826)

2 When they move at duty's call,
He is with them by the way:
He is ever with them all,
Those who go, and those who stay.

3 For a season called to part,
Let us then ourselves commend
To the gracious eye and heart
Of our ever-present Friend.

4 Jesus, hear our humble prayer!
Tender Shepherd of thy sheep!

Let thy mercy and thy care
All our souls in safety keep.

5 In thy strength may we be strong,
Sweeten every cross and pain;
Give us, if we live, ere long
Here to meet in peace again.

6 Then, if thou thy help afford,
Ebenzers shall be reared,
And our souls shall praise the Lord,
Who our poor petitions heard. Newton

2 See! the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove.
Who can faint, while such a river
Ever flows their thirst t' assuage?
Grace, which, like the Lord, the giver,
Never fails from age to age.

3 Round each habitation hovering,
See the cloud and fire appear,
For a glory and a covering,
Showing that the Lord is near.

Thus deriving from their banner,
Light by night, and shade by day,
Safe they feed upon the manna
Which he gives them by the way.
4 Blessed inhabitants of Zion,
Washed in the Redeemer's blood!
Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
Makes them kings and priests to God:
'Tis his love his people raises
Over self to reign as kings;
And as priests, his solemn praises
Each for a thank-offering brings.

2 There, like streams that feed the garden,
Pleasures without end shall flow;

Still in undisturbed possession,
Peace and righteousness shall reign;
Never shall you feel oppression,
Hear the voice of war again.

Waning moons no more shall see;
But, your griefs for ever ending,
Find eternal noon in me;

Change to day the gloom of night;
He the Lord shall be your glory,
God your everlasting light.

Cowper.

2 Lord, in us there is no merit,
We've been sinners from our youth;
Guide us by thy Holy Spirit
Into all revealed truth;
On thy word of grace we'll venture,
Till in death's cold arms we sleep,
Love's our banner, Christ's our Leader;
Come, good Shepherd, feed thy sheep.

3 Saviour, still with courage arm us
That we may not yield to fear,
Nothing Lord, we know can harm us
While thy gracious aid is near.
Glory, glory be to Jesus,
At his name our hearts do leap;
He both comforts us and heals us:
Come, good Shepherd, feed thy sheep.

4 Christ alone our souls shall rest on;
Taught by him we own his name;
Sweetest of all names is Jesus;
How it doth our souls inflame!
Saints and angels chant the story,
Jesus all thy flock will keep,
He hath led the way to glory,
And will thither bring his sheep.

1. How did my heart re - joice to hear My friends de - vout - ly say,
In Zi - on let us all ap - pear, And keep the sol - emn day!

343 (835)

1 How did my heart rejoice to hear
My friends devoutly say,
In Zion let us all appear,
And keep the solemn day!

2 I love her gates, I love the road;
The church, adorned with grace,
Stands like a palace built for God
To show his milder face

3 Up to her courts, with joys unknown,
The holy tribes repair:
The Son of David holds his throne,
And sits in judgment there.

4 He hears our praises and complaints,
And while his awful voice
Divides the sinners from the saints,
We tremble and rejoice.

5 Peace be within this sacred place,
And joy a constant guest!
With holy gifts and heavenly grace
Be her attendants blest!

6 My soul shall pray for Zion still,
While life or breath remains;
There my best friends, my kindred dwell,
There God my Saviour reigns.

Watts.

2 One privilege my heart desires;
O grant me an abode
Among the churches of thy saints,
The temples of my God!

3 There shall I offer my requests,
And see thy beauty still,
Shall hear the messages of love,
And there inquire thy will.

4 When troubles rise, and storms appear,
There may his children hide;
God has a strong pavilion where
He makes my soul abide.

Watts.

345 (840) C. M.

1 WHAT shall I render to my God
For all his kindness shown?
My feet shall visit thine abode,
My songs address thy throne.

2 Among the saints that fill thy house,
My offerings shall be paid;
There shall my zeal perform the vows
My soul in anguish made.

3 How much is mercy thy delight,
Thou ever-blessed God!
How dear thy servants in thy sight!
How precious is their blood!

4 How happy all thy servants are!
How great thy grace to me!
My life which thou hast made thy care,
Lord, I devote to thee.

Watts.

1 WHEN saint to saint, in days of old,
Their sorrows, sins, and sufferings told,
Jesus, the Friend of sinners dear,
His saints to bless, was present there.

2 As members of his mystic frame,
Together met, to bless his name,
While humbly at his throne we bow,
As God with us, he's present now.

3 Oh! blest devotion, thus to meet,
And spread our woes at his dear feet;

350 (832) L. M. Ps. 48.

1 ZION's a city God hath blessed
With peace and everlasting rest;
A glorious city, strong and fair;
And Jesus dwells for ever there.

2 Her ancient walls appear to be
The workmanship of Deity;
Founded in grace, they still appear
Without a flaw or chasm there.

3 Oft has this city's strength been tried,
By mighty foes on every side;
But all in vain it yet has been,
She baffles Satan, hell, and sin.

4 Count ye her towers, how high they rise,
Her golden spires, they pierce the skies!
Her golden streets are fair to view;
Her palaces and bulwarks, too.

5 Then round her walk, her turrets tell;
Mark all her brazen bulwarks well;
Spread far and wide her deathless fame,
Her pearly gates and walls of flame.

6 Her founder's love has ever proved
Like Salem's mount, which ne'er was
'Tis fixed on this eternal base, [moved;
The grace of God, and gift by grace.

351 (836) L. M. Ps. 84.

1 How pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of Hosts, thy dwellings are!
With long desire my spirit faints
To meet th' assemblies of thy saints.

2 My flesh would rest in thine abode,
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God! my King! why should I be
So far from all my joys and thee!

3 The sparrow chooses where to rest,
And for her young provides her nest;
But will my God to sparrows grant
That pleasure which his children want?

4 Blest are the souls that find a place
Within the temple of thy grace;
There they behold thy gentler rays,
And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.

5 Cheerful they walk with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there. Watts

DESIRE. L. M.

Ere we can of-fer our complaints, Be-hold him pres-ent with his aid.

352 (850)

Ps. 46.

1 GOD is the refuge of his saints,
When storms of sharp distress invade;
Ere we can offer our complaints,
Behold him present with his aid.

2 Let mountains from their seats be hurled
Down to the deep, and buried there;
Convulsions shake the solid world,
Our faith shall never yield to fear.

3 Loud, may the troubled ocean roar,
In sacred peace our souls abide,
While every nation, every shore,
Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.

4 There is a stream whose gentle flow
Supplies the city of our God;
Life, love and joy, still gliding through,
And watering our divine abode.

5 That sacred stream, thine holy word,
That all our raging fear controls;
Sweet peace thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls.

6 Zion enjoys her monarch's love,
Secure against a threatening hour;
Nor can her firm foundations move,
Built on his truth and armed with power.

Watts.

2 One day within thy sacred gate,
Affords more real joy to me,
Than thousands in the tents of state;
The meanest place is bliss with thee.

1 KINDRED in Christ, for his dear sake,
A hearty welcome here receive;
May we together now partake
The joys which only he can give.

2 To you and us by grace 'tis given
To know the Saviour's precious name;
And shortly we shall meet in heaven,
Our hope, our way, our end the same.

3 May he, by whose kind care we meet,
Send his good Spirit from above;
Make our communications sweet,
And cause our hearts to burn with love.

4 Forgotten be each worldly theme,
When Christians see each other thus:
We only wish to speak of him,
Who lived, and died, and reigns for us.

5 We'll talk of all he did and said,
And suffered for us here below;
The path he marked for us to tread,
And what he's doing for us now.

6 Thus, as the moments pass away,
We'll love, and wonder, and adore;
And hasten on the glorious day,
When we shall meet to part no more.

2 Here his affections rest,
Nor shall from hence remove;
'Tis his delight to make her blest,
And live upon his love.

3 Her worthless name is found,
Deep 'graven on his hand,
In characters of grace profound,
That shall for ever stand.

4 Though oft with tempest tost,
Ne'er from her anchor drove;
This chosen vessel can't be lost,
Secured by covenant love.

356 (846) S. M. Ps. 48.

1 FAR as thy name is known
The world declares thy praise;
Thy saints, O Lord, before thy throne
Their songs of honor raise.

2 With joy let Judah stand
On Zion's chosen hill,
Proclaim the wonders of thy hand,
And counsels of thy will.

3 Let strangers walk around
The city where we dwell,
Compass and view thine holy ground,
And mark the building well.

4 The orders of thy house,
The worship of thy court,
The cheerful songs, the solemn vows;
And make a fair report.

5 How decent and how wise!
How glorious to behold!
Beyond the pomp that charms the eyes,
And rites adorned with gold.

6 The God we worship now
Will guide us till we die,
Will be our God while here below,
And ours above the sky.

S. M. Ps. 122.

- 1 GLAD was my heart to hear
My old companions say,
Come, in the house of God appear,
For 'tis an holy day.

- 2 Our willing feet shall stand
Within the temple door ;
While young and old, in many a band,
Shall throng the sacred floor.
- 3 Thither the tribes repair,
Where all are wont to meet,
And, joyful in the house of prayer,
Bend at the mercy seat.
- 4 Pray for Jerusalem,
The city of our God ;
The Lord from heaven be kind to them
That love the dear abode.
- 5 Within these walls may peace
And harmony be found ;
Zion ! in all thy palaces,
Prosperity abound !
- 6 For friends and brethren dear,
Our prayer shall never cease ;
Oft as they meet for worship here,
God send his people peace !

- 1 To God, the only wise,
Our Saviour and our King,
Let all the saints below the skies

360 (872) Isa. 45: 19.

1 My soul, take courage from the Lord;
Believe and plead his holy word:
To him, alone, do thou complain;
Nor shalt thou seek his face in vain.

2 Upon him call in humble prayer;
Thou still art his peculiar care:
He'll surely turn and smile again;
Nor shalt thou seek his face in vain.

3 However sinful, weak and poor,
Still wait and pray at mercy's door;
Faithful Jehovah must remain;
Nor shalt thou seek his face in vain.

4 Though sharp afflictions still abound,
And clouds and darkness thee surround,
Still pray, for God will all explain;
Nor shalt thou seek his face in vain.

5 In him, and him alone, confide;
Still at the throne of grace abide;
Eternal victory thou shalt gain;
Nor shalt thou seek his face in vain.

361 (879) L. M. Ps. 6: 4.

1 REGARD, great God! my mournful
prayer;
Make my poor trembling soul thy care;
For me in pity undertake,
And save me, for thy mercy's sake.

2 My soul's cast down within me, Lord,
And only thou canst help afford;
Let not thy heart with sorrow break,
But save me, for thy mercy's sake.

3 I've foes and fears of every shape,
Nor from them can my soul escape;
Upon me, Lord, some pity take,
And save me, for thy mercy's sake.

4 I've scarce a glimmering ray of light;
With me 'tis little else but night;
O, for my help do thou awake,
And save me, for thy mercy's sake.

5 To me, dear Saviour, turn once more;
To my poor soul thy joys restore;
Let me again thy smiles partake;
Lord, save me, for thy mercy's sake.

1 SPRINKLED with reconciling blood,
I dare approach thy throne, O God;
Thy face no frowning aspect wears;
Thy hand no vengeful thunder bears!

2 Th' encircling rainbow, peaceful sign,
Doth with refulgent brightness shine;
And while my faith beholds it near,
I bid farewell to every fear.

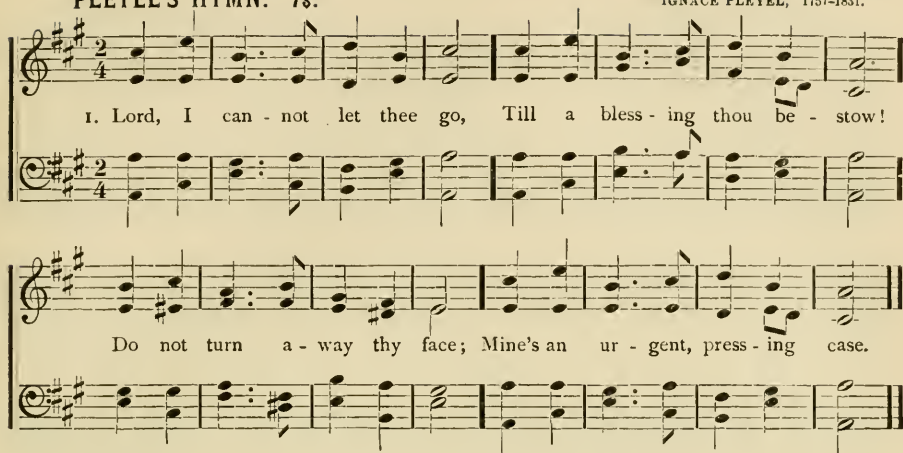

3 Let me my grateful homage pay,
With courage sing, with fervor pray;
And, though myself a wretch undone,
Hope for acceptance through thy Son.

4 Thy Son, who on th' accursed tree
Expired to set the vilest free,
On this I build my only claim,
And all I ask is in his name.

PLEYEL'S HYMN. 7s.

IGNACE PLEYEL, 1757-1831.

1. Lord, I can - not let thee go, Till a bless - ing thou be - stow!
Do not turn a - way thy face; Mine's an ur - gent, press - ing case.

363 (871) Gen. 32: 26.

1 LORD, I cannot let thee go,
Till a blessing thou bestow!
Do not turn away thy face;
Mine's an urgent, pressing case.

2 Dost thou ask me who I am?
Ah, my Lord, thou knowest my name!
Yet the question gives a plea,
To support my suit with thee.

3 Thou didst once a wretch behold,
In rebellion blindly bold,
Scorn thy grace, thy power defy;
That poor rebel, Lord, was I.

4 Once a sinner near despair
Sought thy mercy seat by prayer;
Mercy heard and set him free:
Lord, that mercy came to me.

5 Many days have passed since then;
Many changes I have seen;
Yet have been upheld till now:
Who could hold me up but thou?

6 Thou hast helped in every need;
This emboldens me to plead:
After so much mercy past,
Canst thou let me sink at last?

7 No; I must maintain my hold;
'Tis thy goodness makes me bold;
I can no denial take,
When I plead for Jesus' sake.

364 (874) 7s. 1 Kings 3: 5.

1 COME, my soul, thy suit prepare;
To thy God address thy prayer;
He himself has bid thee pray,
Therefore will not say thee nay.

2 Thou art coming to a King;
Large petitions with thee bring;
For his grace and power are such,
None can ever ask too much.

3 With my burden I begin:
Lord, remove this load of sin!
Let thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.

4 Lord, I come to thee for rest;
Take possession of my breast;
There thy blood-bought right maintain,
And without a rival reign.

5 As the image in the glass
Answers the beholder's face,
Thus unto my heart appear,
Print thine own resemblance there

6 While I am a pilgrim here,
Let thy love my spirit cheer;
As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
Lead me to my journey's end.

7 Show me what I have to do,
Every hour my strength renew;
Let me live a life of faith,
Let me die thy people's death.

Dear Lord! to us as-sen-bled here Re-veal thy smil-ing face,

While we, by faith, with love and fear, Ap-proach the Throne of Grace.

365 (877)

Heb. 4: 16.

- 1 DEAR Lord! to us assembled here
Reveal thy smiling face,
While we, by faith, with love and fear,
Approach the Throne of Grace.
- 2 Thy house is called the house of prayer:
A solemn, sacred place;
O let us now thy presence share,
While at the Throne of Grace.
- 3 With holy boldness may we come,
Though of a sinful race,
Thankful to find there yet is room
Before the Throne of Grace.
- 4 Our earnest, fervent cry attend,
And all our faith increase,
While we our heavenly Friend address
Upon the Throne of Grace.
- 5 His tender pity and his love
Our every fear will chase;
And all our help, we then shall prove,
Come from the Throne of Grace.
- 6 Dear Lord, our many wants supply;
Attend to every case;
While humble in the dust we lie,
Low at the Throne of Grace.
- 7 We bless thee for thy word and laws;
We bless thee for thy peace;

And we do bless thee, Lord, because
There is a Throne of Grace.

366 (882) C. M. Ps. 22: 5-7.

- 1 APPROACH, my soul, the mercy seat,
Where Jesus answers prayer;
There humbly fall before his feet,
For none can perish there.
- 2 Thy promise is my only plea;
With this I venture nigh:
Thou callest burdened souls to thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin;
By Satan sorely pressed;
By wars without and fears within,
I come to thee for rest.
- 4 Be thou my shield and hiding place,
That, sheltered near thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him, Jesus died.
- 5 O wondrous love! to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead thy gracious name.
- 6 "Poor, tempest-tossed soul, be still;
My promised grace receive;
'Tis Jesus speaks! I must, I will,
I can, I do believe.

367 (884) Matt 15 : 27.

- 2 Have pity on my needy soul ;
Thy peace and pardon give ;
Thy love can make the wounded whole,
And bid the dying live.
- 3 Behold me prostrate at thy gate ;
Do not my suit deny ;
With longing eyes for thee I wait ;
O, help me, or I die !
- 4 When thou dost give a heart to pray,
Thou wilt incline thine ear ;
From me turn not thy face away,
But my petition hear.
- 5 So shall my joyful soul adore
The riches of thy grace ;
No sinner needed mercy more,
That ever sought thy face.
- 4 His name is Jesus, full of grace,
Which draws me to his door ;
And will not Jesus shew his face,
And bring his gospel-store ?
- 5 Supplies of every grace I want,
And each day want supply ;
And if no grace the Lord will grant,
I must lie down and die.
- 6 But, oh ! my Lord, such news shall ne'er
Be told in Zion's street,
That some poor soul fell in despair,
And died at Jesus' feet.

