GENERAL PREFACE

The Carl Nielsen Edition is an independent project under the auspices of the Music and Theatre Department of the Royal Library, launched in 1994 on the initiative of the Ministry of Culture and funded by the Ministry and the foundation Carl Nielsen og Anne Marie Carl-Nielsens Legat, with further financial support for the publication of the individual volumes from a number of other private foundations.

The edition is for both practical and scholarly use, and is based on critical editorial principles. It comprises all Nielsen's finished works and completed individual pieces, and seeks as far as possible to reflect the works in the version last sanctioned by the composer. In cases where songs exist in several different arrangements by Nielsen, all the versions are published.

Each work is furnished with an introduction which gives a brief account of the genesis of the work and its place in the composer's oeuvre, and a Critical Commentary including source description, editorial emendations and additions, and important alternative readings. The editorial material is published together with the music.

The edition is divided into the three main series Stage Music, Instrumental Music and Vocal Music, each further divided into volumes; within each genre the works are ordered chronologically.

Series I, Stage Music

- Operas
- Incidental music

Series II, Instrumental Music

- Symphonies
- Other orchestral works
- Concertos
- Chamber music
- Piano and organ works

GENERELT FORORD

Carl Nielsen Udgiven er et selvstændigt projekt under Det Kongelige Biblioteks Musik- og Teaterafdeling, iværksat i 1994 på Kulturministeriets foranledning og finansieret af Kulturministeriet og Carl Nielsen og Anne Marie Carl-Nielsens Legat, hvortil kommer støtte fra en række private fonde til udgivelse af de enkelte bind.

Udgiven er til såvel praktisk som videnskabelig brug, tilrettelagt efter kritisk-videnskabelige udgivelsesprincipper. Den omfatter samtlige Carl Nielsens afsluttede værker og enkeltsatser og søger i videst mulige omfang at afspejle værkerne i den af komponisten senest sanktionerede version. I tilfælde, hvor sange foreligger i flere forskellige arrangementer fra Carl Nielsens hånd, udgives alle versioner.

Hvert værk er forsynet med en indledning, der kort beskriver værkets tilblivelseshistorie og placerer det i den samlede produktion, samt en kritisk beretning, hvor der redegøres for kildesituationen, redaktionelle ændringer og tilføjelser og vigtige varianter. Den kritiske beretning udgives sammen med noteteksten.

Udgiven er opdelt i hovedserierne Scenemusik, Instrumentalmusik og Vokalmusik med tilhørende opdeling i enkeltbind; inden for hver genre er værkerne ordnet kronologisk.

Serie I, Scenemusik

- Operaer
- Skuespilmusik

Serie II, Instrumentalmusik

- Symphonier
- Andre orkesterværker
- Koncerter
- Kammermusik
- Klaver- og orgelværker

Series III, Vocal Music

Cantatas
Songs
Choral Pieces

Series IV, Juvenilia et Addenda

Editorial principles

The music is reproduced with no typographical indications of editorial additions or emendations. These are documented in the Critical Commentary. Typography, score disposition, genre names, and instrument names have been normalized in accordance with present-day practice. With a few exceptions, discussed in more detail in the Critical Commentary, the many additions and changes in Nielsen's works that have been made by friends and colleagues have been removed.

Articulation, dynamics, ties and slurs, execution markings and playing instructions have been normalized on the basis of analogies between clearly parallel passages. All such completions are documented in the Critical Commentary. Obvious writing and printing errors have been tacitly corrected.

Nielsen often notated horns and trumpets with key signatures. This practice has been normalized to a notation exclusively using accidentals.

"Muta in" in connection with the retuning of timpani and changes between two instruments (for example clarinet in A and B^b) have been tacitly normalized. This also applies to the combination of ties and slurs.

In Nielsen's manuscripts the dynamic markings are sometimes rather carelessly placed, and this is also reflected in the early printed editions. This has been tacitly adjusted. The same goes for missing punctuation in Nielsen's texts.

Clefs are normally given as in the main source.

Redaktionelle principper

Nodeteksten gengives uden typografisk markering af redaktionelle tilføjelser eller ændringer. Disse er dokumenteret i den kritiske beretning. Typografi, partituropstilling, instrument- og genrebetegnelser er normaliseret efter nutidig praksis. Med enkelte undtagelser, som der er gjort nærmere rede for i den kritiske beretning, er de mange tilføjelser og ændringer i Carl Niensens værker, der er foretaget af venner og kolleger, fjernet.

