ANDANTE PIÙ TOSTO ALLEGRETTO.

The musical score is arranged for Organ. It consists of three systems of staves. The first system has three staves: Piano right hand (top), Piano left hand (middle), and Violin (bottom). The second system has three staves: Violin (top), Piano right hand (middle), and Piano left hand (bottom). The third system has three staves: Piano right hand (top), Piano left hand (middle), and a third staff (bottom). The tempo is marked 'Andante.' and the movement is 'Andante più tosto Allegretto.' The key signature is one sharp (F#). The time signature is 4/4. Dynamics include p, fp, pp, sf, and pp. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, slurs, and accidentals.

1244 Viol.

First system of musical notation. The Violin part (top staff) begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. It features a series of eighth-note patterns with dynamic markings p, sf, pp, sf, and pp. The Organ part (bottom two staves) uses a grand staff with treble and bass clefs, playing a similar eighth-note pattern. A bracket labeled "(8 ft.)" spans the first few measures of the Organ part. The system concludes with a dolce. marking and a bracket labeled "16 and 8 ft." for the Organ part.

Second system of musical notation. The Violin part continues with eighth-note patterns. The Organ part features a more complex texture with sustained notes and moving lines in both the treble and bass staves.

Third system of musical notation. The Violin part continues with eighth-note patterns. The Organ part features a more complex texture with sustained notes and moving lines in both the treble and bass staves.

Fourth system of musical notation. The Violin part continues with eighth-note patterns. The Organ part features a more complex texture with sustained notes and moving lines in both the treble and bass staves. The system concludes with cres: and dim: markings.

HANDEL.

The musical score is arranged in four systems, each with three staves. The first system is for the vocalists, labeled 'Voci.' at the beginning. The second system is for the violins, labeled 'Viol.' at the beginning and 'Viole.' further along. The third system is for the organ, labeled 'Tutti.' at the beginning. The fourth system continues the organ part. The music is in G major (one sharp) and common time (C). The organ part features a prominent left-hand bass line and a right-hand treble line with various chords and melodic fragments. The vocal and violin parts provide harmonic support and melodic lines.

1250

This musical score is an organ arrangement by W. T. Best, No. 95. It consists of four systems, each with three staves. The top staff of each system is in treble clef, and the bottom two are in bass clef. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and slurs. The first system has a treble staff with complex chordal textures and a bass staff with a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The second system continues the melodic and harmonic themes. The third system features a more active bass line with sixteenth-note patterns. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence, marked by a double bar line and repeat signs.

1252 FROM THE ANTHEM
"O COME LET US SING."

CHORUS. — "Tell it out among the heathen?"

The musical score is arranged in five systems, each consisting of three staves. The first two staves of each system are joined by a brace on the left, indicating they are part of a single melodic or harmonic unit. The third staff is separate. The music is written in G major, indicated by one sharp (F#) on the treble clef. The time signature is 4/4. The notation includes various musical symbols such as treble and bass clefs, key signatures, time signatures, notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'p' and 'f'. The score is a transcription of a piece by W. T. Best, No. 95.

This musical score is arranged for three parts: Organ, Violin (Viol.), and Viola (Viola). The Organ part is written on a grand staff with treble and bass clefs, featuring a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The Violin and Viola parts are written on single staves with treble clefs. The score consists of four systems of music. The first system shows the Organ playing a complex melody with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, while the Violin and Viola provide harmonic support with longer notes. The second system continues this texture, with dynamic markings like 'f' (forte) appearing. The third system introduces a more active Violin part with a 'Viol.' marking. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence, marked by a double bar line and repeat signs. The Organ part features a variety of articulations, including slurs and ties, and the overall texture is dense and melodic.

THE ORGAN WORKS OF J. S. BACH.

EDITED BY J. F. BRIDGE, MUS. DOC., OXON., AND JAMES HIGGS, MUS. BAC., OXON.