- 1 DEAR Shepherd of thy people, here
Thy presence now display ;
As thou hast given a place for prayer,
So give us hearts to pray.
- 2 Within these walls let holy peace,
And love and concord dwell ;
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.
- 3 Show us some token of thy love,
Our fainting hope to raise ;
And pour thy blessings from above,
That we may render praise.
- 4 And may the gospel's joyful sound,
Enforced by mighty grace,
Awaken many sinners round
To come and fill the place.

- 1 My business lies at wisdom's gate
Where needy sinners come ;
And here I sue, and here I wait
For mercy's falling crumb.

And help from him implore ;
The wounds do witness I am lame,
The rags, that I am poor.
- 3 My Lord, I hear, the hungry feeds,
And cheereth souls distrest ;
He loves to bind up broken reeds,
And heal a bleeding breast.

371 (904) C. M. Matt. 26: 41

1 ALAS! what hourly dangers rise!
What snares beset my way!
To heaven, O let me lift my eyes,
And hourly watch and pray.

2 How oft my mournful tho'ts complain,
And melt in flowing tears!
My weak resistance, ah! how vain!
How strong my foes and fears?

3 O gracious God, in whom I live,
My feeble efforts aid;
Help me to watch, and pray, and strive,
Though trembling and afraid.

4 Increase my faith, increase my hope,
When foes and fears prevail;
And bear my fainting spirit up,
Or soon my strength will fail.

5 Whene'er temptations fright my heart,
Or lure my feet aside,
My God, thy powerful aid impart;
My guardian and my guide.

372 (920) C. M.

1 BREATHE from the gentle South, O Lord,
And cheer me from the North;
Blow on the treasures of thy word,
And call the spices forth!

2 I wish, thou knowest, to be resigned,
And wait with patient hope;
But hope delayed fatigues the mind,
And drinks the spirits up.

3 Help me to reach the distant goal;
Confirm my feeble knee,
Pity the sickness of a soul
That faints for love of thee.

4 Cold as I feel this heart of mine,
Yet since I feel it so,
It yields some hope of life divine,
Within, however low.

5 I seem forsaken and alone,
I hear the lion roar,
And every door is shut but one,
And that is mercy's door.

6 There, till the dear Deliverer come,
I'll wait with humble prayer;
And when he calls his exile home,
The Lord shall find me there.

373 (921) Psalm 27.

1 ONE thing, with all my soul's desire,
I sought and will pursue;
What thine own Spirit doth inspire,
Lord! for thy servant do.

2 Grant me within thy courts a place,
Among thy saints a seat,
For ever to behold thy face,
And worship at thy feet.

3 In thy pavilion to abide,
When storms of trouble blow;
And in thy tabernacle hide,
Secure from every foe.

4 "Seek ye my face;"—without delay,
When thus I hear thee speak,
My heart would leap for joy, and say,
"Thy face, Lord, will I seek."

5 Then leave me not when griefs assail,
And earthly comforts flee;
When father, mother, kindred fail,
My God! remember me.

6 Oft had I fainted and resigned
Of every hope my hold;
But mine afflictions brought to mind
Thy benefits of old.

Each blessing to my soul most dear,
Because conferred by thee.

4 In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.

5 When gladness wings my favored hour,

1 CHRIST, exalted, is our song,
Hymned by all the blood-bought throng;
To his throne our shouts shall rise;
God with us by sacred ties.
Shout, believer, to thy God;
He hath once the wine-press trod;
Peace procured by blood divine;
Cancelled all thy sins and mine.

2 Here thy bleeding wounds are healed;
Sin condemned and pardon sealed;
Grace her empire still maintains;
Christ without a rival reigns.

In thy Surety thou art free;
His dear hands were pierced for thee;
With his spotless vesture on;
Holy as the Holy One.

3 Oh! the heights, the depths of grace,
Shining with meridian blaze;
Here the sacred records show,
Sinners black, but comely, too.
Saints, dejected, cease to mourn;
Faith shall soon to vision turn;
Ye the kingdom shall obtain,
And with Christ exalted reign.

1 COME, thou Fount of every blessing,
 Tune my heart to sing thy grace!
 Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
 Call for songs of loudest praise.
 Teach me some melodious sonnet,
 Sung by flaming tongues above:
 Praise the mount! O, fix me on it!
 Mount of God's unchanging love.

2 Here I raise my Ebenezer;
 Hither by thy help I'm come;
 And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
 Safely to arrive at home.

Jesus sought me, when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God;
 He, to save my soul from danger,
 Interposed his precious blood!

3 O to grace how great a debtor
 Daily I'm constrained to be:
 Let thy grace, Lord, like a fetter,
 Bind my wandering heart to thee.
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it!
 Prone to leave the God I love!
 Here's my heart, Lord, take and seal it;
 Seal it for thy courts above! Robinson.

1. Thy mer-cy, Lord, we praise; Of judg-ment, too, we sing:
For all the rich-es of thy grace, Our grate-ful trib-ute bring.

387 (945)

- 2 Mercy may justly claim
A sinner's thankful voice;
And, judgment joining in the theme,
We tremble and rejoice.
- 3 Thy mercies bid us trust;
Thy judgments strike with awe:
We fear the last, we bless the first,
And love thy righteous law.
- 4 Who can thy acts express,
Or trace thy wondrous ways?
How glorious is thy holiness!
How terrible thy praise!
- 5 Thy goodness how immense,
To those that fear thy name!
Thy love surpasses thought or sense,
And always is the same.
- 6 Thy judgments are too deep
For reason's line to sound:
Thy tender mercy to thy sheep,
No bottom knows, nor bound.

388 (956) S. M.

- 1 PREPARE a thankful song
To the Redeemer's name!
His praises should employ each tongue,
And every heart inflame!
- 2 He laid his glory by,
And dreadful pains endured,
That rebels, such as you and I,
From wrath might be secured.

- 3 The world and Satan rage,
But he their power controls;
His wisdom, love, and truth, engage
Protection for our souls.
- 4 Though pressed, we will not yield,
But shall prevail at length:
For Jesus is our sun and shield,
Our righteousness and strength.
- 5 Assured that Christ, our King,
Will put our foes to flight,
We on the field of battle sing,
And triumph while we fight.

Newton.

389 (960) S. M.

- 1 AWAKE, and sing the song
Of Moses and the Lamb;
Wake, every heart, and every tongue,
To praise the Saviour's name.
- 2 Sing of his dying love,
And sing his rising power;
Sing how he intercedes above,
For those whose sins he bore.
- 3 Sing, on your heavenly way,
Ye ransomed sinners, sing;
Sing on rejoicing, every day,
In Christ, th'exalted King.
- 4 Soon shall your raptured tongue
His endless praise proclaim;
And sweeter voices tune the song
Of Moses and the Lamb.

- 1 O, FOR a thousand tongues to sing
My dear Redeemer's praise,
The glory of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace.
- 2 My gracious Master and my God,
Let saints thy love proclaim,
And spread through all the earth abroad
The honors of thy name.
- 3 Jesus, the name that calms our fears,
That bids our sorrow cease;
'Tis music to our ravished ears;
'Tis life, and health, and peace.
- 4 It breaks the power of reigning sin,
And sets the prisoner free;
Thy blood can cleanse the foulest stain;
And can avail for me.

391 (954) C. M. Psa. 116: 12.

- 1 FOR mercies, countless as the sands,
Which daily I receive
From Jesus my Redeemer's hands,
My soul, what canst thou give?
- 2 Alas! from such a heart as mine,
What can I bring him forth?
My best is stained and dyed with sin
My all is nothing worth.
- 3 Yet this acknowledgment I'll make
For all he has bestowed,
Salvation's sacred cup I'll take,
And call upon my God.

- 4 The best returns for one like me,
So wretched and so poor,
Is from his gifts to draw a plea,
And ask him still for more.
- 5 I cannot serve him as I ought,
No works have I to boast;
Yet would I glory in the thought,
That I shall owe him most.

392 (402) C. M. Rev. 5: 11-13.

- 1 COME, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.
- 2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they
"To be exalted thus;" [cry,
"Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply,
"For he was slain for us."
- 3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine.
- 4 Let all that dwell above the sky,
And air, and earth, and seas,
Conspire to raise thy glories high,
And speak thine endless praise.
- 5 The whole creation join in one
To bless the sacred name
Of him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

FREEMAN LEWIS. 1780-1859.

1. O thou in whose presence my soul takes delight, On whom in afflictions I call,
My comfort by day, and my song in the night, My hope, my salvation, my all.

393 (948)

2 Where dost thou at noontide resort with thy sheep,

To feed on the pastures of love? [weep,
Say, why in the valley of death should I
Or alone in the wilderness rove?

3 O, why should I wander an alien from thee,

And cry in the desert for bread? [see,
Thy foes will rejoice when my sorrows they
And smile at the tears I have shed.

4 Ye daughters of Zion, declare, have ye
The Star that on Israel shone? [seen
Say, if in your tents my Beloved has been,
And where, with his flocks, he is gone.

5 This is my Beloved; his form is divine;
His vestments shed odors around: [vine,
The locks on his head are as grapes on the
When autumn with plenty is crowned.

6 The roses of Sharon, the lilies that grow
In vales, on the banks of the streams:
On his cheeks, all the beauties of excellence glow,
And his eyes are as quivers of beams.

7 His voice, as the sound of the dulcimer
sweet,

Is heard through the shadows of death;
The cedars of Lebanon bow at his feet,
The air is perfumed with his breath.

8 His lips as a fountain of righteousness
That waters the garden of grace, [flow,

From which their salvation, the Gentiles
shall know,

And bask in the smiles of his face.

9 Love sits in his eye-lids, and scatters delight

Through all the bright mansions on high;
Their faces the cherubim veil in his sight,
And tremble with fulness of joy.

10 He looks, and ten thousands of angels
And myriads wait for his word; [rejoice,
He speaks, and eternity, filled with his voice,

Re-echoes the praise of her Lord.

1 How strange is the course that a Christian must steer;

Ho perplexed is the path he must tread!
The hope of his happiness rises from fear,
And his life he receives from the dead.

2 His fairest pretensions must wholly be waived,

And his best resolutions be crossed;
Nor can he expect to be perfectly saved,
Till he finds himself utterly lost.

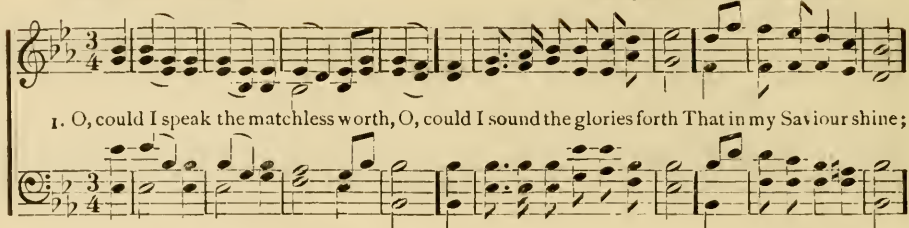

3 When all this is done, and his heart is
Of the total remission of sins, [assured
When his pardon is signed and his peace is procured,

From that moment his conflict begins.

- 1 I LOVE the Lord; he heard my cries,
And pitied every groan:
Long as I live, when troubles rise,
I'll hasten to his throne.
- 2 I love the Lord; he bowed his ear,
And chased my griefs away;
O let my heart no more despair,
While I have breath to pray!
- 3 My flesh declined, my spirits fell,
And I drew near the dead,
While inward pangs, and fears of hell,
Perplexed my wakeful head.
- 4 "My God," I cried, "thy servant save,
Thou ever good and just;
Thy power can rescue from the grave,
Thy power is all my trust."
- 5 The Lord beheld me sore distressed,
He bade my pains remove;
Return, my soul, to God, thy rest,
For thou hast known his love.
- 6 My God hath saved my soul from death,
And dried my falling tears;
Now in his praise I'll spend my breath,
And my remaining years.

Watts.

- 2 'Twas in my haste, my spirit said,

I am cut off before thine eyes,
But thou hast heard my cry.
- 3 Thy goodness, how divinely free!
How wondrous is thy grace
To those that fear thy majesty,
And trust thy promises!
- 4 O love the Lord, all ye, his saints,
And sing his praises loud;
He'll bend his ear to your complaints,
And recompense the proud.

1 FAR from my thoughts, vain world,
begone;

Let my religious hours alone:

Fain would my eyes my Saviour see;

I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire,
And kindles with a pure desire:
Come, my dear Jesus, from above,
And feed my soul with heavenly love.

3 The trees of life immortal stand
In blooming rows at thy right hand;
And in sweet murmurs by thy side
Rivers of bliss perpetual glide.

4 Haste, then, but with a smiling face,
And spread the table of thy grace;
Bring down a taste of truth divine,
And cheer my heart with sacred wine.

5 Blessed Jesus, what delicious fare!
How sweet thy entertainments are!
Never did angels taste above
Redeeming grace and dying love.

6 Hail, great Immanuel, all divine,
In thee thy Father's glories shine;
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest one,
That eyes have seen or angels known.

Watts.

2 It was the sight of thy dear cross,
First weaned my soul from earthly things;

And taught me to esteem as dross
The mirth of fools and pomp of kings.

3 I want that grace that springs from thee;
That quickens all things where it flows;
And makes a wretched thorn like me,
Bloom as the myrtle, or the rose.

4 Dear fountain of delight unknown!
No longer sink below the brim;
But overflow, and pour me down
A living and life-giving stream!

5 For sure, of all the plants that share
The notice of thy Father's eye,
None proves less grateful to his care,
Or yields him meaner fruit than I.

Cowper.

- 1 Now let the Lord my Saviour smile,
And show my name upon his heart;
I would forget my pains awhile,
And in the pleasure lose the smart.
- 2 But, oh! it swells my sorrows high,
To see my blessed Jesus frown;
My spirits sink, my comforts die,
And all the springs of life are down.
- 3 Yet why, my soul, why these complaints?
Still while he frowns, his bowels move;
Still on his heart he bears his saints,
And feels their sorrows and his love.
- 4 My name is printed on his breast;
His book of life contains my name;
I'd rather have it there impressed
Than in the bright records of fame.
- 5 Now shall my minutes smoothly run,
Whilst here I wait my Father's will;
My rising and my setting sun
Roll gently up and down the hill.

Watts.

- 3 What sinners value, I resign;
Lord, 'tis enough that thou art mine;
I shall behold thy blissful face,
And stand complete in righteousness.
- 4 This life's a dream, an empty show;
But the bright world to which I go
Hath joys substantial and sincere;
When shall I wake, and find me there?
- 5 O glorious hour! O blest abode!
I shall be near and like my God!
And flesh and sin no more control
The sacred pleasures of the soul.

- 1 BLEST Jesus! source of grace divine,
What soul-refreshing streams are thine!
Oh, bring these healing waters nigh,
Or we must droop, and fall, and die.
- 2 No traveler through desert lands,
'Midst scorching suns, and burning sands,
More needs the current to obtain,
Or to enjoy refreshing rain.
- 3 Our longing souls aloud would sing,
Spring up, celestial Fountain, spring;
To a redundant river flow,
And cheer this thirsty land below.
- 4 May this blest torrent near my side,
Through all the desert, gently glide;
Then, in Emmanuel's land above,
Spread to a sea of joy and love!

406 (990)

1 My God, the spring of all my joys,
The life of my delights,
The glory of my brightest days,
The comfort of my nights!

2 In darkest shades if he appear,
My dawning is begun;
He is my soul's sweet morning star,
And he my rising sun.

3 The opening heavens around me shine
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shows his heart is mine,
And whispers I am His!

4 My soul would leave this heavy clay
At that transporting word,
Run up with joy the shining way
To embrace my dearest Lord.

5 Fearless of hell and ghastly death
I'd break through every foe;
The wings of love, and arms of faith,
Should bear me conqueror through.

Watts.

3 The arms of everlasting love
Beneath my soul he placed;
And on the rock of ages set
My slippery footsteps fast.

4 The city of my blest abode
Is walled around with grace,
Salvation for a bulwark stands
To shield the sacred place.

5 Satan may vent his sharpest spite,
And all his legions roar;
Almighty mercy guards my life,
And bounds his raging power.

6 Arise, my soul, awake, my voice,
And tunes of pleasure sing;
Loud hallelujahs shall address
My Saviour and my King.

Watts.

407 (993) C. M.

1 ARISE, my soul, my joyful powers,
And triumph in my God;
Awake, my voice, and loud proclaim

And fixed my standing more secure
Than 'twas before I fell.

408 (995) C. M.

2 O that the happy hour were come
To change my faith to sight!
I shall behold my Lord at home
In a diviner light.

3 Haste, my Beloved, and remove

Then shall my passions all be love,
And all my powers be praise.

- 3 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
And storms of sorrow fall,
May I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all.
- 4 There shall I bathe my weary soul
In seas of heavenly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

- 5 'Tis but in part I know thy will ;
I bless thee for the sight ;
When will thy love the rest reveal,
In glory's clearer light ?
- 6 With rapture shall I then survey
Thy providence and grace ;
And spend an everlasting day
In wonder, love and praise.

