A single line of musical notation from a manuscript. The staff consists of five horizontal lines. The notation includes various note values, some with stems and flags, and rests. The notes are written in a dark ink, and the staff lines are also in dark ink. The notation is a single line, likely representing a vocal or instrumental part.

ias ob tibi Alle luia In die resur rectionis

A single line of musical notation on a five-line staff. The notation consists of various symbols, including diamond-shaped notes, vertical stems, and some letters like 'f' and 'b'. The symbols are arranged in a sequence across the staff.

FINIS SECVNDÆ PARTIS.
