

107

7)

Simpson Ely
Joplin, Mo.

15

❖ ❖ TO MY MOTHER. ❖ ❖

MY MOTHER'S

FAVORITE HYMN

(ROCK OF AGES.)

Song ❖ with ❖ Refrain.

WRITTEN AND COMPOSED

BY R. M. STULTS.

Price 40 Cents.

THE FILLMORE BROTHERS CO.,

No. 528 Elm Street,
CINCINNATI.

40-41 Bible House,
NEW YORK.

"TO MY MOTHER."

"My Mother's Favorite Hymn."

Words and Music by R. M. STULTS.

Andante.

mf

mf Not too fast.

1. I had wandered far away from home and friends to me most dear, And with strangers cast in-to a for-eign
 2. Sweeter far than all the mu-sic I had ev-er list-ened to Was that plaintive, simple mel-o-dy to land; And my soul had been en-rapt-ured with the strains of mu-sic sweet-me; How my mem'-ry wan-dered back-ward to my childhood's hap-py home, p mf Espressivo.

Mel-o-dies and har-mo-ny so grand. . . But one day when I was stroll-ing toward a Far a-way beyond the surg-ing sea. . . . I can hear her sweet voice sing-ing "Let me

f lit-tle coun-try church, A-part from all the cit-y's noise and din, . . . Like the hide my-self in thee," And the mem-'ry caus-es tears my eyes to dim; . . . And wher-

Rit. f Rit.

ech-o of a prayer, waft-ed on the calm still air, Came the strains of my dear mother's favorite hymn—
ev-er I may roam, far away from friends and home, I can ne'er for-get my saint-ed mother's hymn—

REFRAIN.

Andante. Tenderly.

"Rock of A - ges, cleft for me, Let me hide my-self in thee," Words that I can ne'er forget- I can hear that dear voice yet. She had fixed her faith in Him Who alone can cleanse from sin, "Rock of A - ges, cleft for me," Was my dear old mother's favorite hymn.