- 2 Here the dark veils of flesh and sense
My captive soul surround ;
Mysterious deeps of Providence
My wondering thoughts confound.
- 3 When I behold thy awful hand
My earthly hopes destroy,
In deep astonishment I stand,
And ask the reason, why ?

Or on this earthly ball.
- 2 In vain the bright, the burning sun
Scatters his feeble light ;
'Tis thy sweet beams create my noon ;
If thou withdraw 'tis night.
- 3 And whilst upon my restless bed,
Among the shades I roll,
If my Redeemer shows his head,
'Tis morning with my soul.
- 4 Were I possessor of the earth,
And called the stars my own,
Without thy graces and thyself

- 5 Let others stretch their arms like seas,
And grasp in all the shore,
Grant me the visits of thy face,
And I desire no more.

1 My Captain sounds the alarm of war:
Awake! the powers of hell are near!
"To arms! to arms!" I hear him cry,
" 'Tis your's to conquer or to die!"

2 Rous'd by the animating sound,
I cast my eager eyes around;
Make haste to gird my armor on,
And bid each trembling fear begone.

3 Hope is my helmet; Christ my shield;
Thy word, my God, the sword I wield;
With sacred truth my loins are girt,
And holy zeal inspires my heart.

4 Thus armed, I venture on the fight;
Resolved to put my foes to flight:
While Jesus kindly deigns to spread
His conquering banner o'er my head.

5 In him I hope; in him I trust;
His bleeding Cross is all my boast;
Through troops of foes he'll lead me on
To victory and a victor's crown!

413 (1002) L. M. Heb. 11: 13.

1 PILGRIMS we are, and heav'nward bound;
Our journey lies along this road;
This wilderness we travel round,
To reach the city of our God.

2 And here as travelers we meet,
Before we reach the fields above,
To sit around our Master's feet,
And tell the wonders of his love.

3 Oft have we seen the tempests rise;
The world and Satan, hell and sin,
Like mountains seemed to reach the skies,
With scarce a gleam of hope between.

4 But still, as oft as troubles come,
Our Jesus sends some cheering ray;
And that strong arm shall guard us home,
Which thus protects us by the way.

5 A few more days, or months, or years,
In this dark desert to complain;
A few more sighs, a few more tears,
And we shall bid adieu to pain.

Swain.

414 (1016) L. M. Psa. 13.

1 How long, O Lord, shall I complain
Like one that seeks his God in vain?
Canst thou thy face for ever hide,
And I still pray, and be denied?

2 Shall I for ever be forgot
As one whom thou regardest not!
Still shall my soul thy absence mourn,
And still despair of thy return?

3 How long shall my poor troubled breast
Be with these anxious thoughts oppressed;
And Satan, my malicious foe,
Rejoice to see me sunk so low?

4 Hear, Lord, and grant me quick relief,
Before my death concludes my grief;
If thou withhold thy heavenly light,
I sleep in everlasting night.

Of feeling, all things show some sign,
But this unfeeling heart of mine.
- 3 To hear the sorrows thou hast felt,
Dear Lord, an adamant would melt!
But I can read each moving line,
And nothing move this heart of mine.
- 4 Thy judgments, too, unmoved I hear,
(Amazing thought!) which devils fear:
Goodness and wrath in vain combine
To stir this stupid heart of mine.
- 5 But something yet can do the deed!
And that dear something much I need;
Thy Spirit can from dross refine,
And move and melt this heart of mine.

L. M. Acts 14: 22.

- 1 I ASKED the Lord that I might grow
In faith, and love, and every grace;
Might more of his salvation know,
And seek more earnestly his face.

- 2 'Twas he who taught me thus to pray;
And he, I trust, has answered prayer;
But it has been in such a way
As almost drove me to despair.
- 3 I hoped that in some favored hour,
At once he'd answer my request;
And, by his love's constraining power,
Subdue my sins, and give me rest.
- 4 Instead of this, he made me feel
The hidden evils of my heart,
And let the angry powers of hell
Assault my soul in every part.
- 5 Yea, more, with his own hand he seemed
Intent to aggravate my wo;
Crossed all the fair designs I schemed,
Blasted my gourds, and laid me low.
- 6 "Lord, why is this?" I trembling cried;
"Wilt thou pursue thy worm to death?"
"Tis in this way," the Lord replied,
"I answer prayer for grace and faith.
- 7 "These inward trials I employ,
From self and pride to set thee free;
And break thy schemes of earthly joy,
That thou mayest seek thy all in me."

Newton.

- 5 How will the powers of darkness boast,
If but one praying soul be lost!
But I have trusted in thy grace,
And shall again behold thy face.

- 6 What'er my fears or foes suggest,
Thou art my hope, my joy, my rest;
My heart shall feel thy love, and raise
My cheerful voice to songs of praise.

Watts.

- 1 WHY is my heart so far from thee,
My God, my chief delight?
Why are my thoughts no more by day
With thee, no more by night?
- 2 Why should my foolish passions rove?
Where can such sweetness be
As I have tasted in thy love,
As I have found in thee?
- 3 When my forgetful soul renews
The savor of thy grace,
My heart presumes I cannot lose
The relish all my days.
- 4 But ere one fleeting hour is past,
The flattering world employs
Some sensual bait to seize my taste,
And to pollute my joys.
- 5 Trifles of nature or of art,
With fair deceitful charms,
Intrude upon my thoughtless heart,
And thrust me from thy arms.
- 6 'Then I repent and vex my soul,
That I should leave thee so;
Where will those wild affections roll
That let a Saviour go!
- 7 Sin's promised joys are turned to pain,
And I am drowned in grief;
But my dear Lord returns again,
He flies to my relief.

- 8 Seizing my soul with sweet surprise,
He draws with loving bands;
Divine compassion in his eyes,
And pardon in his hands.
- 9 Wretch that I am to wander thus
In chase of false delight!
Let me be fastened to thy cross
Rather than lose thy sight.
- 10 Make haste, my days, to reach the goal,
And bring my heart to rest
On the dear center of my soul,
My God, my Saviour's breast.

Watts.

Be all my thoughts employed,
While of his precious truth I sing—
Cast down, but not destroyed.
- 2 Oft the united powers of hell
My soul have sore annoyed;
And yet I live, this truth to tell—
Cast down, but not destroyed.
- 3 In all the paths thro' which I've passed,
What mercies I've enjoyed!
And this shall be my song at last—
Cast down, but not destroyed.

There shall I him adore;
Destroyed shall be my sin and fear,
And I cast down no more.

For thou alone canst heal;
Thy word can bring a sweet relief
For every pain I feel.

The springs of comfort seem to fail,
And all my hopes decline.

1. How sore a plague is sin, To those by whom 'tis felt:

The Chris-tian cries, "Unclean, un-clean!" E'en though re-leased from guilt.

422 (1012) Rom. 7: 24.

1 How sore a plague is sin,
To those by whom 'tis felt:
The Christian cries, "Unclean, unclean!"
E'en though released from guilt.

2 O wretched, wretched man!
What horrid scenes I view!
I find, alas! do all I can,
That I can nothing do.

3 Of peace if I'm in quest,
Or love my thoughts engage,
Envy and anger in my breast
That moment rise and rage.

4 When for an humble mind
To God I pour my prayer,
I look into my heart, and find
That pride will still be there.

5 How long, dear Lord, how long
Deliverance must I seek?
And fight with foes so very strong,
Myself so very weak?

6 I'll bear th' unequal strife,
And wage the war within;
Since death that puts an end to life,
Shall put an end to sin.

2 I know the Lord is nigh,
And would but cannot pray;
For Satan meets me when I try,
And frights my soul away.

3 I would, but can't repent,
Though I endeavor oft;
This stony heart can ne'er relent,
Till Jesus makes it soft.

4 I would, but cannot rest,
In God's most holy will;
I know what he appoints is
Yet murmur at it still.

5 O could I but believe!
Then all would easy be;
I would, but cannot—Lord relieve;
My help must come from thee.

6 But if indeed I would,
Though I can nothing do,
Yet the desire is something good,
For which my praise is due.

7 By nature prone to ill,
Till thine appointed hour,
I was as destitute of will,
As now I am of power.

424 (1022)

1 I AM a stranger here below,
And what I am 'tis hard to know;
I am so vile, so prone to sin,
I fear that I'm not born again.

2 When I experience call to mind,
My understanding is so blind,
All feeling sense seems to be gone,
Which makes me fear that I am wrong.

3 I find myself out of the way,
My thoughts are often gone astray;
Like one alone I seem to be;
Oh! is there any one like me?

4 'Tis seldom I can ever see
Myself as I would wish to be;
What I desire, I can't attain;
From what I hate I can't refrain.

5 So far from God I seem to lie
Which makes me often weep and cry,
I fear at last that I shall fall;
For if a saint, the least of all.

6 I seldom find a heart to pray,
So many things come in my way;
Thus filled with doubts, I ask to know—
Come, tell me, is it thus with you?

7 So by experience do I know
There's nothing good that I can do;
I cannot satisfy the law,
Nor hope nor comfort from it draw.

8 My nature is so prone to sin,
Which makes my duty so unclean,

That when I count up all the cost,
Without free grace, I know I'm lost.

Each heartfelt comfort still is mine;
Comforts that shall o'er death prevail,

427 (1026) John 6: 16-21.

- 2 We, like the disciples, are tossed
 By storms on a perilous deep;
 But cannot be possibly lost,
 For Jesus has charge of the ship.
 Though billows and winds are enraged,
 And threaten to make us their sport,
 This pilot his word has engaged
 To bring us in safety to port.
- 3 If sometimes we struggle alone,
 And he is withdrawn from our view,
 It makes us more willing to own
 We nothing without him can do:
 Then Satan our hopes would assail,
 But Jesus is still within call;
 And when our poor efforts quite fail,
 He comes in good time, and does all.
- 4 Yet, Lord, we are ready to shrink,
 Unless we thy presence perceive,
 O save us, we cry, or we sink:
 We would, but we cannot believe.
 The night has been long and severe;
 The winds and the seas are still high;
 Dear Saviour, this moment appear,
 And say to our souls, "It is I!"

Newton.

- That I in thy beauty may shine;
 Disheartened with waiting so long,
 I sink at thy feet with my load:
 All plaintive I pour out my song,
 And stretch forth my hands unto God.
- 2 Shine, Lord, and my terror shall cease;
 The blood of atonement apply:
 And lead me to Jesus for peace,
 The Rock that is higher than I:
 Speak, Saviour, for sweet is thy voice;
 Thy presence is fair to behold;
 I thirst for thy Spirit, with cries
 And groanings that cannot be told.
- 3 If sometimes I strive as I mourn,
 My hold of thy promise to keep,
 The billows more fiercely return,
 And plunge me again in the deep:
 While harassed and cast from thy sight,
 The tempter suggests with a roar,
 "The Lord hath forsaken thee quite;
 Thy God will be gracious no more."

- 4 Yet, Lord, if thy love hath designed
 No covenant blessing for me,
 Ah, tell me, how is it I find
 Some sweetness in waiting for thee?
 Almighty to rescue thou art,
 Thy grace is immortal and free;
 Lord, succor and comfort my heart,
 And make me live wholly to thee.

Trials give new life to prayer;
Trials bring me to his feet,
Lay me low, and keep me there.
- 4 Did I meet no trials here,
No chastisement by the way,
Might I not with reason fear,
I should be a cast away?

430 (1033) 7s. John 21: 16.

- 1 'Tis a point I long to know;
Oft it causes anxious thought;
Do I love the Lord or no?
Am I his, or am I not?
- 2 If I love, why am I thus?
Why this dull and lifeless frame?
Hardly, sure, can they be worse
Who have never heard his name.

- 3 Could my heart so hard remain,
Prayer a task and burden prove,
Every trifle give me pain,
If I knew a Saviour's love?
- 4 When I turn my eyes within,
All is dark, and vain, and wild;
Filled with unbelief and sin,
Can I deem myself a child?
- 5 If I pray, or hear, or read,
Sin is mixed with all I do:
You that love the Lord indeed,
Tell me, is it thus with you?
- 6 Yet I mourn my stubborn will;
Find my sin a grief and thrall:
Should I grieve for what I feel,
If I did not love at all?
- 7 Could I joy his saints to meet,
Choose the ways I once abhorred,
Find, at times, the promise sweet,
If I did not love the Lord?
- 8 Lord, decide the doubtful case;
Thou who art thy people's Sun,
Shine upon thy work of grace,
If it be indeed begun.

- 9 Let me love thee more and more,
If I love at all, I pray:
If I have not loved before,
Help me to begin to-day.

1 AND must it, Lord, be so?
And must thy children bear
Such various kinds of wo,
Such soul-perplexing fear?
Are these the blessings we expect?
Is this the lot of God's elect?

2 Boast not, ye sons of earth,
Nor look with scornful eyes;
Above your highest mirth,
Our saddest hours we prize;
For though our cup seems filled with gall,
There's something secret sweetens all.

3 How harsh soe'er the way,
Dear Saviour, still lead on;
Nor leave us till we say,
"Father, thy will be done:"
At most we do but taste the cup,
For thou alone hast drank it up.

4 Shall guilty man complain?
Shall sinful dust repine?
And what is all our pain?
How light compared with thine!
Finish, dear Lord, what is begun;
Choose thou the way, but still lead on.

Hart.

2 Thou art my pilot wise:
My compass is thy word:
My soul each storm defies,
While I have such a Lord!
I trust thy faithfulness and power
To save me in the trying hour.

3 Though rocks and quicksands deep
Through all my passage lie;
Yet Christ will safely keep
And guide me with his eye:
My anchor hope shall firm abide,
And I each boisterous storm outride.

4 By faith I see the land—
The port of endless rest
My soul, thy sails expand,
And fly to Jesus' breast!
Oh, may I reach the heavenly shore,
Where winds and waves distress no more.

5 Whene'er becalmed I lie,
And storms forbear to toss,
Be thou, dear Lord, still nigh,
Lest I should suffer loss:
For more the treacherous calm I dread,
Than tempests bursting o'er my head.

6 Come, Holy Ghost! and blow
A prosperous gale of grace;
Waft me from all below
To heaven, my destined place!
Then, in full sail, my port I'll find,
And leave the world and sin behind.

- 1 THE Lord is on our side,
His people now may say;
The Lord is on our side,—or we
Had fallen a sudden prey.
- 2 Sin, Satan, Death, and Hell,
Like fire, against us rose;
Then had the flames consumed us quick,
But God repelled our foes. Montgomery.

SPANISH HYMN. 7s. D.

Spanish Melody.

1. { Jesus draws the chosen race By his sweet, resistless grace; } 2. From the blissful realms above,
Causing them to hear his call, And before his pow'r to fall.

Swift as lightning flies his love; Draws them to his tender breast, There they find the gospel rest.

440 (1061) Jer. 21: 3.

1 JESUS draws the chosen race
By his sweet, resistless grace;
Causing them to hear his call,
And before his power to fall.

2 From the blissful realms above,
Swift as lightning flies his love;
Draws them to his tender breast,
There they find the gospel rest.

3 Then how eagerly they move
In the happy paths of love!
How they glory in the Lord,
Pleased with Jesus' sacred word!

4 When the Lord appears in view,
Old things cease, and all is new:
Love divine o'erflows the soul,
Love doth every sin control.

441 (1092) 7s. D.

1 PEOPLE of the living God,
I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

2 Now to you my spirit turns,
Turns, a fugitive unblest;
Brethren, where your altar burns,
O receive me into rest!

3 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave;

Where you dwell shall be my home,
Where you die shall be my grave.

4 Mine the God whom you adore,
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my soul no more,
Every idol I resign.

Montgomery.

442 (1034) 7s. D. Rev. 22: 20.

1 WHEN shall all my sorrows end?
When my days of mourning cease?
When shall I to Christ ascend?
Only place of happiness.

2 Thirsting, panting after home,
Longing for that happy day;
Still I cry, "My Saviour, come!
Come, Lord Jesus, come away."

3 See! what tribulations rise;
Earth and sin beset me round;
Sorrows, trickling from my eyes,
Moisten all the weary ground.

4 Lord, thy pardoning love reveal;
Let my cry ascend thy ears;
Sin, alas! I deeply feel!
Sin! but ah! thy blood appears!

5 Blood, that answers every claim,
Tells me, Jesus died for me:
Then, in his delightful name,
Sin's subdued, and I am free!

1. O that the Lord would guide my ways To keep his stat - utes still!

O that my God would grant me grace To know and do his will!

443 (1046)

1 O THAT the Lord would guide my ways
To keep his statutes still!
O that my God would grant me grace
To know and do his will!

2 O send thy Spirit down to write
Thy law upon my heart!
Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,
Nor act the liar's part.

3 From vanity turn off my eyes;
Let no corrupt design,
Nor covetous desires arise
Within this soul of mine.

4 Order my footsteps by thy word,
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
But keep my conscience clear.

5 My soul hath gone too far astray,
My feet too often slip;
Yet since I've not forgot thy way,
Restore thy wandering sheep.

6 Make me to walk in thy commands,
'Tis a delightful road;
Nor let my head, or heart, or hands,
Offend against my God.

Watts.

444 (1064) C. M. 2. Cor. 12: 9.

1 GRACE, like a fountain, ever flows,
Fresh succors to renew;
The Lord my wants and weakness knows,
My sins and sorrows, too.