Nodeteksten er normaliseret med hensyn til artikulation, dynamik, buer, foredragsbetegnelser og spilletekniske anvisninger således, at der er analogi mellem entydige parallelsteder. Alle sådanne kompletteringer dokumenteres i den kritiske beretning. Oplagte skrive- og trykfejl er stiltiende rettet.

Carl Nielsen noterede ofte horn og trompeter med faste fortegn. Denne praksis er normaliseret til notation udelukkende med løse fortegn.

"Muta in" i forbindelse med omstemning af pauker og skift mellem to instrumenter (f.eks. klarinet i A og B^b) er stiltiende normaliseret. Det samme gælder kombinationen af buer og bindebuer.

I Carl Niensens manuskripter er de dynamiske angivelser undertiden placeret noget skødesløst, hvilket afspejler sig i de tidlige trykte udgaver. Dette er stiltiende justeret. Ligeledes er manglende, nødvendig tegnsætning i Carl Niensens tekster stiltiende tilføjet.

Nøgler gengives normalt som i hovedkilden.

FORORD

PREFACE

This volume contains a number of Nielsen's instrumental juvenilia (Add. 1-16)¹ together with sketches that were seemingly not worked out with a view to publication or performance, but which nevertheless constitute complete compositions (Add. 17-27, 45-49). In addition we publish the composer's arrangements of his own works (Add. 29-37), a selection of his counterpoint exercises (Add. 38-44) and a single work that has survived incomplete but nevertheless can be reconstructed (Add. 28). Not all these works survive in Nielsen's hand. But if they can be traced to his authorship with nearly complete certainty – for example, if they carry his signature or if their provenance can be traced back to him directly – they are included here.²

The aim of the Carl Nielsen Edition is to publish all the composer's completed compositions, which in practice means all his completed movements, since it is not always possible to determine whether or not one or several individual movements were to have formed part of a cycle. The Edition's criterion for whether a movement may be considered complete has up to now been whether it concludes with a double bar; however, it has not been possible to stick to this principle here. In certain cases there are too many incomplete bars on the way to the double bar; in others there are movements that are undoubtedly finished, but where the double bar itself is lacking. Still other unpublished works without a concluding double bar or with many incomplete bars may be completed or reconstructed by means of modest editorial initiative, mainly by analogy with other parts of the music. In addition it has not been considered relevant whether or not a composition should finish with a tonic chord in the home key. For example, the Trauermarsch (Add. 15) for string quartet ends with a half close followed by a double bar and repeat sign, which implies that it may in principle be repeated any number of times.

- 1 For practical reasons the compositions are given addenda numbers (Add.) from 1 to 49.
 - 2 As distinct from other genres, all songs, irrespective of their possible status as juvenilia, are published in CNU III/4-7.

Dette bind indeholder en række af Carl Niensens instrumentale juvenilia (Add. 1-16)¹ samt skitser, som tilsyneladende ikke er gennemarbejdet med henblik på udgivelse eller opførelse, men som dog udgør afsluttede kompositioner (Add. 17-27, 45-49). Desuden publiceres komponistens arrangeringer af egne værker (Add. 29-37), et udvalg af hans kontrapunktstudier (Add. 38-44) samt et enkelt ufuldstændigt overleveret værk (Add. 28), som dog har kunnet rekonstrueres.

Ikke alle disse værker er overleveret i Carl Niensens håndskrift. Men hvis de med en til vished grænsende sikkerhed kan henføres til hans autorskab, f.eks. ved at de er forsynet med hans signatur eller ved at proveniensen kan føres direkte tilbage til ham, er de medtaget her.²

Målsætningen med Carl Nielsen Udgaven er at udgive alle komponistens fuldførte kompositioner, hvilket i praksis vil sige alle hans fuldførte satser, da man ikke kan afgøre, om en eller flere enkeltsatser skulle have indgået i en cyklus af flere satser eller ej. Kriteriet for, at en sats anses for at være fuldført, har i CNU hidtil været, at den slutter med en dobbeltstreg; imidlertid har dette princip ikke kunnet fastholdes her. I nogle tilfælde har der været for mange udfyldte takter på vej hen til dobbeltstregen, i andre tilfælde findes satser, der utvivlsomt er afsluttede, men hvor dobbeltstregen mangler. Atter andre utrykte værker uden afsluttende dobbeltstreg eller med mange udfyldte takter har vist sig at kunne kompletteres eller rekonstrueres ved sparsomme redaktionelle indgreb, først og fremmest analogikompletteringer. Det har således ikke været et krav, at en komposition skulle slutte på en grundakkord i hovedtonearten. For eksempel munder Trauermarsch (Add. 15) for strygekvartet ud i en halvslutning fulgt af dobbeltstreg og repetitionstegn, hvilket indebærer at den i princippet kan gentages uendeligt mange gange.