In this, the first complete English Edition of John Sebastian Bach's Organ Works (the Chorale Preludes excepted), the distribution of the parts between the hands is, in all doubtful cases, clearly indicated by the notes that are to be performed by the right hand being printed on the upper of the two manual staves, while the notes that are to be played by the left hand will be found on the lower of the two manual staves. As far as possible care has been taken not needlessly to divide a middle part between the two hands when it can be conveniently performed by one hand continuously. The text has been carefully collated with former Editions, but generally where it differs from Griesenkerl's reading (Peters) it will be found to agree with the more recent Edition of the German Bach Society. Much thought has been given to secure convenient points for turning over, a matter of considerable importance to the performer. (See the "Great" G minor and the "St. Ann's" Fugues.) Suggestions as to the rate of performance and general treatment are given without encumbering the page with too detailed directions, and it is hoped the work in its complete form will be found a boon to the earnest Organ student.

Book I.—EIGHT SHORT PRELUDES AND FUGUES s. d. 2 6

The eight short Preludes and Fugues in the first book are of inestimable value as an introduction to Bach's greater Organ works. Occasional marks of phrasing are added. The changes of keyboard or registers are very simple, and are only made in places where the structure of the composition allows and justifies the treatment. The work is laid out for a three-manual Organ, but the several compositions may generally be performed on an instrument of two manuals.

Book II.—PRELUDES, FUGUES, AND TRIO s. d. 3 0

The second book is more advanced in point of difficulty than the first, and will be found of conspicuous interest. It includes the well known "Giant" in D minor, the shorter Prelude and Fugue in E minor (a great favourite with Mendelssohn), and an exceedingly effective Prelude and Fugue in C minor, in addition to other less-known but important works. It is a specialty of this edition that a convenient and effective mode of performance is everywhere indicated.

Book III.—PRELUDES, FUGUES, AND FANTASIA s. d. 3 0

The third book contains compositions of greater difficulty, it is therefore more fully fingered and marked for the pedals. It is believed Organ Students will derive the greatest possible assistance by having their attention directed from the outset to a convenient method of dealing with each difficulty as it arises. The present book includes the Fugue in B minor, on a subject from Corelli, a beautiful Prelude and Fugue in A major (most useful for obtaining command of the higher part of the Pedal-board), a Prelude and Fugue in C major, a Fantasia and Fugue in C minor, and the well-known short G minor Fugue.

Book IV.—SONATAS FOR TWO MANUALS AND PEDAL s. d. 3 0

The fourth book contains the first three of the six celebrated Sonatas or Trios for two manuals and pedal. Spitta says: "These Sonatas were intended by J. S. Bach to complete the education of his eldest son, Wilhelm Friedemann, as an organist." They are invaluable as studies and very beautiful as music. In the present edition they are for the first time fingered and marked for the Pedals.

Book V.—SONATAS FOR TWO MANUALS AND PEDAL s. d. 3 0

The fifth book contains the last three of the six Sonatas. Those in E minor, C major, and G major. They are of exceeding value to the Student of Organ Playing. The mastery of them assuring him of that thorough independence of hands and feet so indispensable to the fully accomplished organist. As in the former book, proper fingering and pedalling is everywhere indicated. The Preface contains a detailed analysis of each movement.

Book VI.—PRELUDES AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The sixth book includes several of Bach's greatest and most popular Organ Works. (1) The Toccata in D minor, with its contrasting effects of recitative-like passages and massive harmonies. (2) The well known Prelude and Fugue in D major, which Spitta describes as "one of the most dazzlingly beautiful of all the master's Organ Works. . . . Skilful pedal-players will find it exactly suited to them, for the theme is quite exceptionally fitted for pedal technique." (3) The Prelude and Fugue in F minor, less known perhaps than the other contents of the book, but scarcely less beautiful, or less worthy of the student's attention. (4) The great Prelude in E flat major, together with the Fugue in three sections, known as the St. Ann's. The whole are laid out with especial regard to the convenience of the player

Book VII.—PRELUDES AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The seventh book contains several of Bach's most masterly works. The great A minor Prelude and Fugue, the lovely B minor Prelude and Fugue, and the majestic C minor Prelude and Fugue are included together with two that are less well known—a Prelude and Fugue in C major, a brilliant work, and the Prelude and Fugue in G major (Prelude in 3-2 time). This work has perhaps suffered in popularity from the fact of its having hitherto been set out in a somewhat crowded manner, a defect that has been remedied in the present edition.