2 He sees me often overcome,
And pities my distress;
And bids affliction drive me home,
To anchor on his grace.

3 'Tis he directs my doubtful ways,
When dangers line the road:
Here I my Ebenezer raise,
And trust the gracious God.

Montgomery.

445 (1066) C. M. 1 Peter 2: 7.

1 EXCEEDING precious is my Lord,
His love divinely free!
And sure his name doth health afford
To sickly souls like me.

2 It cheers a debtor's gloomy face,
Unbolts his prison door;
It brings amazing stores of grace
To feed the gospel poor.

3 And if with lively faith we view
His dying toil and smart,
And hear him say, it was for you,
This breaks the stony heart.

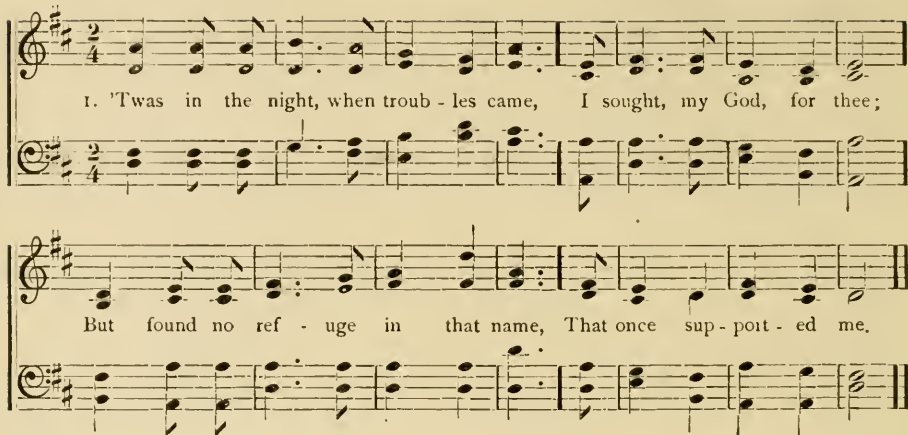

4 An heavenly joy his words convey,
The bowels strangely move:
We blush, and melt, and faint away,
Quite overwhelmed with love.

5 In such sweet posture let me lie,
And wet thy feet with tears,
Till joined with saints above the sky,
I tune my harp with theirs.

G. P. A. PALESTRINA. 1524 1594.

I. 'Twas in the night, when troubles came, I sought, my God, for thee;
But found no refuge in that name, That once supported me.

446 (1083)

- 1 'Twas in the night, when troubles came,
I sought, my God, for thee;
But found no refuge in that name,
That once supported me.
- 2 I sought thee, but I found thee not,
For all was dark within;
Thy tender mercy I forgot,
To me, when dead in sin.
- 3 I saw no day-star in the skies.
Wrapped in perpetual gloom,
I said, "When will that sun arise
That shall my soul illumine?"
- 4 With cords of his eternal love,
'Twas thus my soul he drew,
And taught my faithless heart to prove
His oath and promise true.
- 5 The path was rugged to my feet,
Yet still I followed thee;
Went often to my mercy seat,
With—"God, remember me."
- 6 At length my Sun's refulgent beam
Through the dark cloud appeared;
My night of woe was like a dream,
My soul was blessed and cheered.
- 2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue;
And, when the evening shades prevailed,
His love was all my song.
- 3 In vain the tempter spread his wiles,
The world no more could charm:
I lived upon my Saviour's smiles,
And leaned upon his arm.
- 4 In prayer my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.
- 5 Then to his saints I often spoke
Of what his love had done;
But now my heart is almost broke,
For all my joys are gone.
- 6 Now when the evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns;
And when the morn the light reveals,
No light to me returns.
- 7 My prayers are now a chattering noise,
For Jesus hides his face!
I read, the promise meets my eyes,
But will not reach my case.

447 (1085) C. M. Job 29: 2.

- 1 SWEET was the time when first I felt
The Saviour's pardoning blood
Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.

- 8 Now Satan threatens to prevail,
And make my soul his prey;
Yet, Lord, thy mercies cannot fail,
O, come without delay!

1. O Lord, how love - ly is thy name, How faith - ful is thy heart!

To - day and yes - ter - day the same, And al - ways kind thou art!

448 (1068).

- 1 O LORD, how lovely is thy name,
How faithful is thy heart!
To-day and yesterday the same,
And always kind thou art!
- 2 No change of mind the Saviour knows,
A true and constant friend!
Where once the Lord his love bestows,
He loves unto the end!
- 3 He well remembers we are flesh,
At best a bruised reed;
And fainting souls he will refresh,
And well supply their need.
- 4 No danger can thy soul await,
While resting on this rock;
The winds may blow, the waves may beat,
But he sustains the shock.
- 5 Dear Jesus, let me always rest
Within thy arms divine;
Thy daily care, to make me blest;
To love and call thee mine.

449 (1084) C. M.

- 1 I WAITED patient for the Lord,
Who bowed to hear my cry;
He made me rest upon his word;
He brought salvation nigh.
- 2 He raised me from a horrid pit,
Where mourning long I lay,
And from my bonds released my feet,
Deep bonds of miry clay.

- 3 Firm on a rock he made me stand,
And taught my cheerful tongue
To praise the wonders of his hand,
In a new thankful song.
- 4 I'll spread his works of grace abroad;
The saints with joy shall hear,
How I was brought to trust in God,
My only hope and fear.
- 5 How many are thy thoughts of love!
Thy mercies, Lord, how great!
We have not words nor hours enough
Their numbers to repeat.
- 6 When I'm afflicted, poor, and low,
And light and peace depart,
My God beholds my heavy wo,
And bears me on his heart.

Watts.

450 (1089) C. M.

- 1 WHEN from the precepts to the cross
The humble sinner turns,
His brightest deeds he counts but dross,
And o'er his vileness mourns.
- 2 God on the table of his heart
Inscribes his love and fear;
He loves the law in every part,
But takes no refuge there.
- 3 Thus gospel, law, and justice, too,
Unite to set him free;
Reflect, my soul, admire and view
What God hath done for thee.

GANGES. C. P. M.

S. CHANDLER.

1. Let Zi-on, in her songs, re-cord The hon-ors of her dy-ing Lord,
Tri-umph-ant o-ver sin: How sweet the song there's none can say,
But he whose sins are wash'd a-way, Who feels the same with-in.

451 (1065)

8. 8. 6.

1 LET Zion, in her songs, record
The honors of her dying Lord,
Triumphant over sin:
How sweet the song there's none can say,
But he whose sins are washed away,
Who feels the same within.

2 We claim no merit of our own,
But, self-condemned before thy throne,
Our hopes on Jesus place;
In heart, in lip, in life depraved,
Our theme shall be a sinner saved,
And praise redeeming grace.

3 We'll sing the same while life shall last
And when, at the Archangel's blast,
Our sleeping dust shall rise,
Then, in a song for ever new,
The glorious theme we'll still pursue,
Throughout the azure skies.

4 Prepared of old, at God's right hand,
Bright everlasting mansions stand,
For all the blood-bought rare:
And till we reach those seats of bliss,
We'll sing no other song but this—
A sinner saved by grace!

Kent.

452 (1265)

8. 8. 6.

1 WHEN thou, my righteous Judge, shalt
To take thy ransomed people home, [come
Shall I among them stand?
Shall such a worthless worm as I,
Who sometimes am afraid to die,
Be found at thy right hand?

2 I love to meet among them now,
Before thy gracious feet to bow,
Though vilest of them all:
But can I bear the piercing thought?
What if my name should be left out,
When thou for them shalt call!

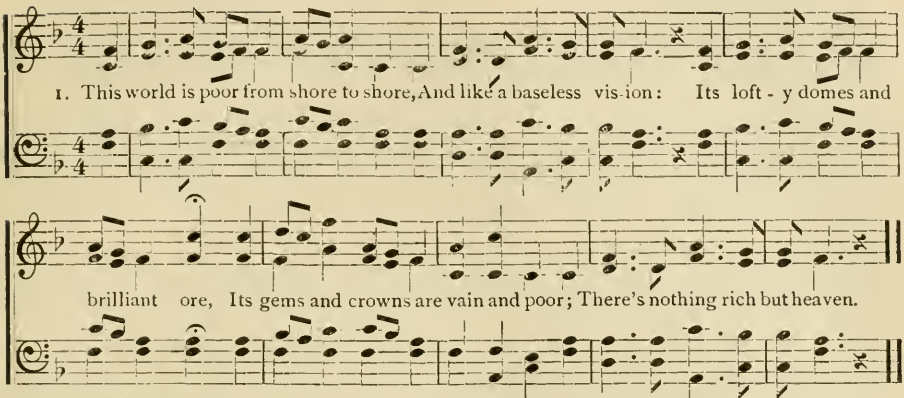

3 Prevent, prevent it by thy grace;
Be thou, dear Lord, my hiding-place,
In that most solemn day;
Thy pardoning voice, O let me hear,
And still my unbelieving fear;
Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Let me among thy saints be found
Whene'er th' Archangel's trump shall
To see thy smiling face: [sound,
Then loudest of the crowd I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With shouts of sovereign grace.

Lady Huntington.

THIS WORLD IS POOR. C. M. 51.

GRAMBLING. Arr. by H. P. MAIN.

1. This world is poor from shore to shore, And like a baseless vis-ion: Its loft-y domes and brilliant ore, Its gems and crowns are vain and poor; There's nothing rich but heaven.

453 (1093)

2 Empires decay, and nations die,
Bright hopes to winds are given;
The vernal flowers in ruin lie,
Death conquers all below the sky;
There's nothing lives but heaven.

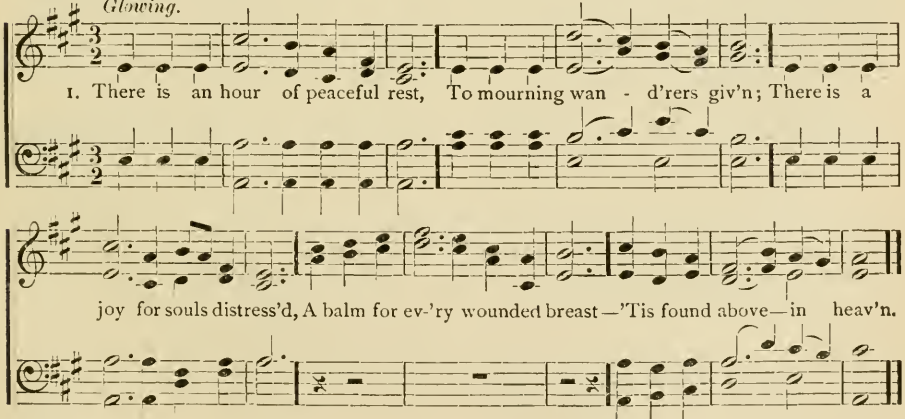

3 A pilgrim stranger here I roam;
From place to place I'm driven;

My friends are gone, and I'm in gloom,—
The earth is all a lonely tomb,—
I have no home but heaven.

4 The clouds disperse, the light appears,
My sins are all forgiven!
Triumphant grace has quelled my fears;
Roll on, thou Sun,—fly swift, my years,—
I'm on my way to heaven. Charles Giles.

Glowing.

1. There is an hour of peaceful rest, To mourning wan - d'ers giv'n; There is a joy for souls distress'd, A balm for ev-'ry wounded breast—'Tis found above—in heav'n.

454

2 There is a home for weary souls,
By sin and sorrow driven;
When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise and ocean rolls,
And all is dark—but heaven.

3 Where faith lifts up her cheerful eye
To brighter prospects given;

And views the tempest passing by,
And evening shadows quickly fly,
And all serene—in heaven.

4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given;
There joys divine, disperse the gloom;
Beyond the confines of the tomb
Appears the dawn of heaven. Tappan.

UXBRIDGE. L. M.

Dr. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

1. What jar-ring na-tures dwell with-in— Im-mor-tal life, re-main-ing sin!

Nor can this reign, nor that pre-vail, Though each by turns my heart as-sail.

455 (1077)

1 WHAT jarring natures dwell within—
Immortal life, remaining sin!
Nor can this reign, nor that prevail,
Though each by turns my heart assail.

2 Now I complain, and groan, and die;
Now raise my songs of triumph high;
Sing a rebellious passion slain,
Or mourn to feel it live again.

3 One happy hour beholds me rise,
Borne upward to my native skies,
While faith assists my soaring flight
To realms of joy and worlds of light.

4 Scarce a few hours or minutes roll,
Ere earth reclaims my captive soul;
I feel its sympathetic force,
And headlong urge my downward course.

5 How short the joys thy visits give!
How long thine absence, Lord, I grieve;
What clouds obscure my rising sun,
Or intercept its rays at noon!

6 Again the Spirit lifts his sword,
And power divine attends the word;
I feel the aid its comforts yield,
And vanquished passions quit the field.

7 Great God, assist me through the fight,
Make me triumphant in thy might;

Thou the desponding heart can raise;
The victory mine, be thine the praise.
Cruttenden.

456 (1080) L. M.

1 OH! that my soul, as heretofore,
Could with delight and love explore
Those sacred sweets, in Jesus' name,
That once my raptured soul o'ercame.

2 Once I beheld his lovely face,
As full of truth, and full of grace;
Ten thousand thousand suns were dim
In lustre, then, compared with him.

3 With his delights my soul was cheered,
With rapture then his voice I heard;
The words he spake were sweet to me,
'Twas—"Sinner, I have loved thee."

4 But now those golden hours are fled,
My spirit mourns, with sorrow fed;
His promise in his word I see,
But fear, alas! 'tis not for me.

5 Why should a child whom thou hast
In darkness walk, and find no rest; [blest,
Feel unbelief, that cruel foe,
From whence all other evils flow?

6 Oh, that my Sun, with cheering ray,
Would chase those shades of night away;
Then shall my soul arise and sing
The healing virtue of his wing. Sonnets.

457 (1087)

1 WHEN marshalled on the nightly plain,
 The glittering host illumeth the sky,
 One Star alone, of all the train,
 Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.
 Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks,
 From every host, from every gem;
 But one alone the Saviour speaks,—
 It is the Star of Bethlehem.

2 Once on the raging seas I rode,
 The storm was loud, the night was dark,
 The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed
 The wind that tossed my foundering
 Deep horror then my vitals froze, [bark
 Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem,
 When suddenly a star arose,
 It was the Star of Bethlehem.

3 It was my Guide, my Light, my All,
 It bade my dark forebodings cease;
 And through the storm and danger's thrall,
 It led me to the port of peace.
 Now safely moored, my perils o'er,
 I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
 For ever and for ever more,
 The Star, the Star of Bethlehem!

Henry Kirke White.

458 (1088) L. M.

1 WHY, mourning soul, why flow these tears?
 Why thus indulge thy doubts and fears?
 Look to thy Saviour on the tree;
 Who bore the load of guilt for thee.

2 Then cease thy sorrows, banish grief,
 Though thou of sinners art the chief;
 The wounds that make poor sinners grieve,
 Are healed when they in Christ believe.

3 Whom Jesus wounds, he wounds to
 Oh! 'tis a mercy thus to feel: [heal—
 There's none can mourn while dead in sin;
 Thine are the marks of life within.

4 Be of good cheer, on him rely,
 He'll pass the great transgressions by,
 And guide thee safely by his hand,
 Till thou shalt reach the heavenly land.
 Dobell.

459 (1097) L. M. Tit 2: 10-13.

1 So let our lips and lives express
 The holy gospel we profess,
 So let our works and virtues shine,
 To prove the doctrine all divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
 The honors of our Saviour-God;
 When the salvation reigns within,
 And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Our flesh and sense must be denied,
 Passion and envy, lust and pride;
 While justice, temperance, truth and love,
 Our inward piety approve.

4 Religion bears our spirits up,
 While we expect that blessed hope,
 The bright appearance of the Lord,
 And faith stands leaning on his word.

1. Hum - ble souls, who seek sal - va - tion Thro' the Lamb's re - deem - ing blood,
Hear the voice of rev - e - la - tion, Tread the path that Je - sus trod;

460 (1108)

Acts 2: 38; 22: 16.

- 1 HUMBLE souls, who seek salvation
Through the Lamb's redeeming blood,
Hear the voice of revelation,
Tread the path that Jesus trod;
- 2 Follow him, your only Saviour,
In his mighty name confide;
In the whole of your behavior,
Own him for your sovereign guide.
- 3 Hear the blessed Redeemer call you;
Listen to his gracious voice;
Dread no ills that can befall you,
While you make his ways your choice.
- 4 Jesus says, "Let each believer
Be baptized in my name;"
He himself, in Jordan's river,
Was immersed beneath the stream.
- 5 Plainly here his footsteps tracing,
Follow him without delay;
Gladly his command embracing;
Lo! your Captain leads the way.
- 6 View the rite with understanding,
Jesus' grave before you lies;
Be interred at his commanding:
After his example rise.

Fawcett.

461 (1150) Tune.—MARTYN, page 176.

7s.

- 1 CHRISTIANS, if your hearts be warm,
Ice and snow can do no harm;
If by Jesus you are prized,
Rise, believe, and be baptized.

- 2 Jesus drank the gall for you;
Bore the curse for sinners due;
Children, prove your love to him,
Never fear the frozen stream.

- 3 Never shun the Saviour's cross,
All on earth is worthless dross;
If the Saviour's love you feel,
Let the world behold your zeal.

Leland.

