

Litho. of Endicott & Swett 359 Broadway N.Y.

OH MOUNT THY BRIGHT AND GALLANT STEED,

(Written Composed and)

(Respectfully Inscribed)

TO

M^{RS} CRAMER PLUMER.

BY

JOHN H. HEWITT.

Baltimore, Published by George Willig, Jun^r

Oh! mount thy bright and gallant steed

Written Composed and Respectfully Inscribed to

M^{RS} CRAMER PLUMER

— BY —

JOHN H. HEWITT

Baltimore Published and Sold by Geo. Willig Jr. No. 149 Market St.

BOLD.

Dolce.

2d. Ver. Oh! raise on high thy banner bright, The Oh! mount thy bright and gallant steed, My crescent waves up on the air; Up rise thy brothers in their might, Oh!
warrior boy, the foe is near; Greece calls thee in the time of need, Then warrior boy why tarry here? Fame bids thee fix thy snowy plume, And mount thy charger for the why inglorious tarry here? Say, can I love thee half so well, As when oft to the battle fray, Love twines thee flows of fairy bloom, But none like those in glory's bay cry, How proud I saw thy bosom swell, Or mark'd the flashing of thine eye ad.lib.

Oh! raise on high thy banner bright, The crescent waves up - on the air;

Oh! mount thy bright and gallant steed, My warrior boy, the foe is near;

Up rise thy brother's in their might, Oh! warrior boy why tarry here?

Greece calls thee in the time of need, Then why inglorious tarry here?

Oh! mount thy bright and gallant steed