Book VIII.—PRELUDES AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The eighth book contains five of Bach's masterpieces—viz., Prelude and Fugue, C major (four movements); Prelude and Fugue, E minor, sometimes known as the "Wedge" Fugue, from the form of the subject. The G major Prelude and Fugue, a brilliant work; Prelude and Fugue, G minor, perhaps the least known of the five works, but a worthy companion of the others, and the great Fantasia and Fugue in G minor, a work of world-wide reputation.

Book IX.—TOCCATAS, PRELUDES, AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The ninth book includes the great Toccata in C major, with the unique intermediate Adagio. The Prelude and Fugue in D minor (the Fugue adapted and arranged for the Organ by Bach from the solo Violin Sonata in G minor). Prelude and Fugue in C major (Prelude in 9-8 time), one of the original "Six Grand Preludes and Fugues," and truly a grand work. The three-section Fantasia in G major; and the gigantic Toccata and Fugue in F major.

Book X.—TOCCATA, PRELUDES, AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The tenth book contains (1) The great Toccata and Fugue in D minor (Dorico); (2) A little known Prelude and Fugue in A minor, which, although not taking rank among Bach's greatest works, is yet of much interest (vide Preface); (3) Passacaglia and Fugue in C minor, universally regarded as one of the Master's best works, and eminently fitted to display the resources and grandeur of the Organ; (4) The Fugue in C minor on a theme by Legrenzi, with its brilliant and Fantasia-like Coda; (5) A detached Prelude in A minor, which only requires to be better known to command wider appreciation than it has hitherto obtained.

Book XI.—FOUR CONCERTOS s. d. 3 0

The eleventh book contains Four Concertos, which are arrangements of works originally written as Violin Concertos by Vivaldi. No. 1 is in G major; No. 2 in A minor; No. 3 in C major; No. 4 in C major. The Preface contains a biographical note of Vivaldi, and a short analysis of the Concertos contained in the Number.

Book XII.—PRELUDES, FANTASIAS, FUGUES, TRIO, &c. s. d. 3 0

This concluding book contains some of the less known of Bach's Organ Works, but in general attractiveness may compare not unfavourably with either of the previous books, its interest being of a very diversified character. It includes more than a dozen pieces:—a brilliant Fugue in G major, 12-8, of great interest and effect; Fantasia and Fugue in A minor, a very attractive work; Fantasia with imitation, B minor, sometimes included among the clavier works, but essentially organ music; Fantasia in G major, an interesting and important work. There are also several smaller compositions (some for manual alone), as Fugues in D, G, C, and C minor, two Preludes and a Fantasia in C, a Trio, Aria, and the Pastorale in F, with other pieces associated with it after the manner of a Suite.

Detailed description: This musical score page contains measures 1272 through 1279. It is written for guitar (Gt.) and piano (p), with a flute part (Ch. Flute 8) in the first system. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The score is divided into systems. The first system (measures 1272-1273) features a guitar melody with a piano (p) dynamic and a piano accompaniment with a pianissimo (pp) dynamic. The second system (measures 1274-1275) includes a 'FOURTH COUPLET' section with a forte (f) dynamic and a decrescendo (dim.) marking. The third system (measures 1276-1277) continues the guitar melody with a forte (f) dynamic and a decrescendo (dim.) marking. The fourth system (measures 1278-1279) shows the guitar melody with a piano (p) dynamic and a decrescendo (dim.) marking, and the piano accompaniment with a piano (p) dynamic. The page number 4659 is at the bottom.

This page of musical notation is arranged in four systems, each consisting of three staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The first staff of the first system is marked with 'Gt.' and 'Sw.' and contains dynamic markings of f, pp, and mf. The second system includes first and second endings, marked with '1' and '2'. The third system features a 'Ch.' (Chorus) marking. The fourth system also includes a 'Ch.' marking. The notation is complex, with many beamed notes and slurs, indicating a fast and technically demanding piece. The page number '1281' is visible in the top right corner of the first system.