- 1 Af praktiske årsager er kompositionerne forsynet med addenda-numre (Add.) fra 1 til 49.
 - 2 I modsætning til hvad der gælder øvrige genrer, er samtlige sange, uanset deres eventuelle status som juvenilia, gengivet i CNU III/4-7.

In principle we publish all the arrangements made by the composer himself, or that are found in a version approved by him with a view to performance in this form. On the other hand, we omit rehearsal scores, arrangements that may be considered principally for study purposes, or short scores made with a view to being orchestrated. In practice, however, it can be difficult to determine the purpose of a particular arrangement, as in the case of the Dances from 'Aladdin' for Piano (see below, Add. 34).

The compositions in this volume are edited according to the same guidelines as the composer's other works, with the exception of Add. 45-49, included here in an appendix, which are of such a character that they can hardly have been thought of as independent pieces of music. This is the case with a page of music in a visitors' book and four sketches that may serve to show something of the composer's process of work or biographical circumstances. The movements in the appendix are published in unedited notation, side by side with facsimiles of their respective manuscripts. Since there is no critical commentary as such for the movements in the appendix, the source description in these cases is given beneath each movement.

Below is a list of compositions that survive under Nielsen's name but which by the above-mentioned criteria for publication are not included in the Carl Nielsen Edition, together with works that are mentioned in the literature but which are either lost or never existed.

The volume is arranged such that chamber works appear first; these are followed by piano pieces, the Cantata for the Commemoration of P.S. Krøyer, the composer's arrangements of his own works, and a selection of his exercises in counterpoint. The Appendix concludes the volume. Within the individual categories the compositions are arranged so far as possible chronologically (alternatively according to genres or instrumental forces), although the criteria for dating are in some instances highly uncertain. By contrast with the volumes in Series I-III, the source descriptions and emendations for individual movements are placed in immediate continuation from each other at the end of the volume under the heading Critical Commentary.

The compositions were shared out between the editors as follows:

Lisbeth Ahlgren Jensen: Add. 1, 4, 6-17, 19-20, 25, 27, 29-30, 32, 35, 37-44

Lisbeth Larsen: Add. 2-3, 5, 18, 21-24, 26, 28, 31, 33, 36, 45-49
Niels Krabbe: Add. 34

Ideelt set udgives alle de arrangemente, der er udarbejdet af komponisten selv, eller som forefindes i et af ham godkendt arrangement med henblik på at blive opført i denne skikkelse. Derimod udelades indstuderingsspartiturer, arrangemente, der må formodes fortrinsvis at tjene studieformål eller particeller, der er udført med henblik på at blive instrumenteret. I praksis kan det dog være svært at afgøre formålet med det enkelte arrangement; det gælder således Dansene til Aladdin for klaver (se nedenfor, Add. 34).

Kompositionerne i dette bind er redigeret efter samme retningslinjer som komponistens øvrige værker, med undtagelse af Add. 45-49, der er udgivet i et appendiks, og som har en sådan karakter, at de næppe er tænkt som selvstændige musikstykker. Det drejer sig om et musikalsk stambogsblad og fire skitser, der kan tjene til at vise noget om komponistens arbejdsproces eller biografiske omstændigheder. Satserne i Appendiks udgives i en uredigeret nodesats side om side med en faksimile af det pågældende manuskript. Da der ikke bringes et egentligt revisionsapparat for satser i Appendiks, bringes kildebeskrivelsen under den enkelte sats.

Nedenfor bringes en liste over kompositioner, der er overleveret under Carl Niensens navn, men som på grund af ovennævnte udvælgelseskriterier ikke er medtaget i Carl Nielsen Udgaven, samt værker, der er omtalt i litteraturen, men som enten er gået tabt eller aldrig har eksisteret.

Bindet er disponeret således, at kammermusikalske værker anbringes først; derpå følger klaverværker, Kantate til Mindefesten for P.S. Krøyer, komponistens arrangemente af egne værker samt et udvalg af hans kontrapunkt opgaver. Endelig afslutter Appendiks bindet. I de enkelte kategorier er kompositionerne søgt anbragt kronologisk (subsidiært efter genre eller besætning), omend kriterierne for en datering undertiden er meget usikre. Til forskel fra bindene i serie I-III sættes kildebeskrivelse og Editorial Emendations for de enkelte satser i umiddelbar forlængelse af hinanden bag i bindet under overskriften Critical Commentary.