- 1 COME, all ye sons of grace, and view
Your bleeding Saviour's love to you,
Behold him sink with heavy woes,
And give him life to save his foes.
- 2 When you behold the sacred wave,
You see the emblem of his grave;
Come, all who would his laws obey,
And view the place where Jesus lay.
- 3 When you ascend above the flood,
Then call to mind the rising God;
Ye saints, lift up your joyful eyes,
Exulting see your Saviour rise.
- 4 Ye too are buried with your Lord,
Who in the water own his word,
And joyfully behold therein
An emblem of your death to sin.
- 5 Fresh from the stream and filled with
Far from the tents of sin remove; [love,
Nobly from strength to strength proceed,
And rise to every righteous deed. Godwin.

WINDHAM. L. M.

DANIEL READ, 1757-1836.

1. Great God, we in thy name ap - pear, With hum - ble joy and hum - ble fear,
Thy wise in - jun - c - tion to o - bey; Let saints and an - gels hail the day.

463 (1115) Matt. 11: 29.

1 GREAT God, we in thy name appear,
With humble joy and humble fear,
Thy wise injunction to obey;
Let saints and angels hail the day.

2 Great things, O everlasting Son,
Great things for us thy grace hath done;
Constrained by thy almighty love,
Our willing feet to meet thee move.

3 Here at the water side we stand,
Obedient to thy great command:
The liquid stream is full in view,
And thy sweet voice commands us through.

4 The Word, the Spirit, and the Bride,
Must not command and be denied;
Was not the Lord, who came to save,
Baptized in such a liquid grave?

5 Thus we, dear Saviour, own thy name;
Are buried with thee in the stream;
Then to thy table let us come,
And dwell in Zion as our home.

3 We're plunged beneath the mystic flood;
Oh, plunge us in thy cleansing blood;
We die to sin, and seek a grave
With thee beneath the yielding wave.

4 And as we rise with thee to live,
O let the Holy Spirit give
The sealing unction from above,
The breath of life, the fire of love!

Judson.

465 (1151) L. M.

1 JESUS, behold thy children here
Met in thy name, do thou draw near
Remember Jordan, dearest Lord,
And gracious influence now afford.

2 Thy footsteps, O incarnate God,
Direct us in this pleasant road;
Nor would we e'er forsake this way,
Whatever friends or foes may say.

3 Though we this watery grave descend,
We on thy death alone depend,
And while ascending up again,
Thy resurrection would proclaim.

4 Thus in a figure here we see
The gospel's glorious mystery;
Christ dead and buried, raised again,
And all to save rebellious men.

5 In memory of this blessed theme,
We thus react this solemn scene,
And so proclaim to dying man,
Our only hope in Christ the Lamb.

Fellows.

464 (1119) L. M.

1 COME, Holy Spirit, dove divine,
On these baptismal waters shine,
O teach our hearts, in highest strain,
To praise the Lamb for sinners slain.

2 We love thy name, we love thy laws,
We joyfully embrace thy cause;
We love thy cross, the shame, the pain,
O Lamb of God, for sinners slain!

BAPTISM. C. M.

WM. DOUGLAS 1824.

1. Thus was the great Re-deem-er plung'd In Jor-dan's swell ing flood,
To show he must be soon bap-tiz'd, In tears, and sweat, and blood.

466 (1118)

- 1 THUS was the great Redeemer plunged
In Jordan's swelling flood,
To show he must be soon baptized,
In tears, and sweat, and blood.
- 2 Thus was his sacred body laid
Beneath the yielding wave;
Thus was his sacred body raised
Out of the liquid grave.
- 3 Lord, we thy precepts would obey;
In thy own footsteps tread,
Would die, be buried, rise with thee,
Our ever-living Head.

Stennett.

467 (1120) C. M.

- 1 MEEKLY in Jordan's flowing stream
The great Redeemer bowed;
Bright was the glory's sacred beam,
That hushed the wondering crowd.
- 2 Thus God descended to approve
The deed that Christ had done;
Thus came the emblematic Dove,
And hovered o'er the Son.
- 3 So, blessed Spirit, come to-day
To our baptismal scene;
Ye thoughts of earth, be far away,
Ye bosoms, be serene.
- 4 This day we give to holy joy—
This day to heaven belongs;
Raised to new life, we will employ
In melody our tongues.

- 1 BURIED beneath the yielding wave
The great Redeemer lies;
Faith views him in the watery grave,
And thence beholds him rise.
- 2 With joy we in his footsteps tread,
And would his cause maintain;
Like him be numbered with the dead,
And with him rise and reign.
- 3 Now, blest Redeemer, we to thee
Our grateful voices raise;
Washed in the fountain of thy blood,
Our lives shall be thy praise.

469 (1127) C. M. Gen. 24: 56.

- 1 In all my Lord's appointed ways,
My journey I'll pursue;
Hinder me not, ye much-loved saints,
For I must go with you.
- 2 Through floods and flames, if Jesus lead,
I'll follow where he goes;
Hinder me not, shall be my cry,
Though earth and hell oppose.
- 3 Through duty and through trials, too,
I'll go at his command;
Hinder me not, for I am bound
To my Immanuel's land.
- 4 And when my Saviour calls me home,
Still this my cry shall be,
Hinder me not—come, welcome death,
I'll gladly go with thee.

2. O may we feel as once we felt, When pain'd and griev'd at heart,

Thy kind, for - giv - ing, melt - ing look, Re - liev'd our ev - 'ry smart.

470 (1130) Psal. 119: 32.

- 1 How great, how solemn is the work
Which we attend to-day!
Now for a holy, solemn frame,
O God, to thee we pray.
- 2 O may we feel as once we felt,
When pained and grieved at heart,
Thy kind, forgiving, melting look,
Relieved our every smart.
- 3 Let graces then in exercise
Be exercised again;
And, nurtured by celestial power,
In exercise remain.
- 4 Awake, our love, our fear, our hope,
Wake, fortitude and joy;
Vain world, begone; let things above
Our happy thoughts employ.
- 5 Whilst thee, our Saviour and our God,
To all around we own;
Drive each rebellious rival lust,
Each traitor, from the throne.
- 6 Instruct our minds, our wills subdue,
To heaven our passions raise,
That hence our lives, our all, may be Devoted to thy praise.

- 1 WHAT poor despised company
Of travelers are these,
That's walking yonder narrow way,
Along that rugged maze?
- 2 They all are of a royal line,
They're children of a King,
Heirs of immortal crowns divine,
And loud for joy they sing.
- 3 Why do they then appear so mean,
And why so much despised?
Because of their rich robes unseen
The world are not apprised.
- 4 Why some of them seem poor, distressed,
And lacking daily bread?
Heirs of immortal wealth possessed,
With hidden manna fed.
- 5 Why do they shun that pleasant path
Which worldlings love so well?
Because it is the road to death—
The certain way to hell.
- 6 Why do they walk the narrow road
To Salem's happy ground?
Christ is the only way to God;
No other can be found.

472 (1122)

- 1 Down to the sacred wave
The Lord of life was led;
And he who came, our souls to save,
In Jordan bowed his head.
- 2 He taught the solemn way;
He fix'd his holy rite;
He bade his ransomed ones obey,
And keep the path in sight.
- 3 The Holy Ghost came down
The baptism to approve;
The ordinance of Christ to crown,
And stamp it with his love.
- 4 Dear Saviour, we will tread
In thine appointed way;
Let glory o'er these scenes be shed,
And smile on us to-day.

- 1 COME, and behold the place,
Where once your Saviour lay;
Confess that he is Lord of all,
And humble homage pay.
- 2 Laid in the watery grave,
He quickly rose again;
Buried with him, we too shall rise,
And endless life obtain.
- 3 Now may the Spirit crown,
With tokens of his grace,

The solemn service of this day,
And bid us go in peace.

474 (1147) S. M.

- 1 Thou great incarnate God!
Behold thy children stand;
Warmed with the fire of love divine,
They bow to thy command.
- 2 When buried with the Lord,
May they his presence find,
Proving that pleasures from thy throne
Are with obedience joined.
- 3 When rising from the wave,
Lord, show thy lovely face;
May sacred joy from heaven descend,
And glory fill the place.
- 4 Then may these happy saints
In thy commandments run,
Till they shall reach the realms of bliss,
And mount Emmanuel's throne.
- 5 There may they sit and sing
The once baptized Lamb,
And make the courts of heaven resound
With his beloved name.
- 6 With what ecstatic joy
They'll tune the Saviour's praise!
While millions join the sacred theme,
And swell the heavenly lays.

1. Let all our tongues be one To praise our God on high,
Who from his bo - som sent his Son To fetch us strangers nigh.

475 (1164)

1 John. 5: 6.

- 1 LET all our tongues be one
To praise our God on high,
Who from his bosom sent his Son
To fetch us strangers nigh.
- 2 Nor let our voices cease
To sing the Saviour's name;
Jesus, th'ambassador of peace,
How cheerfully he came!
- 3 It cost him cries and tears
To bring us near to God;
Great was our debt, and he appears
To make the payment good.
- 4 My Saviour's pierced side
Poured out a double flood;
By water we are purified,
And pardoned through the blood.
- 5 Infinite was our guilt,
But he our Priest atones:
On the cold ground his life was spilt,
And offered with his groans.
- 6 Look up, my soul, to him
Whose death was thy desert,
And humbly view the living stream
Flow from his breaking heart.

Watts.

S. M. 1 Cor. 10: 16, 17.

- 1 JESUS commands his saints
To meet around his board;
Here pardoned rebels sit, and hold
Communion with their Lord.

- 2 For food he gives his flesh,
He bids us drink his blood;
Amazing favor! matchless grace
Of our descending God!
- 3 This holy bread and wine
Maintain our fainting breath,
By union with our living Lord,
And interest in his death.
- 4 Our heavenly Father calls
Christ and his members one;
We the young children of his love,
And he the first-born Son.
- 5 We are but several parts
Of the same broken bread;
One body with its several limbs,
But Jesus is the Head.
- 6 Let all our powers be joined
His glorious name to raise;
Pleasure and love fill every mind,
And every voice be praise.

And whisper in each humble ear,
"I love thee well, my child."

478 (1159)

1 Cor. 11: 23.

- 1 'Twas on that dark, that doleful night,
When powers of earth and hell arose
Against the Son of God's delight,
And friends betrayed him to his foes;
- 2 Before the mournful scene began,
He took the bread, and blest, and brake.
What love through all his actions ran!
What wondrous words of grace he spake!
- 3 "This is my body, broke for sin;
Receive and eat the living food;"
Then took the cup, and blessed the wine;
" 'Tis the new covenant in my blood."
- 4 "Do this (he cried) till time shall end,
In memory of your dying friend:
Meet at my table, and record
The love of your exalted Lord."

Watts.

- 4 Let sinful sweets be all forgot,
And earth grow less in our esteem;
Christ and his love fill every thought,
And faith and hope be fixed on him.
- 5 Our eyes look upward to the hills
Whence our returning Lord shall come;
We wait thy chariot's awful wheels,
To fetch our longing spirits home.

Watts

L. M. Gal. 6: 14.

- 1 WHEN I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ my Lord;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.
- 3 See from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet?
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
- 4 His dying crimson like a robe
Spreads o'er his body on the tree,
Then I am dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.
- 5 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

Watts.

481 (1157)

1 THE King of saints his table spreads
For children in his courts below;
And while with them he sits and feeds
Not one distressing thought they know.

2 His look enlivens every guest,
Makes budding grace in blossom rise,
Rekindles love in every breast,
And lifts the heart above the skies.

3 As morning suns refresh the earth,
And make the blossoms open fair,
And draw the balmy fragrance forth,
And scatter odors through the air;

4 So when the Sun of Righteousness
Ariseth on the plants of grace,
They spring up into beauteous dress,
And with their songs perfume the place.

O dearest, sweetest, heavenly friend,
The spring of life and heavenly joys,
Some look afford, or message send,
Or all devotion quickly dies.

We hope for heavenly crowns above
Through a Redeemer crucified.

3 Let the vain world pronounce it shame,
And fling their scandals on thy cause;
We come to boast our Saviour's name,
And make our triumphs in his cross.

4 With joy we tell the scoffing age
He that was dead has left his tomb,
He lives above their utmost rage,
And we are waiting till he come.

Watts.

1 Our spirits join t'adore the Lamb,
O that our feeble lips could move
In strains immortal as his name,
And melting as his dying love.

2 Was ever equal pity found?
The Prince of Heaven resigns his breath,
And pours his life out on the ground
To ransom guilty worms from death.

3 Rebels, we broke our Maker's laws;
He from the threatening set us free;
Bore the full vengeance on his cross,
And nailed the curses to the tree.

4 The law proclaims no terror now,
And Sinai's thunder roars no more;
From all his wounds new blessings flow
A sea of joy without a shore.

484 (1158)

1 FATHER of heaven, almighty King,
How wondrous is thy love,
That worms of dust thy praise should sing,
And thou their songs approve!

2 Since by a new and living way,
Access to thee is given,
Poor sinners may with boldness pray,
And earth converse with heaven.

3 Give each some token, Lord, for good;
And send the Spirit down
To feed us with celestial food,
The body of thy Son.

5 'Twas the same love that spread the feast,

Or we, without a saving taste,
Had perished in our sin.

1 JESUS, O name divinely sweet!
How charming is the sound!
What joyful news! what heavenly sense
In that dear name is found!

2 Our souls all guilty, and condemned,
In hopeless fetters lay;
Our souls, with numerous sins depraved
To death and hell a prey.

3 Jesus, to purge away this guilt,
A willing victim fell,
And on his cross triumphant broke
The bands of death and hell.

4 Our foes were mighty to destroy,
He mighty was to save;
He died, but could not long be held
A prisoner in the grave.

5 Jesus! who mighty art to save,
Still push thy conquests on;
Extend the triumphs of thy cross,
Where'er the sun has shone.

6 O Captain of salvation! make
Thy power and mercy known;
Till crowds of willing converts come
And worship at thy throne.

C. M. John 14: 17-22, 23.

1 How sweet and awful is the place
With Christ within the doors,
While everlasting love displays
The choicest of her stores!

2 Here every bowel of our God
With soft compassion rolls;
Here peace and pardon, through his blood,
Are food for dying souls.

3 While all our hearts and all our songs
Join to admire the feast,
Each of us cry with thankful tongues,
"Lord, why was I a guest?"

4 "Why was I made to hear thy voice,
And seek my heavenly home,
While thousands, left to their own choice,
Would rather starve than come?"

1. The cross of Christ in-spires my heart, To sing re-deem-ing grace;
A- wake, my soul, and bear a part In my Re-deem-er's praise!

487 (1174)

1 THE cross of Christ inspires my heart,
To sing redeeming grace;
Awake, my soul, and bear a part
In my Redeemer's praise!

2 Oh! who can be compared to him,
Who died upon the tree?
This is my dear delightful theme,
That Jesus died for me.

3 When at the table of the Lord
We humbly take our place,
The death of Jesus we record,
With love and thankfulness.

4 These emblems bring my Lord to view
Upon the bloody tree;
My soul believes and feels it true,
That Jesus died for me.

5 His body broken, nailed and torn,
And stained with streams of blood;
His spotless soul was left forlorn,
Forsaken of his God.

6 'Twas then his Father gave the stroke
That justice did decree;
All nature felt the dreadful shock,
When Jesus died for me.

7 My guilt was on my surety laid,
And therefore he must die;
His soul a sacrifice was made
For such a worm as I.

8 Was ever love so great as this?
Was ever grace so free?
This is my glory, joy and bliss,
That Jesus died for me.

Primitive.

488 (1171) C. M.

1 LORD, at thy table I behold
The wonders of thy grace;
But most of all admire that I
Should find a welcome place.

2 I that am all defiled with sin;
A rebel to my God;
I that have crucified his Son,
And trampled on his blood.

3 What strange surprising grace is this,
That such a soul has room!
My Saviour takes me by the hand,
My Jesus bids me come.

4 "Eat, O my friends," the Saviour cries,
"The feast was made for you:
For you I groaned, and bled, and died,
And rose and triumphed, too."

5 With trembling faith, and bleeding
Lord, we accept thy love: [hearts,
'Tis a rich banquet we have had,
What will it be above!

6 Ye saints below, and hosts of heaven,
Join all your praising powers;
No theme is like redeeming love,
No Saviour is like ours.

1 ONCE more we come before our God;
Once more his blessing ask;
O, may not duty seem a load,
Nor worship prove a task.

2 Father, thy quickening Spirit send
From heaven, in Jesus' name,
To make our waiting minds attend,
And put our souls in frame.

3 May we receive the word we hear,
Each in an honest heart;
Hoard up the precious treasure there,
And never with it part.

4 To seek thee all our hearts dispose;
To each thy blessings suit;
And let the seed thy servant sows
Produce a copious fruit.

5 Bid the refreshing north wind wake;
Say to the south wind, Blow;
Let every plant the power partake,
And all the garden grow.

2 O may he preach the word of God
With energy and power;
May gospel blessings spread around,
Like a refreshing shower.

3 May God's eternal love and grace
Be sweetly felt within;
While he is preaching Christ the Lord,
Who took our curse and sin.

4 May burdened sinners lose their load,
And downcast souls rejoice;
May doubting souls believe to-day
They are Jehovah's choice.

5 May Christ be first, and Christ be last,
And Christ be all in all,
Who died to make salvation known,
And raise us from the fall.