First system of musical notation. The top staff features a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains several measures of music, with dynamic markings pp, f, pp, f, pp, mf, and pp. Above the staff, there are labels: Sw. (Soprano), Gt. (Guitar), Sw., Gt., Sw., Gt., and Sw.. The bottom two staves are in bass clef and contain accompaniment.

Second system of musical notation. The top staff features a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains several measures of music, with a dynamic marking mf. Above the staff, there is a label: Gt. (Guitar). The bottom two staves are in bass clef and contain accompaniment.

Third system of musical notation. The top staff features a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains several measures of music, with dynamic markings pp, mf, pp, and mf. Above the staff, there are labels: Sw. (Soprano), Gt. (Guitar), Sw., and Gt.. The bottom two staves are in bass clef and contain accompaniment.

The musical score is arranged in four systems, each consisting of three staves. The notation is complex, featuring many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, often beamed together. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The first system begins with a first ending bracket labeled '1' and a trill marking 'tr'. The second system continues the melodic and harmonic development. The third system includes a first ending bracket labeled '1' and a plus sign '+'. The fourth system features a forte dynamic 'f' and a crescendo marking 'cres:'. The score concludes with a final cadence on the bottom staff.

The image displays a musical score for organ, consisting of five systems of three staves each. The notation is written in black ink on a white background. The first system begins with a treble clef on the top staff and a bass clef on the bottom staff. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system features the marking 'ten.' (tension) above the top staff. The fourth system includes the marking 'cres:' (crescendo) above the top staff and 'f' (forte) below the bottom staff. The fifth system concludes the piece. The score is a complex arrangement of organ music, likely for a specific hymn or liturgical setting.

The musical score is arranged in four systems, each consisting of three staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, slurs, and dynamic markings. The first system includes a cres: marking and a f (fortissimo) dynamic. The second system includes cres:, dim (decrescendo), and p (piano) markings. The third system includes a cres: marking. The fourth system includes a tr (trill) marking. The score is written in a key with one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C).

The musical score is arranged in four systems, each consisting of three staves. The first two staves of each system are joined by a brace on the left. The notation includes various musical symbols such as treble and bass clefs, key signatures (one sharp and one flat), time signatures, and dynamic markings. The first system features a treble staff with a melodic line and a bass staff with a supporting line. The second system continues the melodic development with some trills and slurs. The third system includes a forte (f) dynamic, a crescendo (cres:) marking, and a fortissimo (ff) section. The fourth system features a swell (Sw.) marking, triplet and sixteenth-note figures, and another crescendo (cres:) at the end. The notation is detailed, with many beamed notes and slurs indicating complex rhythmic patterns.

This musical score is arranged for three parts: Organ, Guitar (Gt.), and Swell Pedal (Sw.). The Organ part is written on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The Guitar part is on a single staff with a treble clef. The Swell Pedal part is on a single staff with a bass clef. The score is divided into four systems. The first system begins with a treble clef on the Organ staff and a key signature of one sharp (F#). Dynamics include sf (sforzando) and sf Sw. (sforzando Swell Pedal). The second system continues the organ and guitar parts, with the organ staff having a treble clef and the guitar staff having a bass clef. Dynamics include sf, cres: (crescendo), and sf. The third system features a treble clef on the organ staff and a key signature change to two sharps (F# and C#). Dynamics include f (forte) and sf. The fourth system concludes with a treble clef on the organ staff and a key signature of two sharps. Dynamics include cres:, ff (fortissimo), and Gt. con fuoco. (Guitar with fire). The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and accidentals.

This musical score is arranged for organ and consists of several systems of staves. The notation includes treble and bass clefs, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals. Dynamic markings are present throughout, including sf (sforzando), Adagio, tr (trill), and ff (fortissimo). The score concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

THE ORGAN WORKS OF J. S. BACH.

EDITED BY J. F. BRIDGE, MUS. DOC., OXON., AND JAMES HIGGS, MUS. BAC., OXON.

