First system of musical notation. The upper staff features a melodic line with a trill (tr) and a dynamic marking of mf. The lower staff consists of two parts: a treble clef part with a mf dynamic and a bass clef part. The key signature has two flats, and the time signature is 4/4.

Second system of musical notation. The upper staff shows a melodic line with a cresc. marking, followed by f, sf, and mf. The lower staff has a treble clef part with a cresc. marking and a bass clef part with a f dynamic. The musical notation continues with various rhythmic patterns and accidentals.

Third system of musical notation. The upper staff features a melodic line with a molto cresc. marking. The lower staff has a treble clef part with a mf dynamic and a bass clef part with a tr (trill) and a molto cresc. marking. The notation includes complex rhythmic figures and accidentals.

Fourth system of musical notation. The upper staff shows a melodic line with a mf dynamic. The lower staff has a treble clef part with a mf dynamic and a bass clef part. The system concludes with various musical notations, including rests and accidentals.

This page of musical notation consists of ten systems of staves. The notation is complex, featuring many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, often beamed together in rapid passages. Trills (tr) are used in several places, particularly in the lower staves. Dynamic markings include sf (sforzando) in the first, third, and fourth systems. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The notation is arranged in a standard Western musical format, with the treble and bass clefs alternating between systems. The overall style is characteristic of late 19th or early 20th-century piano music.

This musical score is for a piano and voice piece, spanning measures 1 to 12. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The piano part is written for grand staff (treble and bass clefs), and the voice part is in the treble clef. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, slurs, and dynamic markings.

Measures 1-4: The piano part features a complex, flowing melody in the right hand and a more rhythmic accompaniment in the left hand. The voice part enters in measure 1 with a melodic line.

Measures 5-8: The piano part continues with intricate fingerings and slurs. The voice part has a melodic phrase that concludes in measure 8.

Measures 9-12: The piano part features a series of chords in the right hand and a melodic line in the left hand. The voice part has a melodic phrase that concludes in measure 12.

Dynamic markings: cresc. (crescendo) is marked in measures 10 and 11. ritard. (ritardando) is marked in measure 12.

Old English Violin Music

EDITED BY

ALFRED MOFFAT

PREFATORY NOTE

ALTHOUGH considerable attention has been given to the resuscitation of Church Music, Glee and Madrigals, Organ and even Harpsichord Music by the older English composers, very little has been done to make known the large mass of music for the Violin written by English musicians from the time of Purcell to the close of the eighteenth century. These works for the most part consist of Suites or Sonatas written for a solo violin with a figured bass, or for two violins and violoncello with a figured bass for the harpsichord or organ: another favourite form was the Concerto grosso.

It is with the object of making known to the public a selection of the best of these compositions that the present series has been undertaken.
