

TO MARY AND SARAH.

MARY OF THE GLEN

WORDS BY

Charles G. Eastman, Esq.

MUSIC BY

GEO. F. ROOT.

Piano. Guitar.

NEW YORK

Published by WILLIAM HALL & SON, 239 Broadway.

Cincinnati,
COLBURN & FIELD.

Baltimore,
H. MC. CAFFREY.

Louisville,
G.W. BRAINARD & CO.

Entered according to Act of Congress, 1858, by William Hall & Son, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

MARY OF THE GLEN.

Geo. F. Root.

VOICE. Moderato. p

PIANO-FORTE.

Has

p a - ny bo - dy spoke for you Ma - ry of the Glen? Is there a heart that's broke for you Ma - ry of the Glen?

f

I have lands and I have leas - es, I have gold and cattle too,

p

I have sheep with fin - est fleeces, Can I marry you?

mf

No - bo - dy sir, has spoke for me Ma - ry of the Glen, There

f p

is no heart that's broke for me Ma - ry of the Glen, But there is blue-eyed Wil-lie Who la-bors with the men, Who brings the sweet pond li-ly To Ma-ry of the Glen.

He has neither lands nor leas-es But his cheek is cherry red And fin - er than your fleeces, Are the curls up-on his head, And tho' he's never spoke for me, I know he loves me true, And his heart it would be broke for me, If I should marry you.

No, no, no, no, no, no, I can-not marry you.