Kompositionerne er fordelt mellem udgiverne således:

Lisbeth Ahlgren Jensen: Add. 1, 4, 6-17, 19-20, 25, 27, 29-30, 32, 35, 37-44

Lisbeth Larsen: Add. 2-3, 5, 18, 21-24, 26, 28, 31, 33, 36, 45-49
Niels Krabbe: Add. 34

Nielsen possibly composed, or perhaps to be more precise constructed, the movement immediately after his student years,⁴⁵ but there is evidence that he himself used this technique in his teaching of others, making the pupil copy an existing formal construction, and he also advised his young Swedish colleague Bror Beckmann to use this method:

“but if you will accept a piece of advice from me, I would say: do plenty of exercises in counterpoint and modulation – that will purify, mature and strengthen your talent. And if you tackle the larger forms, then you will find things easier in the smaller ones. For example, as an exercise write a quartet just like the allegro first movement of Beethoven’s Op. 18 No. 1. The same number of bars, the same modulations and the same working-out all the way through. You’ll see, it’s worthwhile. Or a Bach fugue!”⁴⁶

Thus it was a kind of an apprenticeship Nielsen was recommending to his young Swedish colleague.

MOVEMENT FOR TWO VIOLINS,
VIOLA AND CELLO IN G MINOR
(ADD. 12)

So far as dynamics, articulation and phrasing are concerned, this movement is notated in greater detail than the other independent quartet movements. It has been regarded as a preliminary study⁴⁷ for the first movement, Allegro, of the Quartet for Two Violins, Viola and Cello in G minor Op. 13, which was published in 1900, but given that the motivic similarities between the two movements are not great, it would seem to be more a case of a rejected movement for Op. 13. Since that quartet underwent revision before it was printed, and since there is no known performance material from the time prior to its revision, this assumption cannot be substantiated. The quartet movement survives in an autograph pencil fair copy and is known only in the form of this source.

47 In Birgit Bjørnum & Klaus Møllerhøj, Carl Niensens Samling, Copenhagen 1992, the movement (CNS 39d) is catalogued as a sketch for the Quartet for Two Violins, Viola and Cello Op. 13.

Carl Nielsen har muligvis komponeret, eller måske mere præcist konstrueret, satsen umiddelbart efter sin studietid,⁴⁵ men der er vidnesbyrd om, at han selv i sin undervisning af andre benyttede denne teknik med at lade eleven kopiere en eksisterende kompositions formopbygning, og også sin unge svenske kollega Bror Beckmann rådede han til at benytte denne fremgangsmåde:

“men ifald Du vil modtage et Raad af mig saa siger jeg: Øv Dig meget i Kontrapunkt og Modulation, det vil rense, modne og fæstne dit Talent. Og tag saa engang fat paa større Former saa har Du lettere ved de mindre. Skriv f. Expl til Studium en Kvartet ganske som Beethovens Op 18 N^o 1 1ste Allegro. Samme Antal Takter, samme Modulationer og samme Udarbejdelse helt igjennem. Du skal se det lønner sig. Eller en Fuga af Bach!”⁴⁶

Det er således i mere end én forstand en mesterlære, Carl Nielsen tilråder den unge svenske kollega.

S A T S F O R T O V I O L I N E R , B R A T S C H
O G C E L L O I G M O L (A D D . 1 2)

Denne sats er, hvad dynamik, artikulation og frasering angår, mere udførligt noteret end de øvrige selvstændige kvartetsatser. Den har været betragtet som et forarbejde⁴⁷ til den indledende sats, Allegro, i Kvartet for to violiner, bratsch og cello i g-mol, opus 13, der blev udgivet i 1900, men da den motiviske lighed mellem de to satser ikke er stor, er der snarere tale om, at den udgør en forkastet førstesats til opus 13. Da sidstnævnte kvartet var igennem en revision, før den tryktes, og da der ikke kendes opførelsesmateriale fra tiden forud for dens revision, kan denne formodning dog ikke bekræftes. Kvartetsatsen er bevaret i en autograf blyantrenskrift og kendes kun i form af denne kilde.

CRITICAL COMMENTARY

In the Critical Commentary the following conventions are used:

- 1 “by analogy with” is used when something has been “added”, “emended” or “omitted” by analogy with another passage in the main source. The analogy may be vertical. When something is added “by analogy with” one or more instruments, it is understood that the analogy is with the same place in the same bar(s). Or it may be horizontal. When something is added “by analogy with” one or more bars, it is understood that the analogy is with a parallel place in the same instrument(s).
- 2 “as in” is used when something is “added”, “emended” or “omitted” to correspond to the same place in another source.
- 3 “in accordance with” is used in cases where there is no authoritative source, only a guideline – for example printed part material.

In the bar number column, the symbol “+” is used to indicate an upbeat to the bar in question.
