Andante Moderato

THEME.

The first staff of the theme is written in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 2/4 time signature. It begins with a quarter rest followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, including some beamed sixteenth notes. The melody is primarily in the upper register of the staff.

The second staff continues the melody from the first staff. It features a variety of rhythmic values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and includes some rests. The key signature and time signature remain consistent.

The piano accompaniment is written in grand staff notation (treble and bass clefs). It features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the treble. A bracket spans across the first two staves of the piano part, with the text "for the 2<sup>d</sup> time" written below it.

The third staff continues the melody. It includes a measure with a double bar line and repeat dots, indicating a first ending. The notation continues with eighth and sixteenth notes.

The fourth staff continues the melody. It features a measure with a double bar line and repeat dots, indicating a second ending. The notation continues with eighth and sixteenth notes.

The first variation begins with a treble clef, a key signature of three sharps, and a 2/4 time signature. The melody is more rhythmic, featuring many beamed sixteenth notes and eighth notes.

The second staff of the first variation continues the rhythmic melody with beamed sixteenth notes and eighth notes. It includes a measure with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The third staff of the first variation continues the rhythmic melody. It features a measure with a double bar line and repeat dots, and concludes with a final cadence.