6 O may thy servant now, to-day,
Proclaim salvation free;

All power is thine, in earth and seas,
Now from the grave dead sinners raise.

2 Make bare thy arm, thy power make

Let grace sit regent on the throne;
To it be endless honors paid,
For man's not half, but wholly dead.

3 He's far from God, conceived in sin,

1 WHEN Zion's sons, great God, appear,
In Zion's courts, for praise and prayer,
Then, in thy Spirit, deign to be
As one with those who worship thee.

2 Till thou shalt o'er the waters move,
'Twill but a barren season prove;
Lifeless and cold will be the song,
The preacher dull, the service long.

3 Without thy sovereign power, O Lord,
No sweets the gospel can afford;
No drops of heavenly love will fall
To cheer the weary, thirsty soul.

4 Winds, from the north and south, awake,
Take of the things of Jesus, take;
Diffuse thy kind celestial dew,
Bring pardon, peace, and healing, too.

5 Confirm the weak and feeble knees,
Unfold the gospel promises;
Thy truth impress on every mind;
May every heart a blessing find!

6 Then shall we count the season dear,
To those who speak, or those who hear;
And all conspire with sweet accord,
In hymns of joy, to praise the Lord.

Glad to leave our cumbrous clay,

502 (1177) John 13: 13-16.

1 If thou, dear Jesus, art my Lord,
My Master, and my sovereign God,
If well we say, when this we claim,
Then teach us to revere thy name.

2 If thou our Lord and Master meet,
Didst wash thy dear disciples' feet,
May we thy bright example see,
And meekly learn to follow thee.

3 If Christ, our Master and our Lord,
Has given the pattern and the word,
Shall we refuse his charge to keep,
By washing the disciples' feet?

503 (1178) L. M.

1 COME, brethren, ye who love the Lord,
And walk according to his word;
Let true humility abound,
And in his footsteps too be found.

2 When your dear Lord was here below,
He bowed to let his people know
How they should bow his saints to greet,
By washing one another's feet.

3 As in our Lord and Master, we
A meek, but clear example see;
We ought to follow, as 'tis meet,
And also wash each other's feet.

4 No servants should aspire to be
Above what in their Lord they see;
Enough, if we like him may greet,
And stoop and wash each other's feet.

5 If stronger brethren can't accord
In this, a precept of our Lord,
We'll not contend, but kindly greet;
Give us our herbs, give them their meat.

6 While to the letter we conform,
Regardless of contempt and scorn,
May we in spirit also meet,
And watch and cleanse each other's feet.

7 As through this wilderness we roam,
And onward march towards heaven our
Let not the filth of sin or earth [home,
Defile our feet, or shame our birth.

8 Our feet with gospel grace well shod,
Dressed in the armor of our God,
In all our walk let us be seen
With hearts, and hands, and feet, all clean.

1 GIVE me thy Spirit, O my God,
Then I can well all trials meet,
Deny myself, and all my pride,
And wash thy weakest servant's feet.

2 Give me thy Spirit, O my God,
Then shall I in thy footsteps trace,
And show to all who read thy word,
That I'm indeed renewed by grace.

3 Give me thy Spirit, O my God,
Then through my few remaining days
I'll yield obedience to thy word,
And as I go, I'll sing thy praise.

- 1 JESUS, by heavenly hosts adored,
The church's glorious Head,
With humble joy I call thee Lord,
And in thy footsteps tread.
- 2 Emptied of all thy greatness here,
While in the body seen,
Thou wouldst the least of all appear,
And minister to men.
- 3 A servant to thy servants thou,
In thy debased estate;
How meekly did thy goodness bow
To wash thy followers' feet.
- 4 I come, O God, to do thy will,
With Jesus in my view;
A servant to thy servants still,
My pattern I pursue.
- 5 The loving labor I repeat,
Obedient to his word,
And wash his dear disciples' feet,
And wait upon the Lord.
- 6 Shall I, a worm, refuse to stoop?
My fellow worm disdain?
I give my vain distinctions up,
Since Christ did wait on man.

If I have washed your feet
Ye also ought to watch and pray,
And wash each other's feet?
- 3 In imitation of my Lord,
Who blood for me did sweat,
I yield unto his sacred word,
And wash the pilgrim's feet.
- 4 Yea, blessed Jesus, I like them,
Would Christians often meet;
The least of all the flock would be,
And wash his children's feet?

Thy love, thy matchless love, I sing;
Descending from thy lofty seat,
I see thee wash thy servant's feet.

The God in mortal flesh arrayed,
And an example set for me—
Set, Christian, by thy Lord, for thee.

"I have you an example set,
That you should wash each other's feet."

508 (1203)

Psa. 52: 1.

I GREAT God! before thy throne
We joyfully appear,
In songs to make thy glories known,
And thus begin the year.

2 What favors all divine!
What mercies shall we share!
What blessings all around us shine
To open this new year!

3 Indulgent goodness spares
And still preserves us here,
And bounty all divine prepares
Supplies for this new year.

4 Our follies past forgive;
Our souls divinely cheer:
And help us more on thee to live,
Dear Lord, in this new year.

5 Prepare us for thy will,
Whatever may appear;
And let thy loving-kindness still
Preserve us through the year.

6 Confirm our souls in thee,
In faith and holy fear;
And let a precious Jesus be
Our song through all the year.

2 We lay our garments by,
Upon our beds to rest;
So death will soon disrobe us all
Of what we here possess.

3 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears;
Thy angel guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.

4 And when we early rise,
And view th' unwearied sun,
May we press on to reach the prize,
And after glory run.

5 And when our days are past,
And we from time remove,
O may we in thy bosom rest,
The bosom of thy love.

1 A FEW more days on earth to spend,
And all my toils and cares shall end,
And I shall see my God and friend,
And praise his name on high:
No more to sigh or shed a tear,
No more to suffer pain or fear,
But God, and Christ, and heaven appear
Unto the raptured eye.

2 Then, O my soul, despond no more,
The storm of life will soon be o'er,
And I shall find the peaceful shore
Of everlasting rest.
O happy day! O joyful hour!
When freed from earth my soul shall tower,
Beyond the reach of Satan's power,
To be for ever blessed.

3 My soul anticipates the day;
I'll joyfully the call obey
Which comes to summon me away
To seats prepared above:
There I shall see my Saviour's face,
And dwell in his beloved embrace,
And taste the fulness of his grace,
And sing redeeming love.

4 Adieu, ye scenes of noise and show,
And all this region here below,
Where naught but disappointments grow;
A better world's in view.
My Saviour calls, I haste away;
I would not here for ever stay;
Hail! ye bright realms of endless day;
Vain world, once more, adieu.

And days how swift they are!
Swift as an Indian arrow flies,
Or like a shooting star.

2 The present moments just appear,
Then glide away in haste,
That we can never say, "They're here,"
But only say, "They're past."

3 Our life is ever on the wing,
And death is ever nigh:
The moment when our lives begin,
We all begin to die.

4 Yet, mighty God, our fleeting days
Thy lasting favors share;
Yet with the bounties of thy grace
Thou load'st the rolling year.

5 'Tis sovereign mercy finds us food,
And we are clothed with love;
While grace sustains us in the road
That leads our souls above.

All glory to the Lord:
His mercy never knows a bound,
And be his name adored!

Are short and wretched, too;
"Evil and few," the patriarch says,
And well the patriarch knew.

2 'Tis but at best a narrow bound
That heaven allows to men;
And pains and sins run through the round
Of three score years and ten.

3 Well, if ye must be sad and few,
Run on, my days, in haste;
Moments of sin, and months of wo,
Ye cannot fly too fast.

3 Let me thy power and truth proclaim

And leave a savor of thy name

I. Teach me the measure of my days, Thou Maker of my frame!

515 (1214)

1 TEACH me the measure of my days,
Thou Maker of my frame!

I would survey life's narrow space,
And learn how frail I am.

2 A span is all that we can boast,
An inch or two of time;
Man is but vanity and dust
In all his flower and prime.

3 See the vain race of mortals move
Like shadows o'er the plain,
They rage and strive, desire and love,
But all their noise is vain.

4 Some walk in honor's gaudy show,
Some dig for golden ore,
They toil for heirs, they know not who,
And straight are seen no more.

5 What should I wish or wait for then,
From creatures, earth and dust?
They make our expectations vain,
And disappoint our trust.

6 Now I forbid my carnal hope,
My fond desires recall:
I give my mortal interest up,
And make my God my all.

Who yet to suppliant dust art nigh;
Thy presence I implore.

2 O guide me down the steep of age,
And keep my passions cool;
Teach me to scan the sacred page,
And practise every rule.

3 My flying years time urges on
What's human must decay;
My friends, my young companions gone,
Can I expect to stay?

4 Can I exemption plead when death
Projects his awful dart?
Can medicines then prolong my breath,
Or virtue shield my heart?

5 Ah! no—then smooth the mortal hour,
On thee my hope depends;
Support me with almighty power,
While dust to dust descends.

6 Then shall my soul, O Gracious God,
(While angels join the lay,
Admitted to the blest abode,
Its endless anthems pay,—

Watts.

2 The pains, the groans, and dying strife,
Fright our approaching souls away:
Still we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.

3 O, if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul should stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she past.

4 Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there.

Watts.

2 Born by a new celestial birth,
Why should we grovel here on earth?
Why grasp at transitory toys,
So near to heaven's eternal joys?

3 Shall aught beguile us on the road,
While we are walking back to God?
For strangers into life we come,
And dying is but going home.

4 Welcome, sweet hour of full discharge,
That sets our longing souls at large,
Unbinds our chains, breaks up our cell,
And gives us with our God to dwell.

And the sweet expectation now
Is the young dawn of heaven below.

- 2 Asleep in Jesus! O, how sweet,
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing,
That death has lost his cruel sting.
- 3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no wo shall dim that hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.

4 Asleep in Jesus! O, for me
May such a blissful refuge be;
Securely shall my ashes lie,

5 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee

- 1 No, I'll repine at death no more,
But with a cheerful gasp resign
To the cold dungeon of the grave
These dying, withering limbs of mine.
- 2 Break, sacred morning, through the skies,
Bring that delightful, dreadful day;
Cut short the hours, dear Lord, and come,
Thy lingering wheels, how long they stay!
- 3 Our weary spirits faint to see
The light of thy returning face,
And hear the language of those lips
Where God has shed his richest grace.
- 4 Haste, then, upon the wings of love,
Rouse the redeemed, sleeping clay,
That we may join in heavenly joys,
And sing the triumph of the day. Watts.

- 1 In hope of life eternal given,
Behold, a pardoned sinner dies;
A chosen blood-bought heir of heaven,
Called to his mansion in the skies.
- 2 He trod the shades of gloomy death,
Could set his zeal that God was true;
Finished his course, and kept the faith,
And died with glory full in view.
- 3 Methinks I see him now at rest,
In the bright mansion love ordained;
His head reclines on Jesus' breast,
No more by sin or sorrow pained.

- 4 Why should our eyes with sorrow flow,
Our bosoms heave the painful sigh!
When Jesus calls, the saint must go,
'Tis his eternal gain to die.
- 5 'Twas through the strength of Israel's
King
He proved a conqueror when he fell;
'Tis to the praise of grace we sing,
Though of the dying saint we tell.
- 6 Fearless he entered death's cold flood,
In peace of conscience closed his eyes:
His only trust was Jesus' blood,
In sure and certain hope to rise.

So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, shivering, on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O! could we make our doubts remove,

Sweet to experience, day by day,
His Spirit's quickening breath.
- 6 Sweet in his faithfulness to rest,
Whose love can never end;
Sweet on his covenant of grace
For all things to depend.
- 7 Sweet in the confidence of faith
To trust his firm decrees;
Sweet to lie passive in his hands,
And know no will but his.

- 8 If such the sweetness of the streams,
What must the fountain be?
Where saints and angels draw their bliss
Immediately from thee!

- 1 O HAPPY soul, who safely past,
Thy weary warfare here;
Arrived at Jesus' feet at last,
And ended all thy care!
- 2 No more shall sickness break thy rest,
Or pain create thee smart;
No more shall doubts disturb thy breast,
Or sin afflict thine heart.
- 3 No more the world on thee shall frown,
No longer Satan roar—
Thy man of sin is broken down,
And shall torment no more.
- 4 "Adieu, vain world," the spirit cries,
"All tears are wiped away;
My Jesus fills my cup with joys,
And fills it every day."
- 5 "A taste of love we have below,
To cheer a pilgrim's face;
But every saint must die to know
The feast of heav'nly grace."
- 6 "Delightful concord always reigns
In the fair realms above!
There hymns are sung in rapt'rous strains,
With ceaseless joy and love!"

1. And must this bod - y die? This mor - tal frame de - cay?

And must these act - ive limbs of mine Lie mould'ring in the clay?

533 (1232)

- 1 And must this body die?
This mortal frame decay?
And must these active limbs of mine
Lie mouldering in the clay?
- 2 God, my Redeemer, lives,
And always, from the skies,
Looks down and watches all my dust,
Till he shall bid it rise.
- 3 Arrayed in glorious grace
Shall these vile bodies shine;
And every shape, and every face,
Look heavenly and divine.
- 4 These lively hopes we owe,
To Jesus' dying love;
We would adore his grace below,
And sing his power above.
- 5 Dear Lord, accept the praise
Of these our humble songs,
Till tunes of nobler sound we raise
With our immortal tongues.

- 3 Do thou my sins subdue;
Thy sovereign love make known;
The spirit of my mind renew,
And save me in thy Son.
- 4 Let me attest thy power,
Let me thy goodness prove,
Till my full soul can hold no more
Of everlasting love.

- 1 It is not death to die—
To leave this weary road,
And, 'midst the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.
- 2 It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake in glorious repose,
To spend eternal years.
- 3 It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free
From dungeon chain, to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.
- 4 It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise, on strong, exulting wing,
To live among the just.
- 5 Jesus, thou Prince of Life!
Thy chosen cannot die;
Like thee, they conquer in the strife
To reign with thee on high. G. W. Bethune.

- 1 THE spirits of the just,
Confined in bodies, groan,
Till death consigns the corpse to dust,
And then the conflict's done
2 Jesus, who came to save,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Perfumed the chambers of the grave,
And made e'en death our gain.
3 Why fear we then to trust
The place where Jesus lay?

- In quiet rests our brother's dust,
And thus it seems to say:
4 "Forbear, my friends, to weep,
Since death has lost his sting;
Those Christians that in Jesus sleep,
Our God will with him bring."

- 1 SONS of God, by blest adoption,
View the dead with fearless eyes;
What is sown thus in corruption,
Shall in incorruption rise;
What is sown in death's dishonor,
Shall revive to glory's light;
What is sown in this weak manner,
Shall be raised in matchless might.
- 2 Jesus, thy rich consolations
To thy mourning people send!
May we all, with faith and patience,
Wait for our approaching end:
Keep from courage vain or vaunted,
For our change our hearts prepare:
Give us confidence undaunted,
Cheerful hope and godly fear.

2 Did not the Lord, our Saviour, die,
And triumph o'er the grave?
Did not our Lord ascend on high,
And prove his power to save?

3 Doth not the sacred Spirit come,
And dwell in all the saints?
And should the temples of his grace
Resound with loud complaints?

4 Awake, my soul, and like the sun
Burst through each sable cloud;
And thou, my voice, tho' broke with sighs,
Tune forth thy songs aloud.

5 The Spirit raised my Saviour up,
When he had bled for you;
And, spite of death and hell, shall raise
The friends of Jesus, too.

6 Awake, ye saints that dwell in dust,
Your hymns of victory sing;
And let his dying servants trust

1 My soul, this curious house of clay,
Thy present frail abode,
Must quickly fall to worms a prey,
And thou return to God.

2 Canst thou, by faith, survey with joy
The change before it come?
And say, Let death this house destroy,
I have a heavenly home!

3 The Saviour whom I then shall see
With new-admiring eyes,
Already has prepared for me
A mansion in the skies.

4 I feel this earth-walled cottage shake,
And long to see it fall;
That I my willing flight may take
To him who is my all.

5 Burdened and groaning then no more,
My rescued soul shall sing,
As up the shining path I soar,
"Death, thou hast lost thy sting."

1 THERE is a land mine eye hath seen
In visions of enraptured thought;
So bright that all which spreads between
Is with its radiant glory fraught.

2 A land upon whose blissful shore
There rests no shadow, falls no stain;
There those who meet shall part no more,
And those long parted meet again.

3 Its skies are not like earthly skies,
With varying hues of shade and light;
It hath no need of suns to rise,
To dissipate the gloom of night.

4 There sweeps no desolating wind
Across that calm, serene abode:

Within the paradise of God.

1 WITH transport, Lord, our souls proclaim
Th' immortal honors of thy name;
Although ascended to thy throne,
Thou still art present with thine own.

2 High on his Father's royal seat,
Our Jesus shone divinely great;
Ere Adam's clay with life was warmed,
Or Gabriel's nobler spirit formed.

3 Through all succeeding ages, he
The same hath been—the same shall be;
Immortal radiance gilds his head,
While stars and suns wax old, and fade.

4 The same his power his flock to guard;
The same his bounty to reward:
The same his faithfulness and love,
To saints on earth and saints above.

5 Let nature change, and sink, and die;
Jesus shall raise his chosen high;
And fix them near his heavenly throne,
In glory changeless as his own.