In this, the first complete English Edition of John Sebastian Bach's Organ Works (the Chorale Preludes excepted), the distribution of the parts between the hands is, in all doubtful cases, clearly indicated by the notes that are to be performed by the right hand being printed on the upper of the two manual staves, while the notes that are to be played by the left hand will be found on the lower of the two manual staves. As far as possible care has been taken not needlessly to divide a middle part between the two hands when it can be conveniently performed by one hand continuously. The text has been carefully collated with former Editions, but generally where it differs from Griepenkerl's reading (Peters) it will be found to agree with the more recent Edition of the German Bach Society. Much thought has been given to secure convenient points for turning over, a matter of considerable importance to the performer. (See the "Great" G minor and the "St. Ann's" Fugues.) Suggestions as to the rate of performance and general treatment are given without encumbering the page with too detailed directions, and it is hoped the work in its complete form will be found a boon to the earnest Organ student.

Book I.—EIGHT SHORT PRELUDES AND FUGUES s. d. 2 6

The eight short Preludes and Fugues in the first book are of inestimable value as an introduction to Bach's greater Organ works. Occasional marks of phrasing are added. The changes of keyboard or registers are very simple, and are only made in places where the structure of the composition allows and justifies the treatment. The work is laid out for a three-manual Organ, but the several compositions may generally be performed on an instrument of two manuals.

Book II.—PRELUDES, FUGUES, AND TRIO s. d. 3 0

The second book is more advanced in point of difficulty than the first, and will be found of conspicuous interest. It includes the well known "Giant" in D minor, the shorter Prelude and Fugue in E minor (a great favourite with Mendelssohn), and an exceedingly effective Prelude and Fugue in C minor, in addition to other less-known but important works. It is a specialty of this edition that a convenient and effective mode of performance is everywhere indicated.

Book III.—PRELUDES, FUGUES, AND FANTASIA s. d. 3 0

The third book contains compositions of greater difficulty, it is therefore more fully fingered and marked for the pedals. It is believed Organ Students will derive the greatest possible assistance by having their attention directed from the outset to a convenient method of dealing with each difficulty as it arises. The present book includes the Fugue in B minor, on a subject from Corelli, a beautiful Prelude and Fugue in A major (most useful for obtaining command of the higher part of the Pedal-board), a Prelude and Fugue in C major, a Fantasia and Fugue in C minor, and the well-known short G minor Fugue.

Book IV.—SONATAS FOR TWO MANUALS AND PEDAL s. d. 3 0

The fourth book contains the first three of the six celebrated Sonatas or Trios for two manuals and pedal. Spitta says: "These Sonatas were intended by J. S. Bach to complete the education of his eldest son, Wilhelm Friedemann, as an organist." They are invaluable as studies and very beautiful as music. In the present edition they are for the first time fingered and marked for the Pedals.

Book V.—SONATAS FOR TWO MANUALS AND PEDAL s. d. 3 0

The fifth book contains the last three of the six Sonatas. Those in E minor, C major, and G major. They are of exceeding value to the Student of Organ Playing. The mastery of them assuring him of that thorough independence of hands and feet so indispensable to the fully accomplished organist. As in the former book, proper fingering and pedalling is everywhere indicated. The Preface contains a detailed analysis of each movement.

Book VI.—PRELUDES AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The sixth book includes several of Bach's greatest and most popular Organ Works. (1) The Toccata in D minor, with its contrasting effects of recitative-like passages and massive harmonies. (2) The well known Prelude and Fugue in D major, which Spitta describes as "one of the most dazzlingly beautiful of all the master's Organ Works. . . . Skilful pedal-players will find it exactly suited to them, for the theme is quite exceptionally fitted for pedal technique." (3) The Prelude and Fugue in F minor, less known perhaps than the other contents of the book, but scarcely less beautiful, or less worthy of the student's attention. (4) The great Prelude in E flat major, together with the Fugue in three sections, known as the St. Ann's. The whole are laid out with especial regard to the convenience of the player.

Book VII.—PRELUDES AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The seventh book contains several of Bach's most masterly works. The great A minor Prelude and Fugue, the lovely B minor Prelude and Fugue, and the majestic C minor Prelude and Fugue are included together with two that are less well known—a Prelude and Fugue in C major, a brilliant work, and the Prelude and Fugue in G major (Prelude in 3-2 time). This work has perhaps suffered in popularity from the fact of its having hitherto been set out in a somewhat crowded manner, a defect that has been remedied in the present edition.

