First system of musical notation. The treble clef staff contains a melodic line with a slur over the first two measures. The bass clef staff contains a continuous sixteenth-note accompaniment, with the number '6' written above the staff in each measure. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The system concludes with a repeat sign.

Second system of musical notation, marked "Ossia". The treble clef staff features a melodic line with a slur. The bass clef staff continues the sixteenth-note accompaniment. Dynamic markings include rfz (ritardando, forzando) and ff (fortissimo). The system concludes with a repeat sign.

Third system of musical notation, marked cresc. molto (crescendo molto). The treble clef staff shows a melodic line with a slur. The bass clef staff continues the sixteenth-note accompaniment. The system concludes with a repeat sign.

Fourth system of musical notation, marked sim. (simile). The treble clef staff features a melodic line with a slur. The bass clef staff continues the sixteenth-note accompaniment. The system concludes with a repeat sign.

The musical score is written for piano and features a complex interplay of textures. The upper staves (treble and bass clef) contain melodic lines with various ornaments, including grace notes and slurs. The lower staves (treble and bass clef) are dominated by a continuous, rapid sixteenth-note pattern in the bass, which is often marked with a '6' (sextuplet). The score includes dynamic markings such as cresc. e stringendo and performance instructions like long and attacca al segno. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The score is divided into four systems, each with two staves per system. The first system includes a long marking and an attacca al segno instruction. The second and third systems feature a cresc. e stringendo marking. The fourth system continues the rapid sixteenth-note pattern in the bass.