1 WITH what delight faith lifts her eyes,
To view the courts where Jesus dwells;
Jesus, who reigns above the skies,
And here below his grace reveals.

2 Of God's own house the sacred key
Is borne by his majestic hand;
Mansions and treasures there I see
Subjected all to his command.

3 He shuts, and worlds might strive in vain
The mighty obstacle to move;
He looses all their bars again,
And who shall shut the gates of love!

4 Fixed in omnipotence, he bears
The glories of his Father's name;
Sustains his people's weighty cares,
'Through every changing age the same.

But e'er maintain their bloom.
- 3 I there will, also, raise a note
Of praise to Christ my King,
Which I shall with my warbling throat
Through endless ages sing.
- 4 There darksome clouds are never seen
To veil the happy mind;
But all is light, and all serene,
And God profusely kind.
- 5 Not plagued, and vexed with sin and

And give him lasting praise.
- 2 'Tis there the weary are at rest,
And all is peace within;
The mind, with guilt no more oppressed,
Is tranquil and serene.
- 3 Discord and strife are banished thence,
Distrust and slavish fear;
No more we hear the pensive sigh,
Or see the falling tear.

2 Sweet majesty and awful love
Sit smiling on his brow,
And all the glorious ranks above
At humble distance bow.

3 Princes to his imperial name

Dominions, thrones, and powers rejoice
To see him wear the crown.

4 Those soft, those blessed feet of his,

3 He gave me a Surety, a covenant Head,
To live in my name, and to die in my stead;
He gave me a righteousness wholly divine,

4 He gave a Preceptor infallibly wise,
And treasures of grace to be sent in supplies;
Yea, all that I ask for, my Father hath given

Gen. 5: 24.

- 2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus, and his word?
- 3 What peaceful hours I then enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But now I find an aching void
The world can never fill.
- 4 Return, O holy Dove! return,
Sweet messenger of rest!
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.
- 5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.
- 6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Cowper.

- 1 O, for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free!
A heart that's sprinkled with the blood
So freely shed for me.
- 2 O, for a heart submissive, meek,
My Great Redeemer's throne,
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone!

- 3 O, for an humble, contrite heart;
Believing, true and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within.
- 4 Thy temper, gracious Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above;
O write thy name upon my heart;
Thy name, O God, is love.

C. M. Job 23: 3, 4.

- 1 O THAT I knew the secret place
Where I might find my God!
I'd spread my wants before his face,
And pour my woes abroad.
- 2 I'd tell him how my sins arise,
What sorrows I sustain;
How grace decays, and comfort dies,
And leaves my heart in pain.
- 3 He knows what arguments I'd take
To wrestle with my God;
I'd plead for his own mercy's sake,
And for my Saviour's blood.
- 4 My God will pity my complaints,
And heal my broken bones:
He takes the meaning of his saints,
The language of their groans.
- 5 Arise, my soul, from deep distress,
And banish every fear;
He calls thee to his throne of grace,
To spread thy sorrows there.

Watts.

563

- 1 I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.
- 2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear,
And all his promises to plead
Where none but God can hear.
- 3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.
- 4 I love by faith to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempest driven.

May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day.

And talk of thee by day;
Thy love my treasure and delight,
Thy truth my strength and stay.
- 2 The day is dark, the night is long,
Unblest with thoughts of thee,

And dull to me the sweetest song,
Unless its theme thou be.

Lord, let thy presence be,
Mine air, my breath, my shade, my light,
Myself absorbed in thee.

- 1 OUR sins, alas, how strong they be!
And like a raging sea
They break our duty, Lord, to thee,
And hurry us away.
- 2 The waves of trouble how they rise!
How loud the tempests roar!
But death shall land our weary souls
Safe on the heavenly shore.
- 3 There to fulfil his sweet commands
Our speedy feet shall move,
Nor sin shall clog our winged zeal
Or cool our burning love.
- 4 There shall we sit, and sing, and tell
The wonders of his grace,
And heavenly raptures fire our hearts,
And smile in every face.
- 5 For ever his dear sacred name
Shall dwell upon our tongue
And Jesus and salvation be
The theme of every song.

Prayer the sublimest strains that reach

Which bade my sins depart!
That filled my soul with heavenly joys,
And healed my broken heart!

1 Thus far my God hath led me on,
And made his truth and mercy known;
My hopes and fears alternate rise,
And comforts mingle with my sighs.

2 Through this wide wilderness I roam,
Far distant from my blissful home;
Lord, let thy presence be my stay,
And guard me in this dangerous way.

3 Temptations everywhere annoy,
And sins and snares my peace destroy:
My earthly joys are from me torn,
And oft an absent God I mourn.

4 My soul, with various tempests tossed,
Her hopes o'turned, her projects crossed,
Sees every day new straits attend,
And wonders where the scene will end.

5 Is this, dear Lord, that thorny road
Which leads us to the mount of God?
Are these the toils thy people know,
While in the wilderness below?

6 'Tis even so; thy faithful love
Doth all thy children's graces prove;
'Tis thus our pride and self must fall,
That Jesus may be All in all.

L. M. Matt. 6: 28-30.

1 BEHOLD the lilies, how they grow!
They toil not, neither do they spin;

Yet Solomon could never show
Such raiment as God clothes them in.

2 And you, poor souls, who weep and mourn

Because your works cannot supply
That spotless robe that must be worn
By all who dwell with God on high;

3 Blessed are you if you strive in vain,
And all your works no comfort yield;
For when you cease to toil and spin,
You are as lilies of the field.

4 And he who richly clothes the flower,
Which passes almost as a breath,
Will show his richer grace and power,
In you, O ye of little faith.

5 Infinite wisdom, power and love
Prepared the robe that you shall wear;
And in the realms of bliss above
'Twill shine forever bright and fair.

6 As sun and dew afflictions come,
Making the heavenly lilies grow;
And bringing forth a lovelier bloom
Than all the fields of earth can show.

7 Through trials thus prepared to wear
The robe of righteousness, they prove
Their heavenly Father's tender care,
And reach the fullness of his love.

Matt. 5: 2-12.

1 BLEST are the humble souls that see
 Their emptiness and poverty;
 Treasures of grace to them are given,
 And crowns of joy laid up in heaven.

2 Blest are the men of broken heart,
 Who mourn for sin with inward smart;
 The blood of Christ divinely flows,
 A healing balm for all their woes.

3 Blest are the meek, who stand afar
 From rage and passion, noise and war;
 God will secure their happy state,
 And plead their cause against the great.

4 Blest are the souls that thirst for grace,
 Hunger and long for righteousness,
 They shall be well supplied and fed
 With living streams and living bread.

5 Blest are the men whose bowels move
 And melt with sympathy and love;
 From Christ the Lord shall they obtain
 Like sympathy and love again.

6 Blest are the pure, whose hearts are clean
 From the defiling power of sin,
 With endless pleasure they shall see
 A God of spotless purity.

7 Blest are the men of peaceful life,
 Who quench the coals of growing strife,
 They shall be called the heirs of bliss,

2 He lives to bless me with his love,
 He lives to plead for me above;
 He lives my hungry soul to feed,
 He lives to help in time of need.

3 He lives to grant me fresh supply,
 He lives to guide me with his eye;
 He lives to comfort me when faint,
 He lives to hear my soul's complaint.

4 He lives to silence all my fears,
 He lives to stoop and wipe my tears;
 He lives to calm my troubled heart,
 He lives all blessings to impart.

5 He lives, my kind, wise, heavenly Friend,
 He lives and loves me to the end;

1 FROM every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,—
A place of all on earth most sweet;
It is the gracious mercy-seat.

3 There is a place where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 Ah! whither could I flee for aid
When tempted, desolate, dismayed?
Or how the hosts of hell defeat,
Had suffering saints no mercy-seat?

5 There, there, on eagle's wings to soar,
And sin and sense molest no more;
And heaven comes down our souls to
And glory crowns the mercy-seat. [greet,
Stowell.

3 Oh, how benevolent and kind!
How mild! how ready to forgive!
Be this the temper of our mind,
And these the rules by which we live.

4 To do his heavenly Father's will
Was his employment and delight;
Humility and holy zeal
Shone through his life divinely bright!

5 Dispensing good where'er he came,
The labors of his life were love:
Oh, if we love the Saviour's name,
Let his divine example move!

L. M. Luke 15: 32.

1 THE mighty God will not despise
The contrite heart for sacrifice;
The deep-fetched sigh, the secret groan,
Rises accepted to the throne.

2 He meets, with tokens of his grace,
The trembling lip, the blushing face;
His bowels yearn when sinners pray;
And mercy bears their sins away.

3 When filled with grief, o'erwhelmed with shame,
He, pitying, heals their broken frame;
He hears their sad complaints, and spies
His image in their weeping eyes.

Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.
Nearer home, nearer home,
A day's march nearer home.

2 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near,
At times, to faith's aspiring eye,
The golden gates appear!
Ah, then my spirit faints

To reach the land I love;
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above.
Home above, home above,
Jerusalem above.

3 Yet doubts still intervene,
And all my comfort flies;
Like Noah's dove I flit between
Rough seas and stormy skies.
Anon the clouds depart,
The winds and waters cease;
While sweetly o'er my gladdened heart
Expands the bow of peace.
Bow of peace, bow of peace,
Expands the bow of peace.

1 I LOVE thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of thine abode;
The church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood.
I love thy church, O God,
Her walls before thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thy hand.

2 For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend,
To her my cares and toils be given
Till cares and toils shall end.
Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways;
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

3 Jesus, thou friend divine,
Our Saviour and our King,
Thy hand, from every snare and foe,

Shall great deliverance bring.
Sure as thy truth shall last,
To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,
And brighter bliss of heaven.

1 O WHERE shall rest be found,
Rest for the weary soul?
'Twere vain the ocean's depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.

2 The world can never give,
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears,
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years,
And all that life is love.

 When shall I be delivered
 From this vain world of sin,
 And with my blessed Jesus,

 His promises are faithful,
 A crown of life he'll give,
 And all his valiant soldiers
 Eternally shall live.

 To conquer though I die,
 And then away to Jesus
 On wings of love I'll fly:
 Farewell to sin and sorrow,
 I bid you both adieu;

- 1 O CHRIST, he is the Fountain,
 The deep, sweet well of love!
 The streams on earth I've tasted,
 More deep I'll drink above:
 There to an ocean fulness
 His mercy doth expand,
 And glory, glory dwelleth
 In my Immanuel's land.
- 2 O I am my Beloved's,
 And my Beloved's mine!
 He brings a poor, vile sinner
 Into his "house of wine!"
 I stand upon his merit,
 I know no other stand,
 Not e'en where glory dwelleth
 In my Immanuel's land.
- 3 The bride eyes not her garment,
 But her dear Bridegroom's face;
 I will not gaze at glory,
 But on my King of grace;
 Not at the crown he giveth,
 But on his pierced hand;
 The Lamb is all the glory

Luke 29: 10.

- 2 The worst of all diseases
 Is light compared with sin;
 On every part it seizes,
 But rages most within:
 'Tis palsy, plague, and fever,
 And madness, all combined;
 And none, but a believer,
 The least relief can find.
- 3 From men, great skill professing,
 I sought a cure to gain;
 But this proved more distressing,
 And added to my pain:
 Some said that nothing ailed me,
 Some gave me up for lost;
 Thus every refuge failed me,
 And all my hopes were crossed.

- 4 At length this great Physician,
 How matchless is his grace,
 Accepted my petition,
 And undertook my case:
 First, gave me sight to view him—
 For sin my eyes had sealed—
 Then bade me look unto him:
 I looked and I was healed
- 5 A dying, risen Jesus,
 Seen by the eye of faith,
 At once from danger frees us,
 And saves the soul from death:
 Come then to this Physician,
 His help he'll freely give;
 He makes no hard condition,
 To Jesus—look and live!

1 LORD, I believe; thy power I own,
 Thy truth I would obey:
 I wander comfortless and lone,
 When from thy paths I stray.
 Lord, I believe: but gloomy fears
 Sometimes bedim my sight:
 I look to thee with prayers and tears,
 And cry for strength and light.

2 Lord, I believe a rest remains
 To all thy people known;
 A rest where pure enjoyment reigns,
 And thou art loved alone.
 A rest where all our soul's desire

 Where fear, and sin, and grief expire,
 Cast out by perfect love.

3 O that I now the rest might know,
 Believe, and enter in:
 Now Saviour, now the power bestow,
 And let me cease from sin;
 Remove this hardness from my heart;
 This unbelief remove;
 To me the rest of faith impart,—
 The Sabbath of thy love.

While wailing winds and dreary rains
 To me all joys deny.

 Like the cold earth, benumbed with grief,
 Under the pelting storm.

3 I try to look to God, but sin
 Forbids to lift my eyes;
 My cries and prayers are all in vain,
 Guilt will not let them rise.

4 O weary winter of the soul,
 How sad and full of gloom!
 The heavy hours, how slow they roll,
 While griefs my heart consume.

5 And must I thus fore'er remain?
 Will the sun shine no more?
 May I not hope that yet again
 His beams will warmth restore?

6 Turn my captivity, O Lord!
 Once more to thee I call;
 And let thy sweet forgiving word
 Make summer in my soul.

7 Then shall the streams of joyful praise,
 Loosed by thy gracious hand,
 To thy blessed name flow all my days,
 In my heart's southern land.

Wreford.

1 'Tis winter in my soul; my sins
 Like clouds o'erspread the sky;

SPRING. C. M.

L. C. EVERETT.

1. While win ter's gloom was still o'er-spread, And on my spir - it lay,
The voice of my Be - lov - ed said, Rise up and come a - way.

By permission.

613

1 WHILE winter's gloom was still o'er-
And on my spirit lay, [spread,
The voice of my Beloved said,
Rise up and come away.

2 For lo, the winter's past, the rain
Is over now and gone;
The flowers appear, and songs again
Of praises are begun.

3 The power and sweetness of that voice
Wrought wondrous change in me;
Made my poor, drooping heart rejoice,
And fears and sorrows flee.

4 In sweet amazement I came forth;
What wonders met my eyes!
Spring's glorious beauty on the earth,
Her radiance in the skies.

5 Grace fills the garden of the Lord
With blooming joys from heaven;
The warm south wind is in that word
Which shows my sins forgiven.

6 'Tis this makes winter clouds depart,
And gives me brighter days;
The sweet spring time is in my heart,
And I am filled with praise.

7 What heavenly rest from cold and pain
In these soft airs that come

With blessed thoughts of Jesus' name,
And breathing rich perfume.

8 Thanks that the weary days are o'er;
Thanks for spring's gentle sway;
Thanks for the love that says with power,
Rise up and come away.

Silas H. Durand.

1 JESUS, the very thought of thee,
With sweetness fills my breast:
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.

2 No voice can sing, no heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than Jesus' name,
To those of heavenly mind.

3 O Hope of every contrite heart!
O Joy of all the meek!
To those who ask, how kind thou art!
How good, to those who seek!

4 But what to those who find? Ah! this,
No tongue nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but his loved ones know.

HOW CALM AND BEAUTIFUL. 8s, 6s &amp; 8s.

THOS. HASTINGS.

1. How calm and beautiful the morn That gilds the sacred tomb, Where once the Crucifi'd was borne, And veil'd in midnight gloom! O weep no more the Saviour slain; The Lord is ris'n, He lives a gain.

615

- 1 How calm and beautiful the morn,
That gilds the sacred tomb,
Where once the Crucified was borne,
And veiled in midnight gloom!
O weep no more the Saviour slain;
The Lord is risen—He lives again.
- 2 Ye mourning saints, dry every tear
For your departed Lord;
“Behold the place—He is not here,”
The tomb is all unbarred;
The gates of death were closed in vain;
The Lord is risen—He lives again.
- 3 Now cheerful to the house of prayer,
Your early footsteps bend,
The Saviour will himself be there,
Your Advocate and Friend:
Once by the law your hopes were slain,
But now in Christ ye live again.
- 4 How tranquil now the rising day!
Tis Jesus still appears,
A risen Lord, to chase away
Your unbelieving fears;
O weep no more your comforts slain;
The Lord is risen—He lives again.
- 5 And when the shades of evening fall,
When life's last hour draws nigh,
If Jesus shines upon the soul,
How blissful then to die!
Since he has risen who once was slain,
Ye die in Christ to live again.

- 1 LET others boast their ancient line
In long succession great;
In the proud list, let heroes shine,
And monarchs swell the state;
Descended from the King of kings,
Each saint a nobler title sings.
- 2 Pronounce me, gracious God! thy son,
Own me an heir divine;
I'll pity princes on the throne,
When I can call thee mine:
Sceptres and crowns unenvied rise,
And lose their lustre in mine eyes.
- 3 Content, obscure, I pass my days,
To all I meet unknown;
And wait till thou thy child shalt raise,
And seat me near thy throne:
No name, no honors here I crave,
Well pleased with those beyond the grave.
- 4 Jesus, my elder brother, lives;
With him I too shall reign;
Nor sin, nor death, while he survives,
Shall make the promise vain:
In him my title stands secure,
And shall while endless years endure.
- 5 When he, in robes divinely bright,
Shall once again appear,
Thou too, my soul, shalt shine in light,
And his full image bear:
Enough!—I wait th' appointed day;
Blessed Saviour, haste, and come away.

1. O God of love, how in - fi-nite and ho-ly, How great in wisdom and in pow'r thou art!

And yet dost make thy dwelling with the lowly, And him who is of meek and con-trite heart,

And him who is of meek and contrite heart.

