

LULU IS OUR DARLING PRIDE.

Written by ROSA HUGHES.

Music by C. JARVIS

PIANO. Allegretto.

VOICE.

1. Lu - lu is our dar - ling pride, Lu - lu bright, Lu - lu gay, Danc - ing light - ly at our side,
 2. As the flow'rs of ear - ly spring Seem more gay, seem more bright, As their per - fume first they fling,
 3. When the clouds of trou - ble come, Lu - lu soothes all our care; Ah! how dark would be our home,

PIANO.

All the live - long day. Not a bird that wings the air, Soar - ing to the sun, . .
 Fra - grant at our feet; So, tho' o - thers lov'd there be, Blooming in our bow'r. . .
 Were not Lu - lu there! Lu - lu, with her sun - ny smiles, Cheer - ing ev' - ry heart. . .

Free - er is from ev' - ry care, Than our dar - ling one. } Oh! Lu - lu is our dar - ling pride,
 Lu - lu wins our hearts, for she Is our love - liest flow'r. }
 Till each trou - ble she be - guiles, And the clouds de - part.

Lu - lu bright, Lu - lu gay, Danc - ing light - ly at our side, All the live - long day.

CHORUS.

TREBLE.
ALTO.
TENOR.
BASS.
PIANO.

Oh! Lu - lu is our dar - ling pride, Lu - lu bright, Lu - lu gay,

cres. mf >

Danc - ing light - ly at our side, All the live - long day.

cres. mf >

cres. mf mf