Book VIII.—PRELUDES AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The eighth book contains five of Bach's masterpieces—viz., Prelude and Fugue, C major (four movements); Prelude and Fugue, E minor, sometimes known as the "Wedge" Fugue, from the form of the subject. The G major Prelude and Fugue, a brilliant work; Prelude and Fugue, G minor, perhaps the least known of the five works, but a worthy companion of the others, and the great Fantasia and Fugue in G minor, a work of world-wide reputation.

Book IX.—TOCCATAS, PRELUDES, AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The ninth book includes the great Toccata in C major, with the unique intermediate Adagio. The Prelude and Fugue in D minor (the Fugue adapted and arranged for the Organ by Bach from the solo Violin Sonata in G minor). Prelude and Fugue in C major (Prelude in 9-8 time), one of the original "Six Grand Preludes and Fugues," and truly a grand work. The three-section Fantasia in G major; and the gigantic Toccata and Fugue in F major.

Book X.—TOCCATA, PRELUDES, AND FUGUES s. d. 3 0

The tenth book contains (1) The great Toccata and Fugue in D minor (Dorico); (2) A little known Prelude and Fugue in A minor, which, although not taking rank among Bach's greatest works, is yet of much interest (vide Preface); (3) Passacaglia and Fugue in C minor, universally regarded as one of the Master's best works, and eminently fitted to display the resources and grandeur of the Organ; (4) The Fugue in C minor on a theme by Legrenzi, with its brilliant and Fantasia-like Coda; (5) A detached Prelude in A minor, which only requires to be better known to command wider appreciation than it has hitherto obtained.

Book XI.—FOUR CONCERTOS s. d. 3 0

The eleventh book contains Four Concertos, which are arrangements of works originally written as Violin Concertos by Vivaldi. No. 1 is in G major; No. 2 in A minor; No. 3 in C major; No. 4 in C major. The Preface contains a biographical note of Vivaldi, and a short analysis of the Concertos contained in the Number.

Book XII.—PRELUDES, FANTASIAS, FUGUES, TRIO, &c. s. d. 3 0

This concluding book contains some of the less known of Bach's Organ Works, but in general attractiveness may compare not unfavourably with either of the previous books, its interest being of a very diversified character. It includes more than a dozen pieces:—a brilliant Fugue in G major, 12-8, of great interest and effect; Fantasia and Fugue in A minor, a very attractive work; Fantasia with imitation, B minor, sometimes included among the clavier works, but essentially organ music; Fantasia in G major, an interesting and important work. There are also several smaller compositions (some for manual alone), as Fugues in D, G, C, and C minor, two Preludes and a Fantasia in C, a Trio, Aria, and the Pastorale in F, with other pieces associated with it after the manner of a Suite.

The musical score is arranged in three systems, each consisting of three staves. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a dynamic marking of f. The first staff contains complex chordal textures, while the second and third staves provide a more melodic and harmonic accompaniment. The second system continues this texture, with the first staff featuring rapid sixteenth-note passages. The third system concludes the piece with a key signature change to one flat (Bb) and a final melodic flourish in the first staff, accompanied by a p (piano) dynamic marking.

This musical score is arranged for three instruments: Organ, Guitar (Gt.), and Piano (P.). The Organ part is written on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The Guitar part is on a single staff and includes accents and a crescendo (cres:) marking. The Piano part is also on a grand staff and features a fortissimo (ff) dynamic. The score is divided into four systems, each containing staves for the Organ, Guitar, and Piano. The key signature has one flat, and the time signature is 4/4. The music is characterized by flowing sixteenth-note passages in the Organ and Piano, and more rhythmic, accented figures in the Guitar.

The musical score is arranged in two systems, each consisting of four staves. The first system includes various musical notations such as sf (sforzando), Sw. (swells), Gt. (Guitar), cres: (crescendo), and sf (sforzando). The second system includes sf (sforzando), Sw. (swells), ff (fortissimo), Gt. (Guitar), ten (tension), accet. (accelerando), rall (rallentando), hr (harmonic), and Finis. (Finis). The tempo markings ADAGIO. and ALLEGRO MAESTOSO. are also present.
