

The Blackbird - Humbert Wolfe

Handwritten musical score for the first system. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "In the far corner close by the wings, every morning a black bird sings". The music is in 5/4 time and includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and accidentals.

Handwritten musical score for the second system. The lyrics are: "his bills so yellow His coat so black." The piano part includes the instruction "Cosa prima". The music continues with complex rhythmic patterns and chordal structures.

A large section of the manuscript consisting of multiple systems of musical notation. This section is heavily obscured by numerous scribbles, corrections, and overlapping lines of ink, making the original notation largely illegible. Some faint notes and accidentals are visible through the clutter.

Wander-Thirst - General Gault.

Beyond the East the sun rise

be yond the West the East

& West
the wander thirst
that will not let me be

It workin me like madnes
Dear
to bid me a goodbye

the call

of the sky
call of the stars call oh call the call of the sky

call
I know not where the white road
run

run near what the hills are But a man can have the sun for friend & for his guide

a star
