Handwritten musical score for Sonata in C major, Op. 10, No. 3 by Johann Sebastian Bach. The score is written for Cembalo (Clavichord) and is marked Adagio. The tempo is indicated by a large 'A' and the word 'Adagio' in the top left corner. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 3/8. The score consists of 12 measures, with the first measure being a whole note chord. The notation is written in a single system with a treble and bass staff. The handwriting is in a cursive style, typical of the 18th century. The paper is aged and shows some staining.

Handwritten musical score on 13 staves, featuring complex notation and various musical symbols.

The score is written in a historical style, likely from the 16th or 17th century. It consists of 13 staves, each with a unique set of musical symbols and notation. The notation includes various note values, rests, and complex rhythmic patterns. The staves are numbered 41 through 53, indicating the progression of the piece.

The notation is highly decorative and complex, with many notes and symbols that are difficult to transcribe accurately. The staves are arranged in a vertical column, and the notation is written in a dark ink. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including discoloration and some staining.

Handwritten musical score on 11 staves. The notation is in brown ink on aged, yellowed paper. The score consists of a single melodic line. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, sixteenth notes), rests, and bar lines. There are numerous small, handwritten numbers in the left and right margins, likely indicating measure numbers or other annotations. The handwriting is in a cursive style, typical of 18th or 19th-century musical manuscripts. The score ends with a double bar line on the 11th staff.