617

- 2 Under the shadow of thy wing reposing,
I feel that all is best which comes to me;
I see thy circling arms my way enclosing,
And feel that e'en my life is hid with thee.
- 3 Thy grace divine, thy holy consolations,
Thy gift of faith with its mysterious power,
Thy love, that heavenward wings my aspirations,
Hallow the silence of the midnight hour.
- 4 In songs of gratitude my heart would render
Unto thy holy name the praises due,
For pardon, peace, and countless mercies tender, [new.
For old things passed away, and all things
- 5 Each secret breathing of sincere devotion
Reaches thy pitying, ever-listening ear,
And thy great love, exhaustless as the ocean,
Fills and encircles all thy children here.

lonely, [and song;
Thou art my light and hope, my strength
I find no rest but in thy favor only,
To whom the issues of my life belong.

- 1 My God, my Keeper, thou dost never slumber,
But looking on me from thy throne above,
Dost hear my sighings, all my heart-throbs number,
And watch me ever with thine eye of love.
- 2 Oft-times, in sad, unquiet thoughts I lan-
guish, [care,
Oppressed with sin and sorrow, strife and
Bowed down in spirit with a bitter anguish,
And fearful even to cry out in prayer.
- 3 But then if to thy throne of mercy turning,
I look to thee from life's o'er-darken'd ways
Thou givest me the oil of joy for mourning,
And for my heaviness the voice of praise.
- 4 The silent, shadowy hours move onward
slowly,
But a sweet sense of joy abides with me;
One thought alone makes the night watches holy, [thee!
The blessed thought that I am still with
- 5 And morning cometh! soon these watch-
ings ended,
Soon all these earthly nights and vigils o'er,
On the freed soul shall break the radiance splendid
Of perfect day upon the sinless shore.
- 6 Oh, there shall be no more of restless
sighing,
No more of sorrow and of blighting care;
For in that glorious home of bliss undying,
No shadow falleth and no night is there.

1 Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When he spake, and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of peace was born;
Songs of praise arose when he
Captive led captivity.

Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,

Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

1 CAST thy burden on the Lord;
Lean thou only on his word:
Ever will he be thy stay,
Though the heavens shall melt away.

2 Ever in the raging storm,
Thou shalt see his cheering form,
Hear his pledge of coming aid:
"It is I; be not afraid."

3 Cast thy burden at his feet;
Linger near his mercy-seat:
He will lead thee by the hand
Gently to the better land.

4 He will gird thee by his power,
In thy weary, fainting hour;
Lean, then, loving on his word;
Cast thy burden on the Lord.

1 My Father! cheering name!
Oh, may I call thee mine!
Give me with humble hope to claim
A portion so divine.

2 This can my fears control,
And bid my sorrows fly;
What real harm can reach my soul
Beneath my Father's eye?

3 Whate'er thy will denies,
I calmly would resign;

For thou art just, and good, and wise:
Oh, bend my will to thine!

4 Whate'er thy will ordains,
Oh, give me strength to bear;
Still let me know a Father reigns,
And trust a Father's care.

5 Thy ways are little known
To my weak, erring sight;
Yet shall my soul, believing, own
That all thy ways are right.

If God is mine then present things . . .	288	Jesus, the spring of joys divine . . .	121
If I must sing, I'll sing of grace . . .	173	Jesus, the very thought of thee . . .	614
If thou, dear Jesus, art my Lord . . .	502	Jesus, thou great exalted King . . .	507
If to Jesus for relief . . .	200	Jesus, thy blood and righteousness . . .	92
I know that my Redeemer lives . . .	578	Jesus, thy boundless love to me . . .	250
I love the Lord, he heard my cries . . .	397	Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding . . .	269
I love the sons of grace . . .	246	Joy is a fruit that will not grow . . .	274
I love the windows of thy grace . . .	408	Joy to the world, the Lord is come . . .	52
I love thy kingdom, Lord . . .	586	KEEP silence, all created things . . .	8
I love to steal awhile away . . .	563	Kind are the words that Jesus speaks . . .	287
I'm in a world of hopes and fears . . .	189	Kindred in Christ, for his dear sake . . .	354
I'm not ashamed to own my Lord . . .	279	LAMB of God, we fall before thee . . .	243
In all my Lord's appointed ways . . .	469	Let all our tongues be one . . .	475
In all my troubles and distress . . .	399	Let me but hear my Saviour say . . .	282
In all the acts of sovereign grace . . .	165	Let me, thou sovereign Lord of all . . .	294
Indulgent God, to thee I raise . . .	164	Let others boast how strong they be . . .	30
In heaven my choicest treasure lies . . .	327	Let others boast their ancient line . . .	616
In hope of life eternal given . . .	519	Let the little children come . . .	599
In my sorrow I cried unto God with my . . .	569	Let those who inhabit the Rock . . .	322
In seasons of grief to my God I'll repair . . .	605	Let thy kingdom, blessed Saviour . . .	342
In Sharon's lovely rose . . .	122	Let us love, and sing, and wonder . . .	153
In songs of sublime adoration and praise . . .	180	Let worldly minds the world pursue . . .	203
In thee, O Lord, I trust . . .	377	Let Zion and her sons rejoice . . .	346
Into thine hand, O God of truth . . .	398	Let Zion in her songs record . . .	451
In union with the Lamb . . .	68	Light of those whose dreary dwelling . . .	107
In vain the sealed cave . . .	147	Lo! what a glorious sight appears . . .	56
Is there ambition in my heart . . .	259	Lo! what an entertaining sight . . .	231
I think of thee, my God, by night . . .	564	Lord, at thy table I behold . . .	488
I thirst, but not as once I did . . .	401	Lord, didst thou die, but not for me . . .	284
It is not death to die . . .	535	Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing . . .	500
It shall be well, let Zion know . . .	320	Lord, fill thy servant's heart to-day . . .	490
I waited patient for the Lord . . .	449	Lord, forever at thy side . . .	326
I would but cannot sing . . .	423	Lord, help us on thy word to feed . . .	498
I would not live away . . .	571	Lord, how many are my foes . . .	317
I will praise thee every day . . .	383	Lord, I am thine, but thou wilt prove . . .	404
Jehovah is our shepherd's name . . .	117	Lord, I believe; thy power I own . . .	611
Jerusalem, my happy home . . .	601	Lord, I cannot let thee go . . .	363
Jesus, and shall it ever be . . .	283	Lord, let me see thy beauteous face . . .	370
Jesus, at thy command . . .	432	Lord, unto whom should sinners go . . .	576
Jesus, before thy face I fall . . .	251	Lord, we adore thy vast designs . . .	27

Jesus, merciful and mild . . .	597
Jesus, my all, to heaven is gone . . .	125

	HYMN.		HYMN.
My dearest friends in bonds of love . . . . .	335	O land of rest for thee I sigh . . . . .	333
My Father, cheering name . . . . .	627	O Lord, how lovely is thy name . . . . .	448
My gracious Redeemer I love . . . . .	230	O Lord, how vile am I . . . . .	256
My God, in whom are all the springs . . . . .	25	O Lord, I would delight in thee . . . . .	226
My God, my Father, blissful name . . . . .	267	O Lord, my best desires fulfill . . . . .	261
My God, my keeper, thou dost never . . . . .	618	O Lord, our heavenly King . . . . .	20
My God, my portion, and my love . . . . .	411	O Love Divine, how sweet thou art . . . . .	242
My God, the spring of all my joys . . . . .	406	O my distrustful heart . . . . .	79
My God, what endless pleasures dwell . . . . .	348	O my soul, what means this sadness . . . . .	225
My God, what silken cords are thine . . . . .	184	Once more we come before our God . . . . .	489
My never-ceasing song shall show . . . . .	13	One there is above all others . . . . .	619
My Saviour, let me hear thy voice . . . . .	88	One thing with all my soul's desire . . . . .	373
My Shepherd will supply my need . . . . .	115	On Jordan's stormy banks I stand . . . . .	548
My soul, come meditate the day . . . . .	530	On Zion, his most holy mount . . . . .	32
My soul lies cleaving to the dust . . . . .	419	On the mountain's top appearing . . . . .	224
My soul, repeat his praise . . . . .	19	On Zion's glorious summit stood . . . . .	433
My soul, take courage from the Lord . . . . .	360	On Zion's sacred mount I saw . . . . .	91
My soul, this curious house of clay . . . . .	541	O that the Lord would guide my ways . . . . .	443
My soul, with joy attend . . . . .	22	O the delights, the heavenly joys . . . . .	557
My spirit looks to God alone . . . . .	285	O the power of love divine . . . . .	620
My time of sorrow and of joy . . . . .	263	O thou in whose presence my soul takes . . . . .	393
		Our days, alas, our mortal days . . . . .	513
NEARER, my God, to thee . . . . .	609	Our God, how firm his promise stands . . . . .	209
No, I'll repine at death no more . . . . .	521	Our Jesus is the Christian's hope . . . . .	215
No more, my God, I boast no more . . . . .	281	Our Lord is risen from the dead . . . . .	156
Nor eye hath seen, nor ear hath heard . . . . .	134	Our sins, alas! how strong they be . . . . .	565
Not unto us, but thee alone . . . . .	497	Our spirits join to adore the Lamb . . . . .	483
Now be my heart inspired to sing . . . . .	144	Out of the depths of woe . . . . .	437
Now, dearest Lord, to praise thy name . . . . .	110	O what a sad and doleful night . . . . .	142
Now for a theme of thankful praise . . . . .	149	O when shall I see Jesus . . . . .	588
Now let our cheerful eyes survey . . . . .	133	O where shall rest be found . . . . .	587
Now let our souls on wings sublime . . . . .	518	O Zion afflicted with wave upon wave . . . . .	94
Now let the Lord, my Saviour, smile . . . . .	403
Now let us raise our cheerful strains . . . . .	157	PEACE by his cross hath Jesus made . . . . .	99
Now, Lord, inspire the preacher's heart . . . . .	375	Pensive, doubting, fearful heart . . . . .	300
Now, Lord, thy saving power display . . . . .	493	People of the living God . . . . .	441
Now may the Lord reveal his face . . . . .	168	Permit me, Lord, to seek thy face . . . . .	234
Now to the power of God supreme . . . . .	162	Pilgrims we are, and heavenward bound . . . . .	413
Now to thy praise, Eternal King . . . . .	418	Plunged in a gulf of dark despair . . . . .	100
		Poor, weak, and worthless though I am . . . . .	95
O BLESS the Lord, my soul . . . . .	18	Praise God from whom all blessings flow . . . . .	495
O Christ, he is the Fountain . . . . .	589	Prayer is the saints sincere desire . . . . .	566
O come, let us sing to the Lord . . . . .	140	Prepare a thankful song . . . . .	388
O could I speak the matchless worth . . . . .	395	Prepare me, gracious God . . . . .	534
Of all the gifts thine hand bestows . . . . .	192
Of God's great love ere time began . . . . .	77	QUIET, Lord, my froward heart . . . . .	127
O for a closer walk with God . . . . .	560
O for a glance of heavenly day . . . . .	415	RAISE your triumphant song . . . . .	39
O for a heart to praise my God . . . . .	561	Regard, great God, my mournful prayer . . . . .	361
O for a heart to seek my God . . . . .	295	Rejoice, believer, in the Lord . . . . .	63
O for a thousand tongues to sing . . . . .	390	Rejoice, the Lord is King . . . . .	137
O God, my sun, thy blissful rays . . . . .	222	Rejoice, the Saviour reigns . . . . .	138
O God of love, how infinite and holy . . . . .	617	Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings . . . . .	594
O God of mercy hear my call . . . . .	211	Rock of Ages, cleft for me . . . . .	126
O happy day when saints shall meet . . . . .	336
O happy souls who safely passed . . . . .	532	SAINTS, at your heavenly Father's word . . . . .	297
O happy time long waited for . . . . .	621	Salvation! O melodious sound . . . . .	166
Oh, could I find some peaceful bower . . . . .	255	Salvation! O the joyful sound . . . . .	160
O how happy are they . . . . .	278	Salvation! what a glorious plan . . . . .	167
O how melodious was that voice . . . . .	567	Saviour, visit thy plantation . . . . .	380
Oh, that I knew the secret place . . . . .	562	See a poor sinner, gracious Lord . . . . .	254
Oh, that my soul as heretofore . . . . .	456	Servant of God, well done . . . . .	595

	HYMN.		HYMN
Shepherds, rejoice! lift up your eyes . . .	50	Thou great incarnate God . . . . .	474
Show pity, Lord, O Lord, forgive . . .	206	Thou lovely source of true delight . . .	237
Sin enslaved me many years . . . . .	201	Thou only Sovereign of my heart . . .	434
Sing to the Lord, ye distant lands . . .	53	Through all the downward tracks of time	266
So let our lips and lives express . . . .	459	Through all the various shifting scenes .	24
Sometimes a light surprises . . . . .	275	Thus far my God hath led me on . . .	572
Songs of praise the angels sang . . . .	625	Thus far the Lord hath led me on . . .	574
Sons of God by blessed adoption . . . .	539	Thus was the great Redeemer plunged .	466
Sons we are through God's election . . .	82	Thy mercy, Lord, we praise . . . . .	387
Sovereign Ruler of the skies . . . . .	83	Thy mercy, my God, is the theme of my	49
Sprinkled with reconciling blood . . . .	362	Thy names, how infinite they be . . .	11
Stand up, my soul, shake off thy fears .	323	Thy way, O God, is in the sea . . . . .	410
Submission to thy will, my God . . . .	265	Thy ways, O Lord, with wise design . .	23
Sweet is the memory of thy grace . . . .	12	Time is winging us away . . . . .	593
Sweet is the work, my God, my King .	331	Time, what an empty vapor 'tis . . . .	512
Sweet was the time when first I felt . .	447	'Tis a point I long to know . . . . .	430
		'Tis by the faith of joys to come . . . .	193
TEACH me the measure of my days . . .	515	'Tis finished! so the Saviour cried . . .	98

The Saviour! O what endless charms . .	114	What wisdom, majesty and grace . . . .	129
The sinner that truly believes . . . . .	198	What wondrous love is this . . . . .	664
The sinner who, by precious faith . . . .	558	When darkness long has veiled my mind	301
The Spirit breathes upon the word . . . .	135	When from the precepts to the cross . .	450
The spirits of the just . . . . .	537	When gathering clouds around I view .	603
The table now is spread . . . . .	477	When God from sin's captivity . . . . .	435
The true Messiah now appears . . . . .	57	When God proclaims his name . . . . .	623
This world is poor, from shore to shore .	453	When God revealed his precious name . .	262
This God is the God we adore . . . . .	499	When I can read my title clear . . . . .	409
Thou dear Redeemer, dying Lamb . . . .	102	When in the clouds with colors fair . .	87
Thou fountain of bliss, thy smile I entreat	197	When I survey the wondrous cross . . . .	480

	HYMN.		HYMN.
When Jesus, with his matchless love . . .	227	Why should a son, redeemed with blood . . .	428
When languor and disease invade . . .	531	Why should our mourning thoughts . . .	540
When marshalled on the nightly plain . . .	457	Why should the children of a King . . .	182
When overwhelmed with doubts and fears . . .	119	Why should the saints be filled with dread . . .	61
When overwhelmed with grief . . . . .	378	Why should we shrink at death's cold . . .	527
When saint to saint, in days of old . . .	349	Why should we start and fear to die . . .	517
When shall all my sorrows end . . . . .	442	Why sinks my weak, desponding mind . . .	223
When shall we all meet again . . . . .	338	With Christ in God our life is hid . . .	324
When sins and fears prevailing rise . . .	120	With earnest longings of the mind . . .	260
When storms and tempests loudly howl . . .	292	With eyes of faith and wings of love . . .	239
When the Queen of the south heard of . . .	570	With joy let each afflicted saint . . . . .	291
When the storm in its fury on Galilee . . .	607	With joy we meditate the grace . . . . .	130
When thou, my righteous Judge shall . . .	452	With melting heart and weeping eyes . . .	207
When Zion's sons, great God, appear . . .	494	With transport, Lord, thy saints proclaim . . .	546
Where must a weary sinner go . . . . .	332	With what delight faith lifts her eyes . . .	547
Wherewith, O Lord, shall I draw near . . .	163
While in the vale of vision dead . . . . .	42	Ye humble souls, approach your God . . .	9
While shepherds watched their flocks by . . .	58	Ye humble souls, complain no more . . .	253
While sorrows encompass me round . . .	536	Ye humble souls, rejoice . . . . .	257
While winter's gloom was o'er me spread . . .	613	Ye little flock, whom Jesus feeds . . . . .	175
Whilst thee I seek, protecting Power . . .	374	Ye pilgrims of Zion and chosen of God . . .	591
Whither goest thou, pilgrim stranger . . .	583	Yes, I shall soon be landed . . . . .	543
Who is this trembling sinner? who . . . . .	303	Ye trembling souls, dismiss your fears . . .	320
Who shall the Lord's elect condemn . . .	73	Yonder amazing sight I see . . . . .	143
Why do we mourn departing friends . . .	525	Your harps, ye trembling saints . . . . .	314
Why is my heart so far from thee . . . . .	417
Why, mourning souls, why flow these . . .	458	ZION's a city God hath blessed . . . . .	354
Why, O my soul, why weepest thou . . .	213
